

Daily Capital Journal

BY HOPER BROTHERS. TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1897.

THE JOURNAL, Monday, was a Bryan number. The entire paper was given up to a recognition of the enthusiasm in the hearts of the multitude for the man from Nebraska.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

If Judge Terrell's lawyers can't force the payment of those two court house warrants, he can probably hire them a little later to prevent their payment.

Columbia county has in the past year reduced her debt $8300. Marion, a stiff Republican county, has in the same time increased her debt to about $50,000.

A farmer remarked the other day that of the three members of Marion county's court, Judge Terrell was certainly the most consistent.

Strange that a court which hires expensive lawyers to compel the payment of illegal warrants should refuse to pay a deputy assessor his salary ($400) for four dollars a day!

THE JOURNAL wishes to thank Salem Republicans for their cordial treatment of Mr. Bryan while passing through Oregon's capital city. Scores of old line McKinley men were free to express admiration for one of America's cleanest and purest public men.

Republican leaders say Judge Terrell is a bold bad man, but why aren't they prosecuting him?

Was it lack of circulation or lack of influence with the Statesman, that it could not keep the crowds from hearing Bryan?

Those blue Bryan posters in W. W. Martin's show window were very attractive, and people marvelled at the change of only six months. Verily, prosperity is coming!

"Evolution," quoth the monkey. "Makes all mankind our kin. There's no chance at all about it—Tails we loose, and heads they win."

An Illinois farmer who was struck by lightning while plowing was found to have $25,000 in his pocket. It is a rare thing for lightning to strike a man plowing, and rarer still for a plowman to have $25,000 in his pocket.

The Statesman says the applause for Bryan was mild.

The Statesman has become a great admirer of Tom Watson. Will its editor join the Populist party next.

One of Salem's enthusiastic Bryan women was heard to remark yesterday. "There is only one man in the world besides my husband and that is W. J. Bryan."

The Washington reports indicate that a Western trip is being planned by Mr. McKinley, and steps should be taken to see that he gets a proper and cordial invitation from this city.

If McKinley comes to Salem and the Republican state committee selects Hon. C. R. Irvine editor of the Statesman to introduce him THE JOURNAL will fully recognize the fact.

A few Democratic papers try to make capital out of the fact that Governor Lord reviewed the state troops on foot at Hood River in civilian dress, and did not ride on the "properly caparisoned horse" in full dress uniform.

FUSION IN IOWA.

The Iowa Fusion Conventions were especially important because they demonstrated the possibility of making permanent the union of all the elements which supported Mr. Bryan last year.

DIRECT LEGISLATION.

The current issue of "The Direct Legislation Record" contains the text of the direct legislation measures passed by the legislatures of South Dakota and Nebraska at their recent sessions.

Fees of State Supt. Irwin. County Supt. Jones Shows the Whole Case.

A number of teacher's state papers—certificates and diplomas—were yesterday placed before Gov. Lord, as has been custom heretofore, with the request that he attach his signature as a member of the state board of education.

Supt. Irwin says he has issued diplomas under a statute that especially empowers him as secretary of the state board of education to conduct examinations for diplomas.

Mr. Jones, in explanation of the above letter, says that the loose methods employed by the board in conducting examinations has resulted in an enormous increase in the commissions issued.

Thousands of women are dragging out a weary, miserable existence, because they do not fully realize what is the matter with them.

They do not know that to this one trouble is traceable almost all of their bodily ills.

Women whose blood is poor and whose whole system is run down by sickness and weakness, are afraid and ashamed to look in the glass.
