

Around the Evening Lamp.

The Parisian magazine, for July, contains three excellent short stories and an illustrated article on the Paris salon of 1897. In the latter we note that Miss Elizabeth Troeger, an Iowa girl, has a picture on exhibition.

Oregon is to have a literary publication, conducted by Mrs. Lischen Maud Miller, of Eugene, but published at Portland. The name of "Drift" has been suggested by Mr. C. E. S. Wood, an attorney who in his pleadings and briefs evinces great familiarity with classical English, and demonstrates that the legal profession is perhaps the strongest of all in giving hearty encouragement to belles lettres. The magazine has also the patronage of such writers as Ella Higginson, the New Whatecom poetess, Prof. Carson, of the State university; Joaquin Miller, of the Heights, Oakland, Cal., and all the prominent literary people of Oregon, as well as writers in New York and Chicago. The price is to be $1.50 per year.

The Chap-Book calls the New York Life "the only humorous paper of which we have any reason to be proud." Life's mirth is clean and always under control.

Laurens Maynard, of Boston, has published a collection of letters written by Walt Whitman to Peter Doyle, a young friend who was at one time a horse-car conductor and later a railroad hand. They are very plain and simple, every-day sort of letters, such as a father would write to a son. Admirers of Walt Whitman will want to own a copy. Price $1.

The Chap-Book, semi-monthly, is running a close race with the Bookman for supplying a spicy and newsy commentary on the current literary and non-literary publications. The Chicago publication is not so easily read as the Bookman and contains more shocks and surprises and on the whole is more productive of thought on the part of the reader. The Bookman gives one a feeling of fullness, while the Chap-Book is an appetizer and stimulant. If people must choose and would choose what the Americans need most, they will choose the latter. Herbert S. Stone Co., Publishers.

The Appletons, New York, have a series of one volume histories of the literatures of the world, edited by Edmund Gosse. The latest of these is Ancient Greek Literature, by Gilbert Murray, M. A., professor of Greek in the university of Glasgow. The work is divided into 18 chapters, a chronological table and index. We are glad to note that in the Roman and Byzantine period he ranks Lucian with Plutarch as the only writers who possess real importance to the world. Whoever has not read Lucian has little real conception of the Greek mind and its capacity for humor and knowledge of humanity. We speak of this as an instance of the completeness and justice of this history of Greek literature. All who cannot own the masterpiece of the Greek writings should at least secure this handbook. Eleven volumes are now completed and each one is by a great specialist in his particular language. The set must be a treasure for any college and the editor, Gosse, is a guaranty of accuracy, consistency, refinement and agreeable and entertaining qualities of high degree. D. Appleton & Co., New York.

Charles Scribner's Sons, of New York, have put a burden of obligation on present and future generations, not easily extinguished, by their publications, "Women of Colonial and Revolutionary Times." Best of the five volumes is that of Martha Washington, by Anne Hollingsworth Wharton, of Philadelphia. Each volume is a study at first hand into the social conditions of the times in which its heroine was placed. This volume is worthy to become the nucleus of a Martha Washington club in each community, and its reading aloud in any circle could not but stimulate patriotic regard for the worthiest man and the worthiest women among present or past generations. Its reading in any family circle cannot but impart dignity and culture to all who hear. As a text book for ideals in American social life it cannot be surpassed. The other four volumes are Merry Warren, Eliza Pinckney, Dolly Madison and Margaret Winthrop. The price of each is $1.25.

While three short stories of unusual merit are a distinct feature of the July Atlantic, still this issue contains aside from excellent fiction articles of permanent interest and value. Professor Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University, contributes an article upon The Making of the Nation, and asks the perplexing question, What is Americanism? Another political paper of importance is by E. L. Godkin, Editor of the Nation, on The Decline of Legislatures. He traces the development of legislatures, and shows how in all parts of the world there has been a startling decline in the dignity of legislative bodies.

A summer breeziness and wild western thrill of adventures pervade the stories in the July Midland Monthly, (Des Moines.)

"Grant's Life," by Judge Emerson, this month, develops six new views, taken for the Midland, at old Ft. Vancouver, on the Columbia.

Booker T. Washington's Tuskegee school is freely pictured.

Mrs. J. S. Clarkson, wife of Gen. Clarkson, contributes an able paper on Iowa Politics, recently read before the Society for Political Study, of New York City. A beautiful picture of Mrs. Clarkson adorns the frontispiece.

Numerous other interesting features are included in this number.

How many women do you know who are struggling along with burdens they were not meant to bear because their husbands have "lost their health?"

A man's health is an easy thing to lose. A little care and the right medicine make it easy to regain lost health. Neglected disease breeds death. Over work, exposure, wrong eating, wrong living generally may engender disease. Symptoms vary, but by far the majority of diseases are marked by a loss of vitality, a wasting of flesh. The lungs and the stomach suffer. Disease germs enter the system through these two organs.

Recovery means driving out the germs and building up strong, healthy tissues. The medicine that will do it quickest and most thoroughly is the medicine to take. That medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It searches out disease germs wherever they exist and exterminates them. It is a powerful, invigorating tonic. It promotes digestion, creates appetite, cures biliousness and all liver, kidney and stomach disorders, and so all blood diseases. All medicine dealers.

GIVES STRENGTH TO MEN.

It is remarkable fact that a man never appreciates the sufferings of others until he himself, has passed through the fire of pain or remorse. Then it is that he looks around for those who are suffering; he wants them to profit by his experience; he gives his time and money gladly for the benefit and never tire of his zeal. There are plenty of men weak and worn out, struggling with remorse and fear, and the natural outcome of habits that brought incapacity; a sense of loneliness and a feeling as if the best side of life had been banished forever. Such men should write to Thomas S. Slater, Box 390, Kalamazoo, Mich. He will send free of charge by mail, in a plain sealed envelope full particulars about the method he used, and this will enable any man to get a complete cure at home. It is the method Mr. Slater used to cure himself of the troubles that sap the strength and vigor. The cure was so complete, so satisfying and such a wonderful change from his former condition that he will gladly tell others all about it, sending all particulars. He figures that he doesn't know of a better way to show his appreciation of his own cure and the sufferings of others. There must be generous men in this world to offset the tide of avarice. Write to Mr. Slater—it will cost nothing for his description and method.

CURED AT 73 YEARS.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure Victorious. No other medicine can show such a record. Here is a veritable patriarch, 73 years of age, with strong predilection to overwork, who had Heart Disease 15 years. He took the New Heart Cure and is now sound and well.

I have been troubled for more than 15 years with heart disease. I was so dizzy, spells would come on me so severe, I could not get on my feet, and I had to be carried to my bed. I had physicians all over me, but they could not cure me. I was in a very bad way, and I was almost blind. I was in a very bad way, and I was almost blind.
