

CONGRESSIONAL.

Final Vote Agreed Upon.

Senator Morgan Makes the Proposition—Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The final vote on the conference report will be taken in the senate at 3 o'clock today. An unanimous agreement to this effect was reached after an exciting and dramatic debate. The proposition for the final vote came unexpectedly, the senior senator from Alabama, Morgan, presented it. It was greeted with shouts of "good, good" from the Republican senators, who for the first time saw the path clear for the final enactment of the tariff bill.

There was not any outward evidence when the senate met that the session was fast drawing to a close. The house bill was passed authorizing the president to suspend discriminating duties imposed on foreign vessels and commerce.

Allan then moved to proceed with the tariff conference report, but Tillman contested this with a motion to take up his resolution adversely reported for investigating the alleged senatorial speculation on sugar stocks. Tillman was about to begin a speech when Allison made a point of order that debate was not in order and the presiding officer sustained the point. Tillman thereupon asked for an aye and nay vote, on which his motion was lost; yeas 15, nays 35.

A joint resolution was passed for the erection of a government building at the Trans-Mississippi international exposition at Omaha.

Consideration of the tariff conference report was then resumed and Teller took the floor for a general speech. He said he did not believe it would accomplish the purpose of its friends. Its passage, however, would dispose of the question and enable congress to devote its attention to other subjects. He regarded the money question as the paramount one. The last campaign was not, in his judgment, an endorsement of the gold standard. A great many people voted for the gold standard, but the tariff question was more important than that effecting finance.

Teller then turned his attention to the political methods of the last campaign. It was the most remarkable contest in our history, he said, remarkable for the agencies set at work and the methods employed for the first time.

A system of terrorism, deception and fraud, the like of which has never been seen was put in operation, and this having become the paramount part of our political system until the people were aroused and repudiated them. If anyone challenged these statements then Teller said he would go into details.

BOUNDARY LINE.

The house passed the bill passed by the senate to ratify the compact entered into between the states of North and South Dakota relative to the disputed boundary line.

Hull, of Iowa, asked unanimous consent for consideration of a resolution to transfer $50,000 from the unexpended balance of the appropriation for the pay of the army of 1896 to the appropriation for 1897. Gaines, of Tennessee objected.

Grosvenor, of Ohio, asked consent for consideration of the resolution giving chairman of committees when appointed authority to employ clerks during the recess. Meekson, Democrat, of Ohio, objected. Dingley stated he had been informed the senate might act on the tariff report.

"As it is exceedingly important," said he, "that the bill could become a law at the earliest moment, I move a recess until 5 o'clock." There was no objection and the recess was ordered.

NOMINATIONS.

The president sent the following nominations to the senate: Stephen Loughran, receiver of public money at Des Moines, Ia.; Jay Lynch, agent of the Indians for the Yakima agency, in Washington; L. B. Sheperd, of Alaska, to be commissioner in and for the district of Alaska; Lieutenant-Commander Walter Goodwin, to be commander; Lieutenant Wainwright Bodge, to be lieutenant-commander.

Scrofula

In its thousands of forms is the most terrible affliction of the human race. Salt rheum, sores, eruptions, boils, all humors, swellings, etc., originate in its foul taint, and are cured by the great and only True Blood Purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. The advanced theory of today that tuberculosis, or consumption, is curable by proper nutrition, care and purifying the blood, finds confirmation in the experience of many who have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. MR. GEER AND FREE SILVER

The Tall Sycamore Called Down by a little History. LEBANON, Or., July 22, 1897.

EDITOR JOURNAL. In the Oregonian issue of the twentieth inst, I noticed a communication from our genial friend, Mr. T. T. Geer, in which he severely criticises the trans-Mississippi congress for declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and declares that, owing to the fact that he had never participated in a Populist convention, when Oregon was reached in the roll call, he refused to vote, now, Mr. Geer, will you please answer, through the press, the following questions?

1. Were you not a member of the Oregon Republican convention of 1890 which declared for free silver? 2. Did you not give the platform and ticket your unqualified support?

GIVES STRENGTH TO MEN.

It is remarkable fact that a man never appreciates the sufferings of others until he himself, has passed through the fire of pain or remorse. Then it is that he looks around for those who are suffering, he wants them to profit by his experience; he gives his time and money gladly for the benefit and never tires of his zeal. There are plenty of men weak and worn out, struggling with remorse and fear, and the natural outcome of habits that brought incapacity, a sense of loneliness and a feeling as if the best side of life had been banished forever. Such men should write to Thomas Slater, Box 390, Kalamazoo, Mich. He will send free of charge by mail, in a plain sealed envelope full particulars about the method he used, and this will enable any man to get a complete cure at home. It is the method Mr. Slater used to cure himself of the troubles that sap the strength and vigor. The cure was so complete, so satisfying and such a wonderful change from his former condition that he will gladly tell others all about it, sending all particulars, a sense of loneliness and a feeling as if the best side of life had been banished forever. There must be generous men in this world to set the tide of avarice. Write to Mr. Slater—it will cost nothing for his description and method.
