FRUIT GROWERS.
 Proposition Made by a Portland Man to Destroy Beach Marshes.
 About a score of Marion county fruit growers met in the circuit court room Tuesday afternoon to discuss a proposition to the destruction of their fruit. A representative of the Oregon & Washington Fruit Growers Union with headquarters at Portland, was its attendance, and was introduced by Mr. Shepard, who acted as chairman of the meeting. The Portland gentleman proposed that his company establish a branch warehouse in Astoria and handle as agent of the fruit raised about Salem as would probably be disposed of. In the gentleman's remarks it was distinguished that he had been connected with the Oregon Fruit Union. This company did some business in Salem a few years ago and a number of fruit growers about Salem did not realize as much for their fruit as was expected, and when it became known that the gentleman had been associated with the Oregon Fruit Union, the growers present did not care to further consider his proposition for the establishment of a branch warehouse in this city, and as a result an adjournment was had without taking definite action.
 There was but very little interest displayed in the meeting and the representative of the Portland firm was not given any encouragement whatever by the local fruit-growers. As a result of the meeting a number of the fruit raisers were more strongly convinced of making some steps towards opening a market for their fruit and arranging for a satisfactory and profitable shipment of the same.

BROOKS.
 Mr. E. L. Jones received a car load of implements from Portland this week consisting of a Buffalo Plow mowing machine and a binder. Harrison Jones will commence threshing at 8 o'clock, witnessed by near relatives and friends. Mr. Thomas is a boy lawyer in the employ of Mr.

 Hans C. Wahlburg, of Salem, and the bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary McHard of Brooks. Rev. Eric-son performing the solemn ceremonies.
 May happiness and prosperity be their portion.
 Mr. A. G. Perkins and family, returned from their summer outing at Ocean Park on Sunday last feeling much benefited by their recreation.
 Miss Ethel Walker and brother, Vern, were here on their wheels and spent the day Tuesday.
 Mr. John Durcas is at home for a few days.
 Rev. Basher will preach in the M. E. church the 28th of August at 10 a. m.
 Mr. Frank Evans returned home from a few weeks' visit with friends in Portland Sunday.
 Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Jones were in the station Wednesday.
 The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Beckner, 2 miles southwest of Brooks, hope every member will be present and have a good meeting.
 Orrie McHard was visiting friends in Brooks Sunday, she reports messenger on Mission Station to Bent Jones family.
 Jas. Fruit and family drove to Me-lamah Wednesday for a few days' outings.
 Lawn Social in the grove at the school house Saturday evening, went out and have a good time.

OREGONIAN MINERS.
 Uncle Charley Chaggett is said to be heading a movement to organize a company for Clatskanie, all to be 80 years old or over if possible. So far the roll contains the names of Deacon Hatch, John Baker, David McDuffy, Chas. Chaggett, J. Johnson and J. L.
 Thompson. Others are expected.
 Uncle Charley Chaggett is expected to act as captain. Deacon Hatch will chaplain, and perform all marriage and funeral services. J. L. Thompson is to be comendatory, while John Baker hopes to be hostler of the dog team. It is not known just when the boys will start, but what route they will take. They will probably prefer to go by team, in memory of the trip most of them made in early Oregon days.

MARRIED.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Crimes and Accidents.
Prominent Politician Dies—An Attempted Suicide.

Shot in the Antrum.
 Puget Township, Wash., July 28.— Sheriff W. J. Dyke, of Clallam county, was a passenger of the steamer from Port Angeles to Seattle with a warrant for the arrest of John W.
 Troy, late auditor of Clallam county.
 The commissioners have just discovered that Troy is short in his accounts with the county. Already di-licated warrants amounting to $400 have been discovered and the investigation has only begun. It is thought the shortage will reach into the thousands.
 Troy left Port Angeles last Wednesday and it is thought he has gone or is preparing to go to the Clatskanie. He is known to have purchased a miner's outfit in Seattle four days ago.
 Troy's profession is office, M. J.
 Chung, was also several thousand dollars short in his accounts with the county and is now serving an eight-year term in the state penitentiary.
 Chung was a Republican and Troy a Democrat. The latter was raised in Clallam county and belongs to one of the most respectable pioneer families of the Puget Sound country.

Burned to Death.
 SEATTLE, July 28.—A Post-Intelligencer special from Burlington, Vt., says that the residence of A. O. Hagen, two miles west of that place, burned together with a house occupied by his father and mother and that his mother perished in the flames. She was 55 years old.
 The father this morning started a fire in the kitchen stove, and went out to milk the cows. When he returned the house was in flames, and it was impossible to secure the woman.

Condemned to Montreal.
 KANSAS CITY, July 28.—A special to the Times from Washington says that President McKinley signed the commission appointing Mayor John L. Estlin, of St. Joseph, as consul to Montreal.

Arrived.
 WASHINGTON, July 28.—The newly arrived Bolivian minister, Senor Luis Paez, has presented his credentials to the president, and the usual formal speeches were made.

Evidently a Cantard.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—A rumor was freely circulated in this city and Oakland to the effect that Claus Speckels was considering a proposition to buy out Standard and Crocker interests in the Southern Pacific Company.

Released.
 KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 28.—Otto Webber, who was arrested two weeks ago, charged with being an accomplice with John Schlegel in a sensational street murder of Dr. Lyman A.
 Berger, was liberated at the preliminary trial.

Double Murder.
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 28.—A double murder was committed here James Mingle, a horse trader, is accused of the crime. The victims are Mary Briscoe and her infant child.
