Ascended Mt. Hood. Professor L. G. Cochran and son Harold returned Monday evening from a trip to Mt. Hood. Prof. Cochran and son left Salem about the 1st inst. accompanied by Prof. and Mrs. Balcomb and Miss Adona Cochran, of Monmouth. With the exception of Miss Cochran who was not feeling well, the party began the ascent of this mountain peak from the night camp, at 4 a. m. Thursday August 5 and at 1:15 o'clock that afternoon had reached the peak. The party remained but a short time on the peak, when they descended and began the homeward journey. Harold, the 10-year-old son of Prof. Cochran, practically made the ascent alone, receiving no assistance whatever. In ascending the peak, the lad preceded his father who followed closely that he might render assistance if necessary. In making the descent, Prof. Cochran preceded the lad, but was not obliged to render him any aid whatever. Harold is probably the youngest person who has ever succeeded in reaching the top of Mt. Hood, unaided, and in that distinction has reason to feel proud. Prof. Cochran reports the trip not nearly so difficult or perilous as he had anticipated and enjoyed the excursion very much.

S. P. PATROLMEN.—Since the recent freight train wreck at Marion, which was occasioned by the burning of a bridge, the Southern Pacific company has inaugurated a patrol or track-walking system over its lines in Oregon. One patrolman is given a section of road about thirty miles in length over which he passes just in advance of the south and north bound overland trains every night and morning. Each patrolman is furnished a light running velocipede, colored lanterns etc., to be used in flagging the train in case of an accident. J. J. Cook covers the distance between Salem and Albany. He mounts his velocipede every evening and goes to Albany just in advance of the 8:30 overland and returns on the following morning ahead of the 7:10 overland.

HEAVY TRAFFIC.—The passenger traffic between Portland and San Francisco is especially heavy at present by reason of the low rates now in effect between these two points. The north bound overland, this morning, consisted of two sections of six coaches each, passing through Salem on schedule time, one section being about ten minutes in advance of the other.

PACKING UP.—The work of packing up the stock at Osburn's racket store for removal four doors south has begun, but people are still being served with some special bargains. You will be surprised at the snaps offered.

Something New. Send for the new style catalog and guide book, of the Drain State Normal school. LOUIS BARZEE, President. 8-11-11

THEVING.—You frequently hear of horse stealing, but never of a person stealing groceries. Branson & Co's. goods are of such a high quality and give such general satisfaction that no one has the nerve to take them without paying therefor.

OREGON'S BIG STATE FAIR. A Few Points in Regard to the Annual Show.

Wonder if there is going to be a state fair this year. Haven't seen an advertisement of it yet, even in the Salem papers—Albany Democrat. If the brother at Albany had noticed he would have seen regular ads. in the Salem papers, and will no doubt see them in all the other papers in due season. For his information it may be repeated that the fair is set for ten days, from September 30 to October 9, and that more cash premiums are being offered than ever before. Furthermore, if the brother has read his own paper he will know that Linn county, as well as many others, will compete for the big county premium, and he is hereby informed that Marion county, in all her native modesty, will not compete against her sister counties. Remember, the fair is still a state institution, and the newspaper fraternity, of the state, should "push it along" with just as much vim as ever.

For the first time in the history of the fair there will be railroad excursions run from all points at half rates.

RIVER NEWS. New Steamer On the Willamette—Gypsy Will Soon Be Out. Captain J. L. Smith, formerly of the Steamer Albany, has placed the Lorraine, a light draught steamer, in operation between Salem and Corvallis. The boat makes tri-weekly trips between these points and may be kept on the river for the remainder of the summer season. Steamer Gypsy, which experienced such an unfortunate accident about two weeks since in the vicinity of Eola, is again ready for work. It underwent a thorough overhauling at Portland and will yet render much service on the Willamette. It is expected she will resume work on the river between Salem and Portland in connection with the Steamer Ruddy. The low stage of the river will hardly permit of the boat being operated above Salem during the remainder of the summer season. In the meantime the "giant steamer" Alice A. continues to handle the O. R. & N. Co's business between Independence and Salem.

BORN. CONSTABLE.—At the family home, in Highland addition to Salem, Or., Tuesday, August 10, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Constable, a son.

DEID. WORKMAN.—At his home on Center street near Church, at 1:15 a. m. Wednesday, Aug. 11, 1897, Daniel Workman, aged 76 years 1 month and 22 days, of Brights disease. Deceased was born in Belmont county, Ohio where he resided until about twenty five years old when he removed to Iowa. In 1851, at Burlington, he was married to Martha A. Harl, and as a result of this union, there were five children, one daughter and four sons all of whom with the bereaved wife survive the husband and father.

In 1853 the deceased crossed the plains settling near Salem, where he has since resided. For over forty years the deceased was a consistent member of the Dunkard denomination. The deceased is survived by a wife and five children, viz: Mrs. C. M. Morgan, of this city; Rev. Ira Workman, of Washington county Oregon, Arthur T. Workman, of Salem, H. J. Workman, residing 4 miles east of Salem; and W. M. Workman, who lives near Helena, Mont.

Funeral services will be held at Macleay at 2 p. m. Thursday, Rev. Basher, officiating. The remains will be given interment in the Macleay cemetery.

Co. Examination of Teachers

A Class Numbering Thirty-nine Being Examined Today.

County Superintendent G. W. Jones, assisted by Prof. E. H. Anderson and Margaret Cosper, is conducting the third quarterly examination of Marion county applicants for teacher's certificates. The examination is being held in the court room. There are 39 applicants for first, second, or third grade certificates and a very bright, intelligent looking lot of young people they are.

So far as good looks is concerned, the company of young people who had possession of the circuit court room today by far dis-ousts the delegation of the legal profession who frequent the same room during the court sessions.

Of the thirty-nine applicants, five seek first grade certificates, eighteen desire second grade certificates and sixteen hope to be able to obtain a third grade certificate.

The grades for which certificates are being sought, together with the applicants and the residence of each is as follows: First Grade—Elton Shaw, of Brooks; Iola G. Smith, of the Fair Grounds; L. Alice Delano, of Woodburn; S. L. Frazier and Effie Judson, of Salem.

Second Grade—Ella Strain, of Me-Keel; A. E. Sherk, of Nortons; Hulda Cox, of Scotts Mills; Willis Platts, of Hubbard; Lizzie Ray, of Mills City; M. W. Timm, of Liberty; Alta Taylor, of Macleay; Winnie Silver and Mary Wood, of Turner; Edith Bursell and Harry Hobart, of Silverton; Anna B. Anderson, Bessie Ballenger, Mrs. Mary Willard, Alice B. McFadden, Alma Gardner, Lillian Matlock and Grace Ballenger, of Salem.

Third Grade—Nellie I. Durfee, of Shaw. Grace M. Wheeler, of Independence; Kate D. Matteson, of Turner; Clara Dentel, of Batteville; Ethel Buskey, of Gervais; Winnie Herriman, of Silverton; Josie Case, of Elk-horn; Estella Evans and Lula Massey, of Brooks; Lizzie Swartz, Edith L. Latham, Ethel Rigdon, Bessie Col-lison, U. W. Apple, Zenna Etter and Minnie McCourt, of Salem.

A Pitted Case. Gov. Lord was today confronted with a case that causes considerable sympathy. This morning he was called upon by the father, mother, brothers and sisters of John Cartwright, asking for the latter's pardon from the penitentiary.

The young man is feeble minded and was sentenced last June to serve a year for the larceny of some candy and other articles of small value. The trial judge, prosecuting attorney, jury and many citizens of Douglas county, petition for his pardon, which will probably be granted. The family drove the entire distance from Rose-burg to make a personal plea.

Hops in Clackamas County. Contracts for hop-pickers are already being made at Oregon City, the picking to begin between the 1st and 10th of September. The price offered for picking—30 cents a box—is better than last year, and better accommodations are also promised. There seems likely to be no dearth of pickers, but the growers are selecting their hands with more care than has been practiced heretofore.

To WEB.—County Clerk L. V. Ehlen today issued a marriage license to E. M. Kightlinger and Mattie L. Gamble.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by all Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

A HOT MEAL.—Many don't like it on a hot day, but when taken in Strong's cool dining room it is always refreshing. WANTED—10,000 dozen fresh eggs for the Klondike mines at the Electric grocery store, East State street. A. S. Epply. CHAMPIONS.—Salem undoubtedly has the championship baseball nine of the state but she also possesses the champion grocery store, so far as high grade goods are concerned. It is Branson & Co's., of course. In Oregon City the Chinese are forced to pay poll tax.

Senator Hoar's "Bird" Petition.

The petition which was instrumental in getting the law prohibiting the wearing of song and insectivorous birds on women's hats is said to have been written by Senator Hoar. The petition read as follows:— To the Great and General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts: We the song birds of Massachusetts and their play-fellows make this our humble petition. We know more about you than you think we do. We know how good you are. We have hopped about the roofs and looked in at your windows of houses you have built for poor and sick and hungry people, and lame and deaf and blind children. We have built our nest in the trees and sung many a song as we flew about the gardens and parks you have made so beautiful for your children, especially your poor children, to play in. Every year we fly a great way over the country keeping all time where the sun is bright and warm. And know that whenever you do anything other people in all this great land between the seas and the great lakes find it out and pretty soon will try to do the same. We know. We know.

We are Americans just the same as you are. Some of us, like some of you, came across the great sea. But most of birds like us, lived here a long while; and the birds like us welcomed your fathers when they came here many, many years ago. Our fathers and mothers have always done their best to please your fathers and mothers.

Now we have a sad story to tell you. Thoughtless or bad people are trying to destroy us, because our feathers are beautiful. Even pretty and sweet girls, who we should think would be our best friends, kill our brothers and children so that they may wear our plumage on their hats. Sometimes people kill us for mere wantonness. Cruel boys destroy our nests and steal our eggs and young ones. People with guns and snares lie in wait to kill us; as if the place for a bird were not in the sky, alive but in a shop window or in a glass case. If this goes on much longer all our song bird will be gone. Already we are told in some other countries that they are full of birds, they are now almost gone. Even the nightingales are being killed in Italy.

Now we humbly pray that you will stop all this and will save us from this sad fate. You have already made a law that no one shall kill a harmless song bird or destroy our nests or our eggs. Will you please make another one that no one shall wear our feathers, so that no one shall kill us to get them? We want them ourselves. Your pretty girls are pretty enough without them. We are told that it is as easy for you to do it as for a blackbird to whistle.

If you will we know how to pay you a hundred times over. We will teach your children to keep themselves clean and neat. We will show them how to live together in peace and love and to agree as we do in our nest. We will build pretty houses which you will like to see. We will play about your garden and flower-beds—ourselves like flowers on wings without any cost to you. We will destroy wicked insects and worms that spoil your cherries and currants, plums and apples and roses. We will give you our best songs, and make the spring more beautiful and summer sweeter to you. Every June morning, when you go out into the fields an oriole and bluebird and blackbird and bobolink will fly after you and make the day more delightful to you, and when you go home tired after sundown vesper sparrow will tell you how grateful we are. When you sit down on your porch after dark, firebird and hermit thrush and wood thrush will sing to you; and even whip-poor-will will cheer you up a little. We know where we are safe. In a little while all the birds will come to live in Massachusetts again, and everybody who loves music will like to make a summer home with you. The singers are:—
