T. HOLWERSON.

Mrs. A. McGill, left this morning for Chillawhack, B. C., where she will join Mr. McGill who is engaged in the nursery business there.

Hon. A. R Lyle, representative from Crook County in 1895 to the state legislature, was a Salem visitor this week. He went to Eugene this morning and after a short visit there will go to the seaside for a few weeks.

Mr. John Long, formerly a resident of Salem, but now of Mexico, and who has lived in nearly all quarters of the Mexican Republic is here on a short visit with friends and relatives. He reports business good in Mexico, and claims the climate at the City of Mexico is not as warm as at Salem. Mr. Long says the Mexican silver dollars can go down to 25 cents in New York market and Mexico will still be for silver.

THE FEMALE HORSETHIEF.

Elma Barrett Will Be Grven a Preliminary Examination Friday.

Elma Barrett, whose arrest in this city was chronicled in Wednesday's JOURNAL, will be given a preliminary examination on the charge of horse-stealing tomorrow at Oregon City.

Upon the return of the stolen animal, the owner discovered that she had trimmed the mane and tail of the animal so as partially to destroy its identity. She also claimed to have traded her old nag for the new one with a farmer living south of New Era. However, she finaly broke down and admitted her guilt. The girl is but 16 years old, and this is the fourth horse she has taken under similar circumstances.

THE MANDAMUS CASE.

What Is Being Done by Claimants to Secure Warrants.

Salem is receiving a great many visits from the state's creditors these days, all intent upon securing a warrant in place of a duplicate voucher or other evidence of debt now held against the commonwealth. Secretary Kincaid is obliged to inform all that he cannot consider any of the claims until the court's mandate is in force. First an effort will probably be made for a rehearing and if that is not granted it will still take a little time to set the secretary to work.

Some of the most persistent claimant's so far are the push crowd who have alleged claims for all manner of services and supplies, while the business people with legitimate claims are breathing easy and taking their time.

Some parties holding duplicate vouchers dating back six months are wondering how they will be able to get their interest from that date to the time when their warrant will have been stamped by the state treasurer "not paid for want of funds." These warrants cannot be made to include the interest, and they cannot draw interest until stamped, hence that will be lost. One prominent citizen says he will sue the state for that interest, as he cannot afford to lose it. Others who are now jubilant will no doubt sing a different song when they see that they must lose from three to nine months' interest, yet this would effect a little saving to the state.

AN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN.

Plaintiffs in Neal-Myers Bicycle Case Wishes Another Trial.

Messrs. McCourt & Presscott, attorneys for O. A. Neal, of Turner, have served a notice of appeal on Jos. Myers & Sons, in the bicycle raffle case recently decided in favor of the defendants in City Recorder Ed N. Edes' court.

The appeal has not yet been filed with the county clerk, but will be before the expiration of the 30 days granted by law in which to make such appeal. The counsel for the defendants have contended that there was no consideration associated with the raffling of the bicycle, and consequently the plaintiff is unable to recover damages. The plaintiff's counsel contends, however, that the transaction was illegal and contrary to public policy.

The case will be heard on its merits before Judge Geo. H. Burnett at the October term of department No. 1, of the Marion county circuit court.

It is understood that one of the defendants has made the assertion that he had $500 with which to fight the case and he proposed to "stay with it" to a finish.

GREAT STATE FAIR EXHIBIT.

Half Fair Excnrsion Rates on Railroads.

As has been their custom in the past, the state agricultural college will have a grand exhibit at the state fair this fall. Presidents Gatch writes as follows:

Our professor of horticulture and landscape gardening, Mr. Geo. Coote, intends to have a fine exhibit at the fair. This will help you, and at the same time will be a good advertisement for the college. Wishing the fair great success.

Very Truly Your,
THOS. M. GATCH.

The following letter from General Passenger Agent C. H. Markham to THE JOURNAL concerning low passenger rates will be of interest to all:

Desiring to contribute to the success of the annual state fair, to be held at Salem September 30th to October 8th, 1897, this company has decided to sell tickets from all stations on its lines in Oregon at one fare for the round trip. Extra efforts are being put forth to make the fair the most successful in the history of the state and, in view of the fact that our people have been favored with abundant crops, I believe that in order to bring about a good attendance it will only be necessary to see that they are fully advised as to the inducements offered in the way of unusually low rates.

Unequal Attendance.

The following, pertaining to the unequal attendance of the male sex at Salem prayermeetings and the state penal institution is taken from the Eugene Guard:

"A minister who recently visited Salem related the following story to his congregation when he arrived home: On one occasion while in Salem I preached to a congregation composed of fifty-seven women and four men—that was at prayer meeting. Another occasion I preached to three hundred men and one woman—that was at the penitentiary."

In justice to the extreme modesty of the Salem "hog," it might be proper to say that Lane county frequently sends delagates to the latter place while with the exception of the reverend gentleman above referred to, the writer never heard of a Lane county resident attending a Salem prayer meeting.

CLAIMS

Against the State of Oregon.

What Secretary Kincaid Is Doing With Them.

An interesting side of the recent supreme court decision ordering the state auditor to audit claims is the manner in which it is construed by the various claimants. Some of the defunct commissions and those having the most doubtful claims are the first to rush into the state auditing department where it seems they suppose the secretary of state is just pouring out money. Great is their disappointment when they are informed that nothing will be done at present and that when their claims are reached they will probably be disallowed as not coming under the decision. Men having very doubtful claims against the state write to the secretary saying, to please forward check for the amount due me from the state."

Never in the history of the auditing department could a check be issued for any claim. Under the most favorable circumstances with the class of claims directly covered by the decision, the best that can be done will be to issud a warrant instead of a voucher and the warrant will not be as good as the voucher, because the voucher will probably draw interest from date of issue, while the warrant will not draw interest till presented and stamped "not paid for want of funds."

Vouchers issued six months ago are supposed to now be worth more than face because no one doubts that the next legislature will pay interest on them and to exchange such vouchers at their face for warrants is something that the good business man will think about several times before doing.

Below are given a few replies written by Secretary Kincaid to claimants demanding warrants.

SALEM, Aug. 12, 1897.

H. B. Luce, Dairy Commissioner:

Your letter of August 10th, enclosing bill of $356.50 for services and expenses as state dairy and food commissioner for the three months ended June 30, 1897, has been received. When you send your bill for salary and expenses for the quarter ended March 31, 1897, I returned the bill to you with the following reply under date of April 6, 1897:

"Yours of April 3, has been received. In reply I will say that as there is no appropriation and doubt as to whether you are in office, I cannot consistently recognize your claims, and therefore decline to file them and beg leave to respectfully return them in this envelope to you. As to what banks and brokers will do in regard to buying claims I do not know."

The same doubt exists now that did then as whether you are an officer of the state or not. If you are not an officer you have no valid claim against the state for salary and expenses and I have no right to file or recognize your claims, and surely no authority under the laws or opinions of the supreme court to audit and draw warrants for claims of doubtful validity. The most that I could do would be to reject and refer them to the legislature with my reasons for such action. Not desiring to do this, I returned them to you, so that you could present them to the legislature or take such other action as you deem proper. Until the question of the legality of the tenure of office of the various commissioners now claiming to be serving without being elected by the last two legislatures is settled, I will reject the claims, if the claimants insist on filing them in this office, and report them to the legislature. I do not understand that the decision of the supreme court two years ago, declaring that the railroad commissioners held over until their successors were elected and qualified, would necessarily keep them and others similarly situated in office indefinitely. The time for another election by another legislature has passed and the conditions existing then may not exist now. Therefore, I return to you your claim.

Very respectfully,
H. R. KINCAID,
Secretary of State.

SALEM, Aug 12, 1897.

Mr. J. E. Kertson, Gaston, Oregon.

Your letter of August 10th enclosing duplicate Reform School voucher for $10 in your favor for services rendered, has been received. In your letter you say: "will you please send me a check for the amount?" I cannot do this I have no power to issue checkr for the State for any amount.

The best that can be done will be to file your voucher and when the proper time comes, should it be found to be within the class of claims which I am ordered by the Supreme Court decision to audit, I will then audit it and forward to you a warrant upon the State Treasurer. In the meantime I will deposit your duplicate in this office, or will forward it to you if you so desire.

SALEM, August 12, 1897.

J. A. Wilson, Albany Ore:

Your letter to Treasurer Metschan, inquiring if the secretary of state will issue warrants for the bills of the senate, for which he gave certificate, has been referred to me. In reply I will say that it will perhaps be some time yet before the mandate of the court will be received. Then it will require much investigation of the statutes and the opinion of the court to decide what claims can be audited, and as there are several thousand claims now pending it will be a laborious and lengthy job, but will be proceeded with as rapidly as possible. What will be done with the claims you name I do not know, but they will perhaps be audited.

HIS HEALTH IS TOO POOR

President Chapman of the State University Resigns.

PORTLAND, Aug. 12,—(Special)—It is reported upon good authority that the resignation of President Chapman, of the State University, at Eugene, has resigned, and that Regent Failing, of this city holds the same subject to future action. Poor health of Mr. Chapman, is said to be the reason for this step.
