EDITORIAL.
Prosperity can't kill even a Populist. Let it come.

The fruit crop is on the decline in Kansas and many eastern states. Oregon will yet be the Klondike region for producing fruit.

The man who does anything to make Salem a better home market is a bigger man than the fellow who increases our taxes. He helps both city and country.

There were $3,375,000 gold taken to the San Francisco mint the other day, $700,000 coming from the Klondike. Who says the west coast won't boom if more gold can do it?

Boil the water for little children to drink. Set it out to cool over night in an uncovered vessel. Set in a cool place during the day and give them all they want.

Col. Compson in charge of the seaside battalions felt much easier when he heard from the supreme court and realized that the supreme court was sure of its salary for all eternity.

It is believed that Judge Bean, without great labor or doing any violence to his judgment, could have written an equally strong opinion on the other side of the mandamus suit.

The Southern Pacific giving the state fair one-half price excursion rates is the biggest victory yet gained by the present management. It insures big crowds and big exhibits for the whole fair.

The little ONE CENT DAILY is an independent people's paper. It is a proper tonic for a man to take who wants to promote good government in state and county—100 doses for $1.00.

They are going to elect the best man in Greater New York for Mayor on a citizens Union ticket. That is just what the people ought to do in Oregon next year for state and county officials.

We now have the best times the world has ever seen. Mr. Rockefeller, or Robafellow—one is his name, the other ought to be—has an income of forty thousand dollars a day and it is increasing.

You can always be sure that Ira B. Hicks does not know anything more than you do about future weather and seismic disturbances. Weather prophets are all frauds, excepting when they foretell the return of about the same weather as the world experienced in the former series of years.

After pulling the leg of the whole people as he did when he was secretary of state, by all means Iowa should make Congressman Hull of that state governor. Then make Cummins senator, and the state world fall about forty points in its political standing.

Silver will have its day. Let all who worship the golden calf bow down about and beat their tom-toms. You can't down silver, gentlemen. Silver is the money of the common people of the whole world, and they are the only people who produce reforms or revolutions.

It is noticed that the plans for Queen Victoria's new yacht call for a craft to cost $1,500,000. Of course John Bull pays the freight. One good thing is to be said of the British government, and it is that it lets the people alone; though Great Britain is called a monarchy, the people are not conscious of being governed at all. But the way the royal family pulls the country's leg is a caution. It costs as much to run it as it does a morning newspaper; but it is about a stand-off, after all.

"Women lawyers are a success in Chicago," said a member of the fraternity that lives on other people's quarrels, "and they are a success elsewhere. The reason is not far to seek. Women are capable of closer application than men. Such law as they know at all they know thoroughly. They are fluent. Whoever got the best of a woman in a discussion? They are quick to see a point and they are great on technicalities. It is impossible to pin one of them down to anything. The moment you think you have her she wriggles out.

The Catholic Sisters of Mercy have invaded the cold and barren wastes of Alaska. They go everywhere. One of the best things that the Catholic church has given the world are the sisters who heal. They have become the nurses of the world. Such achievements are not possible except where women voluntarily give up everything else and pledge to devote their lives to the one thing of helping others and caring for the afflicted. These women who do these things under the auspices of the Catholic church have won more friends for the church than all other Catholic influences combined.

The San Francisco Examiner prints the picture and tells the following story of Harry Foye, who kept his pledge till death:

Though suffering excruciating pain and was well aware that death was close at hand, Harry Foye, the fifteen-year-old victim of a railroad accident, remained steadfast to the pledge he had made as a member of the League of the Cross, not to taste or handle intoxicating liquors, and this though offered him by a physician, whose only thought was to lessen the boy's suffering. Foye had been a member of the order at St. Paul's church, close to his home in the West Mission, for about a year. On the day that he met with the awful accident he had gone out to look for work and cheerfully told his mother that if he did not obtain the position which was advertised, to be sure to tell anyone who might send for him that he would be home at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, as he expected a butcher would hire him. He was an industrious lad and everyone had a good word for him.

We hope that the report is true that Ambassador White intends to assert at Berlin more vigorously than has hitherto been done, the treaty rights of naturalized German-American citizens. A stalwart attitude upon the part of our ambassador will be reflected in every American consulate throughout the German empire, and will insure to naturalized citizens of the United States who venture to return to their native homes for a visit immunity from arrest and violent draft into the War Lord's armies. The right of American citizens of German birth to protection against this treatment has been fully acknowledged by the imperial government, but the lack of vigor at some of the American consulates has resulted in persecution by the local German officials of naturalized American visitors. So far has this been carried that in some cases the arrested American citizens have been glad to escape from Germany with their lives. Instead of pushing the complaint of such outrages to their just conclusion, previous ministers and ambassadors of the United States—as Dr. White himself well knows—have been content to let the irritating cases drop with the release of the prisoner, and have refrained from exacting either apology or indemnity. It is always the local authorities who make these arrests, and an assertive attitude by the American embassy in its dealings with the foreign office of the imperial government will strongly tend to stiffen the backbone of our consular service to which the first appeal from such arrest is made.

A TARIFF HOWL.
A reduction in the tariff on coal by the Wilson bill was followed by a reduction in the wages amounting to nearly as much per ton as the reduction of the duty. That act cut down the coal tariff 35 cents per ton, which is little more than President Rutherford claims as having taken place in 1893 in the reduction of wages. If 35 cents reduction in tariff cuts down wages 25 or 30 cents per ton, would the removal of the entire duty, as urged by Mr. Bryan in his speech in congress of June 13, 1894, leave the miners any employment at all?—Eugene Register.

Why don't they raise the wages of miners now that the McKinley tariff is practically restored? No raise in miners' wages is recorded since the change, yet thousands of men are striking because of reductions. The coal trust has its bonus restored, and now proposes to make blood-money enough out of the miners to recoup. If miners' wages were reduced under the Wilson bill why now reduce still more? One great general fact explains the whole case, viz: Coal operators are all becoming millionaires, while the miners are reduced to the hunger point. Tariff or no tariff, this hard proposition cannot be explained away.

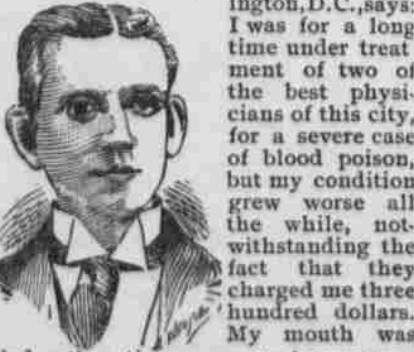

What Tommy Said.
Uncle John—Well, what do you mean to be when you get to be a man?
Little Tommy (promptly)—A doctor, like pa.
Uncle John (quizzically)—Indeed; and which do you intend to be an allopath or a homeopath?
Little Tommy—I don't know what them awful big words mean, Uncle John; but that don't make no difference, 'cause I ain't goin' to be either of 'em. I'm 'most goin' to be a family doctor 'an' give all my patients Hood's Sarsaparilla, 'cause my pa says that if he is a doctor, he's 'bliged to own up that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best family medicine he ever saw in his life.

Germany made 1,032,240,500 gallons of beer in 1896.

Blood Poison.

Contagious Blood Poison has been appropriately called the curse of mankind. It is the one disease that physicians cannot cure; their mercurial and potash remedies only bottle up the poison in the system, to surely break forth in a more virulent form, resulting in a total wreck of the system.

Mr. Frank B. Martin, a prominent jeweler at 926 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D.C., says: I was for a long time under treatment of two of the best physicians of this city, for a severe case of blood poison, but my condition grew worse all the while, notwithstanding the fact that they charged me three hundred dollars. My mouth was filled with eating sores; my tongue was almost eaten away, so that for three months I was unable to taste any solid food. My hair was coming out rapidly, and I was in a horrible fix. I had tried various treatments, and was nearly discouraged, when a friend recommended S.S.S. After I had taken four bottles, I began to get better, and when I had finished eighteen bottles, I was cured sound and well, my skin was without a blemish, and I have had no return of the disease. S.S.S. saved me from a life of misery. S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) will cure any case of blood poison. Books on the disease and its treatment mailed free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought, and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.
