HANNA ON THE TRUSTS.

[Springfield, Mass., Republican:]

Secretary John Sherman recently stated in a public interview that the question of suppressing the trusts was the all-important one of the day. A leading New England Republican organ lately proclaimed similiar sentiments and censured the senate tariff revisers for neglecting to deal with the question. Ask the average voter in the party what the one thing is about the pending tariff measure which he does not like, and in a majority of cases the answer will be the favor which it shows to the industrial monopolies.

But the man best authorized of any to speak for the party talks very differently about the matter. Mr. Sherman has been a great party leader, but he now merely represents a sacrifice to the towering ambitions of another man, and that other man thus proclaims and defends the party's position relative to trusts:—

A great deal of this anti-trust talk is demagogism, pure and simple. It comes from men who do not know what they are talking about, men who full of theory, but who would not know a business operation if they met one walking down the street. These men who howl about trusts and make themselves believe they are friends of the people and that they are winning popularity by such a course simply bow to what they think is a popular predjuice and make war on the business interests. I am willing to go before the people of Ohio as a senator who is courageous enough to stand out against this prevalent craze for calling business a trust and attacking it through the statute books. If they say I killed off anti-trust amendments proposed to the tariff bill they say truly. I used what influence I had to put a stop to insincere effeorts to make political capital for certain people by bringing amendments which they knew very well had no earthly show of passage, but which were designed to "put the Republicans in a hole" and give the Democrats something to talk about in the coming campaign. There was not the slightest chance of perfecting any legislation of value concerning trusts, and the men who brought in these propositions knew it. We killed off five of these buncombe amendments and I am proud that I helped to do it.

So speaks Mark Hanna to a representative of the Chicago Times-Herald, one of the administration's strongest supporters.

His conception of "the business interests" and "the business operation" is evidently an operation by which a few men combine the plants engaged in any particular industry water the capital, bind the distributing trade through the rebate and the black list, and then exact from the public 10 and 20 per cent dividends on the inflated capitalization. And this is just about what most people would have supposed Hanna's idea of a legitimate "business operation" would be. This, be frankly admits, is one of the "business interests" which the pending tariff is designed to protect,

Mr. Sherman may talk incessantly about "the all-important question of the trusts," but it can be regarded only as the inconsequential muttering of one who has been thrust aside to make way for the new party leadership, represented in rotund personality who now speaks with an authority Mr. Sherman never in his greatest day was able to command.

About Dear Money.

Ed Journal:—If the supply of anything is not equal to the demand, the price will rise in proportion to its scarcity The above statement is just as applicable to money as to commodities, though our financiers seem oblivious of the facts, yet we find expressions of politicians who belong to the different parties, that a large supply of currency will increase prices. But high prices are not wanted by the wealthy class, because they buy everything, therefore low prices will enable them to buy valuable property for a song. But the interest of the producers and all other classes, is best subserved by high prices, because they sell everything. We are told that the working man is far better off when low prices prevail, for a dollar will buy so much more than it will when prices are high. It is true a high priced dollar will buy much more than a cheap dollar, but how about the chances of getting the dear dollars when business is stagnated and labor creases to be in demand, even at low wages, and thousands, upon thousands of willing hands are thrown out of employment! No one finds fault with gold as being of no value, but many are convinced that the scarcity of the yellow metal renders it unfit for the entire needed volume of the circulating medium of exchange.

The practice of increasing the volume of currency with anything that needs redemtion is, to say the least, a miserable subterfuge. By this inceasing the volume of currency it reveals the fact that the champions of the gold standard know right well that gold alone cannot furnish enough money for the wants of trade. The substitution of bank notes for primary money is reprehensible, because the increased volume of redeemable currency encourages an expansion of business adjusted to the fictitious volume, consequently whenever an unusual demand for gold accrues, the substitute if withdrawn from circulation brings on panics. It seems to me that all our circulating medium should be legal tender, and all of it issued by congress direct to the people. Then congress would not be compelled to sell bonds to buy gold with which to redeem its papers.

As congress has all power over money matters, why should not that August body be required to issue a sufficiency of legal tender paper to supplement the coin, until the gold fields shall have at least, quadrupled the supply of the yellow metal, and silver has been remonetized? Let hypocritical savants of the money-power dissemble as they may, by teaching fallacy for truth, that a dear money, and low prices will bring prosperity. Still the fact remains true, that an ample supply of money and high prices, are the only-means by which prosperity can possibly be assured.

Children are told that angels bring little babies from heaven. They are told that when the little one comes, the rustle of angels' wings may be heard. Angels probably watch over the mother and child—or if they do not, they ought to; but angels cannot change the course of Nature and it is not right that they should. The woman who wants to have a healthy baby and who wants to come safely through the ordeal herself with no life-long weakness as a consequence, will do what she can to make herself strong and healthful in every way. Above all things, she will—during the period of gestation—take regularly Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a positive specific for all female weakness and disease. It may be depended upon to purify and strengthen the organs distinctively feminine, to soothe all inflammation, and to stop pain and debilitating drains. It cures when doctors have failed, and it cures right at home, without necessitating abhorrent examinations and local treatment. It is the only medicine in the world that makes the coming of baby easy and perfectly safe. It is the only medicine designed for its purpose, that is the invention of a regularly graduated physician, an experienced and skilled specialist in the treatment of the diseases of women. Druggists sell it, and any woman who wants to know all about it—just how to use it in her particular case, may write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

TAKE LESS MEDICINE.

There is no use in taking a great big pill or a great big spoonful of medicine, a tiny sugar-coated granule will do the same work and do it fully. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and other disorders of the digestive organs—cure them surely and comfortably, with no griping or other unpleasant feeling—cure them so that they stay cured, cure them more quickly and more easily than the violent medicines that wrench the system. The "Pellets" are so small that it takes forty of them to fill the little vial they come in. They cost twenty-five cents and good druggists sell them. If a druggist attempts to sell you something else which he says is "just as good," keep your hand on your pocket-book. The man who is dishonest in one thing is not to be trusted in another.

An Unprecedented Gain in Weight

A Trained Nurse Gained Fifty-three Pounds by Using a Nerve Food.

ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE RESULTS ON RECORD.

From the Gazette, Yonkers, N. Y.

"I don't look much like a living skeleton now, do I? And yet two years ago I weighed just seventy-two pounds," said Mrs. J. W. Coffey, of 55 Warburton Avenue, Yonkers, N. Y., to a reporter. And we agreed with her, for she certainly looked anything but a living skeleton, but rather bore the appearance of a plump and attractive lady in excellent health and spirits. Continuing she said:

"I had lost my appetite and was wasting away in flesh, losing some fifty pounds in a few months. Doctors said I was threatened with consumption. I was under what was regarded as first-class medical treatment, but it had apparently little or no effect, for I kept getting worse until I was so weak that I could not attend to my household duties and could hardly walk. My husband and everybody who saw me thought surely that I would die, and there seemed no help for me.

"Tonics and stimulants and medicines all seemed useless, and I grew worse and worse until at last I resolved to seek some new remedy — one entirely out of the usual line of nauseous drugs and doses of stuff which seemed to take away what little relish I might perhaps otherwise have had for food. A friend told me of some wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I bought a box. The effect from their use was noticeable from the first and soon appeared almost miraculous, for it seemed pretty nearly like the raising of one from the dead.

"I soon commenced to eat, something I had scarcely done before for weeks, and soon began to gain in flesh and strength. I went one day to the doctor's office and he was surprised at the change in me for the better. I had to confess that I had been taking the pills, and he was broad-minded enough to advise me to continue what was evidently doing me so much good. I took, in all, six boxes, and increased in weight from 72 to 125 pounds, which is my regular and normal weight."

"Are you sure the cure is permanent?"

"Well, yes. My work is that of a trained nurse, which means, as you probably know, irregular hours and at times great exhaustion. During the two years since my recovery I have had many engagements, and through them all have continued in good health. I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the remarkable power of this great medical discovery. I know of other cures effected by it. A friend of mine suffered greatly at her monthly periods. One box relieved and three boxes cured her. But I know of no case equal to mine, for my situation was critical, desperate and almost hopeless."

Mrs. Coffey has lived in Yonkers for sixteen years, and for twelve years has followed the business of attending the sick, excepting only the period of her illness. She has hundredz of acquaintances and friends who know her to be capable and trustworthy. Many of them know how very ill she was and how remarkable was her recovery. The pills have a large sale in Yonkers and Westchester County, which will be greatly increased as their merits become better known, for they seem to be one of the medical marvels of the age.

AN UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL.

From the Democrat, Atlanta, Texas.

"Being constantly asked by many of my friends if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People were doing me any good, I offer this unsolicited testimonial and answer. Never having seen a well day since I had typhoid fever last summer, I could retain scarcely any food, my limbs and joints ached and pained all the time. It was misery to me to rise up in bed and my mind was clouded, in fact was a physical wreck and I felt that my life was drawing to a close, and I must confess it was without regret on my part as my sufferings were almost unbearable.

"Since I commenced to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, at the solicitation of my wife, I have taken four boxes, and I feel like a new man. My appetite is good and I now retain what I eat, my limbs and joints are free of pain and I have gained ten pounds in weight. My life feels renewed and while not yet entirely well, I feel so much better that I unhesitatingly assert that I believe Pink Pills for Pale People a good medicine for what they are recommended. Knowing that no medicine will save life under all circumstances or in all cases, yet I do honestly believe that they have prolonged mine, or at least, where all was dark and gloomy and full of suffering it has been changed for the better.

"The manufacturers of this medicine do not know of my taking it. Neither am I paid for this statement, but give it freely in answer to friends and the editor of this paper."

(Signed.) John Baugress, Atlanta, Texas.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 27th day of March, 1896.

R. M. Blaydes, Notary Public.

Regarding the above testimonial of John Baugress, I beg to say that no man stands higher for honesty and veracity in all this section than John Baugress.

Editor and proprietor of the Democrat Atlanta, Texas.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are prepared by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., of Schenectady, N. Y., a firm whose ability and reliability are unquestioned. Pink Pills are not looked upon as a patent medicine, but as a prescription, having been used as such for years in general practice, and their successful results in curing various afflictions made it imperative that they be prepared in quantities to meet the demand of the public, and place them within reach of all. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and the tired feeling resulting from nervous prostration, all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., for 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 independent of the action of any other nation

That the government shall issue all money without the intervention of banks, and in quantity adequate to the needs of the people.

That all money issued by the government, whether gold, silver or paper, shall be legal tender for all debts, public or private.

That no contract or law shall descriminate against any kind of money issued by the government.

We are opposed to the issue of United States interest-bearing bonds in time of peace.

We demand the redemption of Oregon from rings, commissions and corrupt methods, and demand honest elections and election laws, including stringent registration laws.

We demand that the people shall have the veto power over all legislative enactments by the use of the referendum.

We demand the election of all officers by a direct vote of the people.

We favor and advise that all nominations for municipal and county officers, including members of the legislature, shall be made by primary elections.

We recommend that this party shall be known as the Union party, and invite all reform forces of the state to unite with us in realizing these principles by united efforts, and we pledge ourselves to unite with such reform forces in carrying out this bond of union.

A Serious Difficulty.

"I suffered for three years with salt rheum. The humor was on my hand and I was obliged to keep a covering on them most of the time. The stinging and burning were very severe. Nothing did me any good until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking six bottles I was cured." Mrs. S. E. Wood, DeLamar, Idaho.
