SOCIETY NOTEBOOK.

A LAWN PARTY.

Friday evening Misses Maud McKay and Helen Sutherland played hostess and delightfully entertained about fifty of their young girl friends at the home of the latter, No. 198 Cottage street corner of Ferry. Japanese lanterns, scattered about the spacious lawn gave additional charm to the pleasant surroundings. Games of various kinds were indulged in by the merry young people, after which an elegant supper was served. During the evening a memory test was had and Miss Ethel Knight won the first prize, a lovely boquet of heliotrope. The Misses McKay and Sutherland, are charming entertainers as can be attested by the merry crowd that enjoyed their hospitality last evening.

The invited guests were: Misses Ethel Calvert, Connie Hansacker, Jessie Wann, Mable Robinson, Veda Cross, Carrie Willis, Lelo Nicklin, Edith Ragen, Gertrude Gray, Margaret Gray, Lois Peebles, Alice Peebles, Cora Blosser, Mable Blosser, Lillian Metschan, Annie Biesey, Pansy Sweetzer, Eula McCully, Helen Krausse, Ethel Knight, Minnie Struble, of Portland; Cora Talkington, Ella Rineman, Greata Rosenberg, of Seattle, Leda Buren, Nettie Beckner, Winnie Byrd, Lila Swafford, Edna Hubbard, Gladys Farrar, Althea Moores, Agnes Gabrielson, Blanche Brown, Ama Strong, Joe Chase, Frankie Chase, Constance Holland, Rhemo Holland, Carrie Hurst, Stella Hurst, Lois Coshow, Eva Coshow, Ryth Gatch, Alice Myers, Mollie Coleman, Alice Coleman, Marion Gray, Ruth Gray, Janet Gray, Gladys Cartwright, Constance Cartwright, Margaret Dawson, Sylvia Knight, Gertrude Moores and Ruth Leeds.

THE HANGING DODGE.

Attempted Display of a Crank in the Marion County Jail.

A prisoner in the county jail by name of Wm. Ferris surprised Sheriff Wrightman this morning by hanging suspended from the ceiling. He had put a cord about his neck and by means of a large wire hook had hitched himself to a nail.

Sheriff Wrightman went up to the man, felt of his face, found it warm and alive. When he cut him down Ferris tumbled on the floor all in a heap. Then the Sheriff was satisfied he was playing 'possum.'

Wrightman picked him up and threw him on a cot and left him there. A watch was kept up on him and when he thought no one was looking he brushed off the too troublesome fly that perched on his nose and squinted out of the corner of his closed eye. He played the hanging dodge to perfection but not perfectly enough to fool the sheriff of Marion county. He had got himself up in the shape of a suicidal corpse in pretty good shape but it did not work.

Ferris is the fellow who tried to break jail last Sunday morning. He is a sharper and will next be trying the insanity dodge.

THEY RETURN.—Having once enjoyed one of our 15 cent meals, a man will always return to our lunch counter. Chicken dinner served tomorrow as usual. George Bros.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

Col. Hofer, writing from Newport, says that he bathes every day in Olson's bay, says it is warmer than the surf. Wonder if he expects anyone to believe that? Haven't we tested the temperature of the water over there, and don't we know that it is so cold that a difference in locality of a few hundred miles admits of no comparison? Don't talk to us about any place at Newport being warm.—Newberg Independent.

You don't seem to know that while you are sweltering in prespiration—frying in your own fat—the air at the coast is so much cooler that the water seems warm.

* * *

Governor Lord is not paying the Statesman anything now. As soon as he does it will let up on its abuse.

* * *

It is said that Col. Hofer will take a place on Governor Lord's staff, vice Major Dunlway, re-signed.—Statesman.

The above is a sample of the puerile wit in fashion in the columns of what was once a Salem newspaper. The fact that it is unjust unfair and untrue don't trouble the Statesman editor, who recognizes no human obligations from groceries to gratitude.

* * *

The Newport city council is considering an ordinance to prohibit Col. Compson and Col. Eddy from leading any more ladies into the surf dressed in India silk bathing suits.

* * *

There is nothing to do for Col. Compson now but to retire to his Klamath county ranch, and like Artemas Ward's pea-green ox, after the circus busted, resume agricultural pursuits.

* * *

Stop any leak in Marion county's expenses.—Statesman. Yes; for instance charging $500 for a $150 tax list.

* * *

We don't discriminate against Canadians who come here to raise our Klondike pruns. Why should they discriminate against Oregonians who go there to raise Klondike gold?

* * *

Tilmon Ford feels he is well repaid for his last year's campaign speeches, the way his wheat is going up.

* * *

Portland Tribune: McBride—Oregon's only senator—wants J. C. Moreland to succeed D. R. Murphy; in which case, it is said, Judge McBride, the senator's brother, will be deputy, on an equal division of the two salaries. Up to now no member of the house has backed the senator in his choice for district attorney. There have been strong protests filed against Mr. Moreland, and the representatives threaten if the senator persists in having Mr. Moreland appointed, to stand on these protests.

* * *

The report that Senator McBride is sick at New York is received with peculiar regret by Oregon politicians. He was sick on his back all during the session that the Dolph fight was on but when the session was over Dolph was a corpse politically and McBride got up and put on his senatorial toga.

* * *

There is no objection to the Statesman charging all A.P. As. four prices, but it ought not to talk about reducing tades when it charges the county double, treble and four-time prices for all it does.

* * *

Thos. H. Tongue is inspecting the Coos Bay government improvements.

Fred Nutting, the Albany Democrat man, is an authority on such matters as the following:

White bathing suits have been barred out at Manhatten Beach as immodest. The immodesty does not occur until after they are wet, for they are longer than the regulation suit. Newport, Ore., will please take notice.

* * *

In speaking of some proposed improvements by the S. P. company at this city, Section Foreman P. D Prunty used the editorial "we." A bystander asked to whom "we" referred when Prunty proudly replied: "To Huntington and myself of course."

* * *

Four empty business houses in one block on the principal street of a town is not any additional evidence of prosperity.

* * *

O, Lord! Good Lord! Mr. Wm. P. Lord, Governor. Where, Oh where, is the semi-annual report of the state treasurer?—Sheridan Sun. There is no law to prevent the state treasurer furnishing the report. It is not the governor's legal duty to make it public.

* * *

Hon. Binger Hermann's name has been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for governor next year, and his visit home at this time was interpreted to mean that he was here to look after the fences, but the gentleman himself says he has no designs on that or any nomination.— Roseburg Plaindealer.

Binger" never has "designs," you know.

* * *

The name of Hon. Phil Metschan, state treasurer, is mentioned in connection with the nomination for a third term. He is also spoken of as a possible governor.—Ex.

This little squib is going the rounds. The first sentence is a waste of breath. The governor, secretary of state and state treasurer can only serve two terms in succession. But there is considerable "Metschan" talk for govenor.—Col. Eddy in Roseburg Plaindealer.

Mr. Metschan will make the struggle of his life to get into a position where he can keep a tight lock and key on the condition of the Oregon Treasury. Mark our prediction.

* * *

In a Newport letter THE JOURNAL proof reader made it speak of Professor Thomas Condon as "the pioneer theologist of Oregon." The word geologist was written in the copy and used all through the article. Prof. Condon is also a progressive and up-to-date man in his theology but that is not his specialty as a scientist.

THE STATE FAIR.

Fraternal Order Day—Half-Fare Rates on All Roads Possible.

Besides a half-fare rate on the on the Southern Pacific railroad, the indications are that all the other lines will give the same rate.

FRATERNAL ORDERS.

The committees of the fraternal orders at Salem held a meeting last night at the C. H. Lane tailoring rooms, and there was a good representation of the societies, both gentlemen and ladies orders being well enforced by members. It was decided to have a program on state fraternal order day in the evening, in charge of the Ladies' orders. The gentlemen are to prepare an athletic and amusement program for the day. In the evening each society of ladies is to furnish three numbers of a literary and musical program. This will make Saturday, October 2, very pleasant and interesting. Secretary Gabrielson will now get into communication with all the lodges of this state. It is also planned to have Salem day on Wednesday, October 6, when this city will turn out en masse, all business houses to be closed in the afternoon. A business men's carnival is talked of.

HALF-FARE RATES.

W. W. Baker, of the Portland Farm, Flock and Factory, writes THE JOURNAL today that a half-fare rate has been secured over the O. R. & N. lines, as shown by the following letter to Mr. Baker.

"I am in receipt of a letter from Mr. Frank C. Baker (member State Board of Agriculture) requesting that rates be made by this company on the occasion of the State Fair, to be held in Salem from September 30th to October 9th. I take pleasure in informing you that this company will make rate of one fare for the round trip on that occasion, tickets to be sold September 29th and 30th, returning up to and including October 10th."

W. H. HURLBURT.
Genl. Pass. Agt., O. R. & N. Co.

He expects to get same rates on the Northern Pacific.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

Everything Safe and Ship Shape for Over Sunday.

Governor Lord has been at his desk all through this hot spell, but may take a short rest next week.

Major Dunniway, private secretary to the governor, is home from a short vacation in the mountains but silent as to any fish that he caught.

Adjutant General Tuttle has been at his office in the state house looking up the certificates of a number of Indian war veterns of 1847 and 1848.

The Acme Mining Company of Portland, object to mine in Steevens county, Washington, filed articles today.

The Northwest Construction Co., of Astoria changes its principal place of business from Portland to Astoria.

The weather has been a trifle cooler but the forecast for Sunday is fair and warmer.

J. M. and J. W. Howell are at Toledo and Newport. The testimony in their suit against Geo. W. Davis is being taken at Toledo Mr. Davis offers them $1000 a year royalty but they think their lease calls for more.

Secretary of State Kincaid went to Eugene as usual to spend Sunday. His department is crowded with claimants for state warrants, as under the supreme court decision he is armed with almost dictatorial powers. It is hard to imagine what would be done if he wore an unscrupulous or dishonest man as the power to issue or not to issue warrants for $1,000,000 is absolutely vested in his office. Mr. Kincaid said before leaving that he should insist that a claim must come clearly within the court's decision and have a specific legislative sanction before he would audit or issue a warrant.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

Every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., at 299 Liberty street. These meetings are conducted by the students of a normal course graduate of the Metaphysical College, Boston, Mass., founded by Rev. Mary Baker Eddy, discoverer and founder of Christian Science. The public are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Clackamas County Flax.

L. D. Mumpower and M. Riebhoff, farmers, living about six miles from Oregon City, have marketed their flax crop by stowing it in a box car at Oregon City, for shipment to this city, according to their contract with the Woman's Flax Association. The flax was pulled two weeks ago, but it seems to have dried very little, and it is more than twice as heavy as the same bulk of hay. The stuff is bound in sheaves like grain, and is shipped in that form. From an acre Mr. Mumpower harvested two and one-half tons of the flax, and from a half-acre Mr. Riebhoff obtained a good ton, the stalks varying from 30 to 44 inches in length. These growers are not particularly enthusiastic for the industry. They say if the crop does not bring at least $15 a ton it is a losing business to raise it. The price is said to depend on the length of stalk, and runs from $5 to $25 a ton.

BURIED TODAY.—The remains of Robert Pugh who died in St. Vincents hospital at Portland, early Friday morning, arrived in Salem on the Roseburg mail this morning. They were immediately taken to the Claggett cemetery north of town and and were given interrment. The deceased was about 30 years of age and a nephew of David Pugh, of this city. He was formerly a resident of Salem.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers recently performed a great deed of charity, although it was not designed as a charity, being nothing more nor less than an advertising scheme. It however resulted in great good just the same. They gave away 1,000 bottles of their Digestive Cordial to those suffering from stomach derangements.

It is so effective in curing those who used the remedy that they were loud in their praises of it and in consequence a large demand for the Cordial was at once created.

The druggists of this town have little books that tell all about it. Digestive Cordial creates an appetite, aids digestion and brings about a rapid increase in flesh and strength.

Laxol is the name of a palatable castor oil. Just the thing for children.
