SEATTLE

Has a Wonderful Boom On.

Port Angeles Harbor and Notes on Puget Sound.

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Aug. 23.

Seattle is enjoying the biggest boom ever known to have come on without a warning. Things were running smoothly there, but perhaps with a little more life than other Sound cities, when a shipload of gold arrived from Klondike. This was the signal for what is today a full fledged boom. It was the bomb that caused a boom. Within forty-eight hours the city was wild with excitement. Enterprises of a hundred different kinds, shapes and forms were sprung upon the people forthwith. Shipping and transportation schemes have grown like mushrooms, and business of all kinds has sprung up like magic.

I met an old Iowa friend who had during the past year engaged in the wholesale woolen goods and workmen's clothes business. He has certainly struck it rich, for up to the present time his house has had more than it could do. From the day after the gold arrived the rush began. People would come in for outfits and when a clerk would start out to wait upon a customer his trouble commenced. For instance the clerk would show a man two pairs of blaukets, and as soon as he had made a selection another man with the fever would step up and take the other. Before long a third and a fourth customer would be trading with each clerk, and by the time customer No. 1 had half his fill the clerk couldn't keep track of half the other buyers. Finally it became absolutely necessary to line up the buyers and make each take his turn. Thus goods were sold like wild fire, and almost at any prices the dealers asked. Finally the leading houses were compelled to employ detectives and a police force, so pressing was the demand for the Klondike outfits.

All the Sound Country is now agog waiting for the return of the steamer Portland, which is expected with a cargo of the yellow dust. If the anticipations of the anxious are met by these returns, tens of thousands will start forthwith for arctic mines. All the towns up here are feeling the benefits of the excitement, and will reap a harvest.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion.

We left for Port Angeles, Friday night by the Steamer City of Seattle. A short stop was made at Port Townsend, at one time the prize boom town of the Sound country, but today a busted bubble. Port Angeles is the point of interest, being the city where Uncle Sam established harbor in the days of Lincoln. This town enjoyed a great boom, and still has a bright future, notwithstanding the terrible effect of the last panic. The harbor at Port Angeles is a magnificent natural port for ships. It was last season and this spring visited by the Pacific squadron of gun boats, including the Oregon, Philadelphia, Monadnock, Monterey, Alert, Bennington and others, and Admiral Beardslee, who is in charge of the Squadron, said unreservedly that this is the finest harbor in the world. This seems like a remarkable statement, but after a little investigation it seems quite probable even to a land lubber. Port Angeles is directly opposite Victoria, on the straits of San Juan de Fuca, about fifty miles from the Pacific ocean, at the head of the Olympia mountains in Northern Washington. The bay is several miles long, and protected by a sand spit, or strip of land nearly four miles long, forming a front or protection to the crescent-shaped bay, thus making a natural land locked harbor.

The harbor is about nine and one-half miles in area, as shown on navigation charts. It is formed by a remarkable work of nature, being behind a large spit which extends from the mainland and the strait, and is a reliable breakwater against the ocean's waves. (Six million dollars were spent by the United States government in building an imitation of it at Galveston, Tex.)

The town is built in the form of an amphitheatre, being a semi-circle, the ground rising on a regular grade, thus giving a perfect view of the strait from any point. A fine lighthouse is maintained by the government on the end of the spit about three miles out from the wharfs of the city.

Many Salem people own town lots here, and while they don't consider their property valuable now, they will no doubt realize on it some day. A bonus of $75,000 has just been raised here for a mammoth steel plant to be built by Pennsylvania capitalists. This is giving the place new life, and the fact that a condition of the bonus will require the employment of 400 to 700 people shows some evidence of good faith. Good beds of both iron and coal are to be had at various points on the Sound, which with the other wonderful resources of the country promise great results for all this country.

Of course things are and have been dull, and the people have been living on hope and confidence, but the future is surely brighter. I notice that Port Angeles people have the same story of an "unusual year" to tell to all visitors, just as Salem operators. It is an "unusual year" everywhere except at Seattle, where all corners are led to believe that the present Klondike boom is a regular thing.

There is wonderful fishing here, in the Sound, lakes, rivers and creeks. I was out trout fishing several days, and found plenty, but somehow couldn't catch them. It is undoubtedly a fact that where they have the biggest fish there are liars in proportion, and it is an undisputable fact that they have immense fish at all these points.

Wrote to Victoria and Fairhaven from this point, and hope to report a pleasant journey. We met Mrs. John Holman en route for Long Beach, and with true English spirit she forced some cash onto us to buy her a souvenir at the British capital, but we haven't decided yet whether it will be in solid or liquid form.

Bryan-Melon.

The champion watermelon of the season has been raised Fitzgerald, Ga. It weighed 84 pounds and was sent to "William Jennings Bryan, the next President of the United States, Lincoln Neb." The crate in which the melon was shipped was beautifully painted in silver aluminum, with the following inscription: "from the Old Soldiers (Federal) Colony Fitzgerald, Ga. You shall not place upon the brow of labor a crown of thorns; you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold." The melon measured four feet and four inches one way and four feet and ten inches the other way.

A project is on foot among the English born residents of Worcester Mass., to present the city with a fountain to stand in front of the new city hall as a memorial of the queen's jubilee.

The box factories in the Willamette valley are running at full capacity.

Many a man would define his money with his life, and many a man does this very thing without knowing it. There are thousands of men who decline to defend their lives with their money. They are so intent on money-getting that they forget their health. The body resents neglect. Little disorders become big ones if they are allowed to run on. The man whose digestion is poor, pretty soon finds that he is losing flesh. He doesn't weigh as much as he did. He doesn't realize that he is losing vitality; that he is losing strength; that he is losing capacity for work; and that even his brain must of necessity become weaker, if it is not nourished. Loss of flesh means that the whole body is going to wreck. It is fatally easy to run downhill. A man keeps going faster and faster as he goes down. When health begins to leak out, it leaks very fast. The time to stop it is right away. The way to stop it is by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the greatest tonic and invigorator that was ever prepared. It is the discovery of a practicing physician, eminent and successful in his profession, the head of one of the greatest medical institutions in the world, The "Invalids" Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. It is an almost infallible cure for consumption, and for all the minor troubles that lead to consumption, chief among these are emaciation and general bodily debility. The "Discovery" purifies the blood, enriches the blood, invigorates the nerves, stimulates digestion, brings back a healthy appetite, healthy sleep, and a healthy, natural action of all the organs of the body. Druggists sell it.

Every man, woman and child in the United States ought to have access to a copy of Dr. Pierce's great work, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." The book consists of 1007 pages, and is a complete medical library in one volume. Every one may have a copy, paper-covered, at a lucky price, if he will send at one-cent stamps, to pay for the cost of mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. If a handsome, durable French cloth binding is desired, send ten cents additional (thirty-one cents in all).
