CUBA. The Horrors of Prison Life. Released Cuban Pacificos Relate Their Experiences

New York, Sept. 1.—The Times says: General Weyler in issuing a recent pronouncement that three of the Cuban provinces were pacified, and ordered that all pacificos who had been held in durance as suspects should be released. This order gave freedom to 34 young Cubans who had been prisoners among others for two and a half years at the Spanish penal colony of Dueta on the coast of Morocco. They were sent across the straits to Gibraltar and left there penniless.

Jose Prinellas, of this city, provided with a subscription fund, has just returned here with 15 of the released pacificos, this being as many as the fund enabled him to pay passage for. The remaining 19 are still at Gibraltar, some with friends, and all getting food and shelter as best they can.

There were over 400 men in the prison, and many of them were sick, and one complained he was confined to a cell and denied medical attendance instead of being sent to a hospital. The prison they describe as being filthy. No attention is paid to sanitary conditions. The cells were gloomy, damp holes, pungent with musty filth that encrusted the floors. Of the mortality in the prison the pacificos knew nothing. They thought of the place even as they had known it, with horror, and Mr. Prinellas said they did not like to recall it. They were satisfied to be free.

Many of the returning men do not know what the fate of the members of their families has been. Some have been killed in battle, others imprisoned. Valdez learned last night that a brother had been killed in battle.

Filibusters Active.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Recent complaints lodged with the state department by Minister de Lome coupled with reports from government officers and newspapers indicate that Cuban sympathizers in this country are making desperate efforts to aid the struggling insurgents with war material and men when the dry season again begins. Several filibustering expeditions are known to be under way, and one, the fearless with men and ammunition, has successfully eluded the vigilance of the Spanish officers and American gunboats, and is now on her way from Tampa for the Cuban coast. Her departure was confirmed by a dispatch received at the navy department from the commanding officer of the Helen. Two other expeditions, the Dauntless and Dr. Briggs, are under surveillance by the gunboat Wilmington and a revenue cutter on the east coast of Florida.

The Cuban Assembly.

New York, Sept. 1.—Thomas Estrada Palma, the representative of the Cuban provisional government, has received the official list of deputies to the next Cuban constitutional assembly, which is to meet on September 2, to elect a new president, the office of the present incumbent expiring on Thursday. The assembly will revise the present provisional constitution, which was adopted for a term of two years, on September 18, 1895. Each of the six army corps sends four deputies to the assembly.

According to private advices which have just reached here large bodies of Spanish troops are being massed in Camaguay for the purpose of preventing, if possible, the meeting of the assembly, as the insurgents have a large force in the district of the convention.

Murdered by Weyler's Police.

New York, Sept. 1.—A special to the Herald, from Havana, says: Augusto Ariza, a Cuban, and Fernando Pasada, a Portuguese, were shot by policemen in the streets of this city recently. They had just arrived from Mexico. No reason was given by the police for the assassinations, but it is thought that General Weyler, who lives in constant fear of being killed, suspected them of being anarchists.

CRIMINAL.

Crime of a Jealous Woman.

Stabbed the Alienator of Her Husband's Affections.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Frances E. Middleton, wife of George Middleton, the theatrical manager, stabbed Belle Carmen, a pretty variety actress, inflicting six wounds. The injuries may prove fatal.

Jealousy was the cause. Mrs. Middleton claimed that Miss Carmen had alienated her husband's affections. Although the victim of the assault may die, the police permitted Mrs. Middleton to go home after making a statement, saying that she would be on hand when wanted. The assault was committed at the corner of Clark and Monroe streets, where the women met.

Betrayer Shot.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 1.—There was a sensational shooting affair at the county jail. Jas. L. Murphy, a deputy sheriff, brought to the jail a woman of the town, who he said was under arrest, and he sent for Matron Woodburn. Having thus cleared the way he entered the latter's apartments and opened fire upon her husband, Clavis H. Woodburn, who was asleep in bed. He fired 11 shots, five of which entered Woodburn's body exclaiming: "I'll teach him to ruin my daughter."

The watchman rushed in and prevented Woodburn, who had by this time secured his own weapon, from firing at his now retreating enemy. Murphy gave himself up and refused to discuss the case, except to say he was a Kentuckian, and had shot to kill. Woodburn is dangerously, but not fatally shot. He will not talk.

Leutger Trial.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—When the Leutger murder trial was resumed the defence asked the court to compel the state to set forth by what means, according to the theory of prosecution, the life of Mrs. Leutger was taken before her body was placed in the vault. Judge Vincent said:

"The indictment, which contains 12 counts, does not state the manner of Mrs. Leutger's death." Judge Tuthill decided that the state was not bound to specify the means of death.

Mrs. Tosch, wife of a saloon-keeper, testified that she was a friend of Leutger. On May 15 she asked Leutger about the disappearance of his wife and he said he did not know where she was, and was as innocent as the sun in the sky. She told him she believed he was guilty, and he replied that he felt like taking a revolver and killing himself.

Dentist Sued.

The circulation of Most's New York paper, the Freiheit, has been dwindling for the last two years. It stopped publication recently, having simply died of inanition.

Gov. O'Ferrill, of Virginia, Makes a Few Plain Remarks.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The Post today prints a lengthy interview with Governor Charles T. O'Ferrill, of Virginia, who last fall declined to support the nominees and platform of the Chicago convention, and who is the recognized head of the Gold Democrats in Virginia.

Governor O'Ferrill talks with great plainness as to his present position and his future action. He announces his determination not to support under present conditions the Democratic state ticket, recently nominated at the Roanoke convention, and gives his reasons for this decision. He criticizes, in emphatic language, the conduct of the leaders at the conference in adopting the Chicago platform, and also pays his respects to the free-silver Democrats who have made him a target of abuse, claiming they have taken advantage of his position, knowing that he could not answer them, and charging them with attempting to seek notoriety through hurling epithets at him. He reiterates his charge that Bryan had made every arrangement to enter the state in 1893 and make speeches in behalf of the Populist who was running for governor against him, and gives additional evidence to substantiate his assertion.

Senatorial Primaries.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 1.—Democratic primaries were held in this state on Tuesday to name candidates for an United States senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Earl. ## HOP-PICKING NEWS.

Work Is Progressing—No Serious Damage From Rain.

Picking is progressing finely and the late rain has been a benefit not a detriment. Hops are much firmer since the rain and no mould.

The yards in Kaiser Bottom are all picking. Most yards are paying 35, but there is a clamor for 40 cents. Some complaint of hop picking lard. There is yet very little mould yet but in some spots it is appearing.

BUTTEVILLE, Sept. 1.—Pickers are more plentiful and most yards have all they want. There is not much mould and lice are not as bad as at first reported. Most growers will put up a superior article and no pains are spared in the yards hereabouts to make a record for a prime quality.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 1.—The late rain has not damaged the hop crop any, but has benefited it and has cleaned the vines and yards of dust. Nearly all yards have crews picking, though some are a little short handed.

DALLAS, Or., Sept. 1.—Considerable talk has been indulged in on the streets as to the price to be paid for picking hops. Pickers are contending for 40 cents per box, and the growers are offering 35 cents.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 1.—Hop growers report little damage on account of the rains, and all are picking with all the force they can secure. Forty cents a box is now the ruling price for pickers, and in one or two cases as high as 50 cents is paid to secure help.

MCMINNVILLE, Or., Sept. 1.—The rain here cleared the atmosphere and laid the dust, but it has not kept the hop pickers from the fields.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Sept. 1.—The rain brought to town the hoppickers, and as a consequence the business houses of various kinds are busy. The rain will be a blessing. It enables the pickers to fill more boxes each day, as the hops do not wilt so fast, and in the kiln they dry better, and the dampness will do no damage to the hops. The price paid for picking is 35 cents a box, although some yards are paying 40 cents. Pickers are not overplentiful, but there seems to be a sufficient supply to pick all yards.

ROSEBURG, Sept. 1.—Hop picking has commenced in the yards of this county. Thirty cents a box will be the price paid for picking and growers report no scarcity of hands. Shambrook, Stearns and several other large yards having already secured their full complement of pickers.
