A NOVEL BUSINESS EVENT.

A. B. Steinbach & Co., Have an Opening Entertainment.
 The handsome and richly furnished branch clothing house recently established in this city by Messrs. A. B. Steinbach & Co's, was formally opened Saturday evening. Throughout the evening the store was thronged with Salemites, while Denton's orchestra rendered a program of a dozen numbers of the choicest music.

The genial manager, Chas. S. Reiley had arranged everything for the accommodation and pleasant entertainment of all who called during the evening, and one of the pleasantest events of the occasion was the arrival of Mr. A. B. Steinbach from Portland, who was by Manager Reiley introduced to the people of Salem. The whole affair proved a happy combination of the social and business phases of life in the Capital City. The new store is handsomely arranged, and supplied with a superb stock.

Mr. Reiley will make a most popular manager, and the great Steinbach firm will always see to it that the establishment offers only correct styles, seasonable goods and genuine qualities. This deserving new house is certainly welcome in Salem.

Farewell Sermon.

Rev. W. A. Lindsey closed his services as supply-pastor of the First Baptist church Sunday evening, speaking to a well filled auditorium 2 Timothy 2-11, 12, 13, subject, "The Divine Life-force in Us." He closed his farewell words to his people by emphasizing the teaching of the "Higher Life" as set forth in the special service last spring and warning Christians against drifting into secular pursuits as a means of procuring money for carrying on the work of "The Kingdom" which, with "His Righteousness," we are first to seek.

Whether these teachings are followed and the warning heeded, certain it is that Brother Lindsey has been faithful to what in all earnestness he believes to be the truth.

His church and friends will greatly miss Brother Lindsey's animated discourses and earnest work, but we can resign him to his chosen evangelistic labors, knowing that our loss will bring a corresponding gain to those among whom he works.

BAPTIST.

Wedding Anniversary.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kirk celebrated the eighth anniversary of their wedding by inviting a few of their friends in to spend the evening at their home, No. 383 Chemeketa street. Progressive whist was pleasantly indulged in, Miss Winnifred Fennell capturing the first prize while Miss Lena Benoit carried off the "booby." A delicious luncheon concluded the evening that was very enjoyably spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hamilton, Mrs. J. B. Benoit, Mrs. J. Alken, Mrs. S. L. Jones, Mrs. M. F. Geis, Miss Winnifred Fennell, Miss Lena Benoit, Rev. J. S. White and Messrs. George Barr, H. W. Barr, T. E. Caulfield, W. J. Rafter and A. Hucklestein.

Probate Court.

D. W. Gibson has been appointed administrator of the estate of Guyan Gibson, who died Oct. 16, 1895, leaving property to the value of $5000. D. D. Gibson served as administrator until May 8, 1897, when he filed his final account and was discharged. The estate not having been fully administered upon, it was necessary to appoint another administrator. D. W. Gibson filed a bond for $10,000, with T. E. Caulfield, A. B. and P. H. Gibson as sureties. The heirs to the estate are: Sarah Gibson, aged 75 years, residing near Turner; Mary D. McTalley, 48, of Heppner; Sarah F. Putnam, 33, of Shaw; Geo. W. Gibson, 38, of Salem; P. H. Gibson, 53, of Turner; D. W. Gibson, 52, of Salem; Lucas, grand-daughter, 18, of Aumsville.

Weather and Crops.

The state house barometer stood just a shade on the rainy side of "change" this morning and at a point it could easily predict either dry or rainy weather while Polk county hills seemed to be catching a light shower. By 9 o'clock it was raining in Salem, and kept up an even drizzle until noon, when it quit, and has since been cloudy.

The official United States weather forecast for tonight and tomorrow is "occasional light rain."
 All day yesterday threshing crews and hop pickers were busy, and much valuable product was cleared out of danger. It is conceded by all that the reports of damage to crops by the rains were largely exaggerated and it is also probable that the present rain will do but little harm.

MORE STUDENTS.—Superintendent T. W. Potter passed through Salem on the afternoon train with 20 new students for the Chemawa school. They come from Hoopa Valley, California.

DIED.

PRESCOTT.—At his home in this city, on Twelfth street near Leslie, Yew Park, at 8:10 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 11, 1897, Harrison Whittier Prescott, aged 62 years 5 months and 12 days, of cancer of the stomach.

Deceased was born March 29, 1835, at New Sharon, Me. Thence he went to Chicago and St. Paul and took a pre-emption claim near St. Paul, Minn. In 1850 he went to New Orleans where he was when the civil war began. He found it impossible to return north after hostilities were begun, and remained in New Orleans during the times when the expression of Union sentiments meant death to the loyal. When the Union troops took possession of the city Mr. Prescott joined a battery from his own state, the First Maine battery, and enlisted.

At Port Hudson he was wounded and sent to the hospital where he remained until discharged October 19, 1863. He returned to Maine, partially recovered his health and made several fishing voyages to New Foundland to complete his recovery. In 1869 he was married to Sarah L. Tenny and soon after returned to his farm in Minnesota. The happiest years of his life were spent on the old homestead in Minnesota until 1876 when the wife was taken away by sickness and the husband and four children left to mourn her death. In 1878 he went to North Dakota and was there married to Mrs. E. M. Bennett who now survives him. In Dakota Mr. Prescott was engaged in farming, also in the furniture business and in carpenter work.

In 1891 he came to Oregon, bought property, and built a home in which to spend the remainder of his days. His last sickness of about seven weeks duration has been accompanied with more or less suffering but he has borne it without complaint, and expressed himself as willing to go to his eternal resting place. Most of the arrangements for his funeral were made by him a short time before his death, with the same interest he would have taken in any other transaction. His last words, except a request for water were, "I am here yet."

In politics the deceased was a Republican until the silver question arose when he became a Bryan supporter, though still a Republican on other questions. His religious affiliations were with the Unitarian church. He was a member of the Grand Army, and of the Masonic fraternity. In the words of Masonry it may be said "his four cardinal virtues were Temperance, Prudence, Fortitude, and Justice; his religion, an unfeigned belief in the one living and true God."

The funeral will take place at the Unitarian church at 2 p. m. Rev. Earl Morse Wilbur of Portland will preach the funeral sermon. The Masons will have charge of the services at the grave.

A. F. & A. M. ATTENTION.

Bridge Matters.

Judge Terrell returned this morning from Mehama, where with the other members of the court he spent Saturday inspecting the Mehama, Stayton and Gates bridges. He expects the Mehama bridge to be finished in about ten days. The Gates bridge is reported in good shape and in constant use, while the Stayton bridge is said to be weakened by washing about the piers. The courts of the two counties will meet at Stayton to examine this bridge at noon, Thursday, the 16, when some action in the matter of repairs will be considered.

BALLOON ASCENSION.

Professor Hagal Tried the New Air Ship Yesterday.

Sunday afternoon Professor Hagal made a balloon ascension as advertised. He went up in fine shape and made the descent, coming down in a clear place. Many had their doubts as to whether he would have the courage to make the ascent after his bad run of luck, but they were doomed to disappointment. He proved himself a thorough aeronaut.

Next Sunday he will make another trial and a double jump. Two hundred people witnessed the performance and pronounced it perfect in every respect.
