THE HAZELTON RIOT

Miners Are Forced to Quit Working.

MORE MILITIA ORDERED OUT.

General Gobin Asked for Troops From Various Quarters.

HAZELTON, Pa., Sept. 14.—Trouble at Cox Bros. colliery, at Eckley, has caused the superintendent of the Eckley colliery to telegraph to General Gobin for troops. General Gobin has received telegrams that these miners had again assembled, had marched on the Eckley mine and forced the miners to quit work. It was stated that the miners had been roughly handled. General Gobin has ordered the city troops of Philadelphia to the scene of the disturbance. The start will be made shortly after midnight or just after daybreak. The troops will ride across the mountains, a distance of eighteen miles, to Eckley. Eckley is a small mining village and lies in a valley. There are a number of collieries there, and, fears have been entertained for the past 48 hours that trouble would break out, as the men had been acting very ugly.

The situation in the Hazelton district, is one of unrest. Requests have been pouring into General Gobin, from various mines, asking that he send troops to those places, in order to prevent any possible outbreak. The general states that he will not send troops to any point unless an outbreak does occur. The general declines to give the names of the collieries, as all the men in them, are still at work. The operators, however, are apprehensive of a strike and want to be prepared for an emergency.

Two mining superintendents in this immediate vicinity have asked General Gobin to place guards around their houses. This will be done.

Emma Hamms, the miners' Joan D'Arc, and three other women were arrested for marching at Plum creek by the sheriff's deputies. The attempt to make the arrest precipitated an ineffectual riot in which the deputies fared badly. Scarcely a deputy escaped a clubbing and Superintendent DeArmitt was cut on the hand. Two of the women arrested carried babies.

The arrest was the result of a carefully planned attempt to prevent the men at work Plum creek from entering the mines. There were 25 women and about 50 strikers concerned in it. The plan was to have the women march in front with their babies, with the design of working on the settlements of the men who would be going to work, and to act as a shield to the rest of the party.

About daylight the party started out, headed by Emma Hamms. The women carried clubs. On the Murrysville road they encountered a posse of deputies and were ordered back to camp. A scuffle followed, and Emma Hamms and three other women who were in the lead were arrested.

A scene of wild excitement followed. The moment a deputy laid hands on a woman he was surrounded by others waving clubs in the air and using them on the heads of the deputies. Deputy Walker was severely clubbed and S. C. DeArmitt was cut on the hand. He says he was attacked by a woman with a knife. The deputies finally got their prisoners into the company's stable, and later brought them to the city, where they were lodged in jail. The names of women arrested were Emma Hames, Mrs. John Kosar, Mrs. Frank Hass and Mrs. Fisher.

After the removal of the prisoners from Plum creek the excitement subsided and the women and strikers returned to camp. The reason more of the women were not arrested was that four or five deputies were required to hold one of them and the force was not large enough to take charge of the crowd.

The real American aristocracy are the families battling in the hop yards earning their support by the labor of their hands. Such means of living cannot be successfully called in question.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.
Crops.—The cessation of the rains was most opportune, for the hops and grain had about as much rain on them as they could stand. The rains and damp weather produced more mold in the hops, and the result is some hop yards will not be picked. It is estimated that the rains damaged one-third the total hop crop, so much so that they will not be picked, and caused mold to appear in almost every yard. The rains injured, to an extent, the wheat that was in shock; the damage will be reduced materially by the fair weather, which allows the grain to dry. Little, if any grain has been absolutely ruined, though some oats, not properly protected, may be ruined. The damage to the grain, when considering the total product, will be a very small percentage. The rains caused Petite prunes to crack open badly.

Threshing is very active, and with favorable weather it will be practically all done by the close of the current week. Hop picking, delayed by the rains, is being pushed along; there is a shortage of pickers, but the crop will be well out of the way within the next seven days. Fruit picking and drying are very active, and the hop pickers, when through that work, go on with fruit picking.

Volunteer grain has sprouted and in places is two inches high. Winter barley, sown August 30th, is four inches high. Fall plowing and seeding are in active operation.

Potatoes are being dug, and they are a big crop. Cabbages, carrots, onions, etc., are big crops. Corn is being gathered. The crops are now nearly all gathered, and great has been the harvest. Figs are ripe and are a profitable crop at Langlois, Curry county. Grapes are ripe and wine-making has commenced. Pastures are again green and stock is fattening up.

The public credit of the city of Salem should be put in a healthy condition.

Sickness makes a man's hands useless. General and nervous debility holds him down just as surely as a great weight. He feels that he is down, but he hasn't strength or energy enough to get up again. His whole body seems tired and his head is heavy. All effort is mastered. He is as tired in the morning as he was when he went to bed. The sleep he gets is heavy, dreamful, and unrefreshing. His body is full of turgid, healthless, impure blood. He is subject to headaches and dizziness and palpitation of the heart at the least exertion. He is on the direct road to serious sickness. Few men appreciate how serious is their case when they say: "Oh, there is nothing the matter with me. My head is a little out of order; that is all."

Pure blood is essential to life. The more impure it becomes, the stronger hold disease has on the system. If, instead of containing health-giving, life-giving properties, the blood is full of disease-breeds, impurities, how is the daily waste of the tissues to be replaced? It is perfectly natural that the man will lose vitality and nerve force—that he will lose flesh and vigor. He will be unable to himself and to everyone else.

Impure blood comes from perfectly reasonable causes, and if the proper measures are taken, it is easy to purify it. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the greatest blood-purifier that was ever known. It is more than this. It is a cleanser and invigorator for the whole system. It strengthens the digestion, works directly on the liver, restoring it to healthy, normal action. It soothes and strengthens the nerves, makes assimilation easy and nutrition perfect. It drives all impurities out of the blood, and substitutes just the material needed to bring the whole body back to the highest state of life.

When constipation is one of the symptoms of debility, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used to clear the system of excess matter, and permit the "discovery" to do its best work. One little "pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two or three "pellets" are a powerful one. These two medicines may be had at any good drug store, and full particulars concerning them will be sent, on request, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 662 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
