

Beware Of Mercury!

Mr. Henry Roth, of 1848 South 9th street, St. Louis, was given the usual mercurial treatment for contagious blood poison. He was twice pronounced cured, but the disease returned each time, and he was seized with rheumatic pains, and red lumps and sores covered his body. "I was in a horrible fix," he says, "and the more treatment I received, the worse I seemed to get. A New York specialist said he could cure me, but his treatment did me no good. I was stiff and full of pains, my left arm was useless so that I was unable to do even the lightest work. This was my condition when I began to take S. S. S., and a few bottles convinced me that I was being benefited. I continued the medicine, and one dozen bottles cured me sound and well. My system was under the effects of mercury, and I would soon have been a complete wreck but for S. S. S."

S. S. S., (guaranteed purely vegetable) is the only cure for real blood diseases. The mercurial treatment of the doctors always does more harm than good. Beware of mercury! Books on the disease and its treatment mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

ROBBERS EXECUTED.

Indiana Farmers Mete Out Justice to Outlaws.

FIVE DESPERADOS LYNCHED.

None of the Participants Have Yet Been Arrested.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—A special from Osgood, Ind., says:

Incensed by numerous depredations, repeated burglaries and daylight robberies, the people of Ripley county, Indiana, have taken the law into their own hands and meted out to the perpetrators, punishment greater than that provided by law. Five men who have long been a terror to the citizens of that county met their death at the hands of an enraged population.

When the citizens of Versailles, the county seat, arose they found the bodies of five men dangling from many limbs of an elm tree in the public square. Stout ropes, not over six feet in length, had served to send the men to their destiny. Their feet were but a few inches from the ground, while their hands and feet had been securely pinioned with strong ropes. The farmers would come into town with a bunch of cattle or a load of farming products, and next morning would be found along the roadside suffering from wounds and minus the proceeds of their sale. Old German farmers have been visited and both men and women have been subjected to all the tortures that a hardened mind could conceive.

Last Saturday word was received by the sheriff that the store of Woody Bros., at Corvett, Ind., ten miles from here, was to be entered. The information was given by one of the gang's confederates. Sheriff Henry Bushing arranged that his informant should accompany them, and securing five deputies, they went to the place. Sheriff Bushing concealed himself in the cellar while his deputies were stationed outside.

Shortly after midnight the gang reached Woody Bros.' store. Clifford Gordon and the sheriff's informant were designated to break into the building. Gordon himself effected an entrance, but just as he stepped inside the sheriff grabbed him. Both pulled pistols at the same time and began firing. Bert Anderson was with the robbers, and he, too, began a fusillade, while the deputies came to the assistance of the sheriff. The sheriff was shot through the hand, and Gordon was shot several times. Three pistol balls entered his body, and he was also shot in the leg. Gordon and Anderson succeeded in escaping and came to Osgood, where they were arrested. Levi and Jenkins were arrested as accessories. All were taken to jail at Versailles. Henry Schuller, 24 years of age, was put in jail for robbing a barber shop at Osgood last week.

While the citizens have not been able to fix the various robberies upon these men, they were thought to be part of the gang that committed most of them. When it became known they were in jail, it was quietly suggested by the farmers that "justice be summarily dealt to the prisoners." It was 1 o'clock in the morning when the mob seemed to come from all quarters and dismounted on the side of the hill near Versailles. About 400 men marched into the town. The jail was in charge of William Kenan, sheriff Bushing's brother-in-law. Shortly before 2 o'clock there was a knock at the door and when Kenan and the others opened it they were confronted with pistols by three masked men and asked to turn over the keys. This they did. Then the mob filed into the jail.

Levi, Jenkins and Schuller showed fight. Levi was shot through the breast, while the skulls of the two latter were crushed with stools. Ropes were in readiness. A noose was adjusted around the neck of each man, their feet and hands were pinioned and then the march began.

With several men at the end of each rope the five prisoners were dragged a distance of 200 feet to the elm tree, where their bodies were suspended.

It is said that Levi, Jenkins and Schuller were dead before they reached the place. Death resulted from hanging in the cases of Gordon and Anderson. None of the lynchers are known. They all came from distance.
