worth living. But all the innocent enjoyments of life are wearisome and even prainful to the woman who feels in every fiber of her body that she is in the relentless grasp of ill-health, and is playing with death for an opponent. Thousands of women feel this, but are ignorant of the real cause of their trouble. The family doctor, when called in, looks wise and says stomach trouble, nerve trouble or heart trouble, when the real trouble is weakness, disease or derangement of the feminine child-begetting organism.

ment of the feminine candrages as ganism.

There is a sure, safe and speedy cure for all troubles of this character. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It does away with all embarrassing examinations and local treatment from which modest women shrink. It makes the distinctly womanly organism healthy and strong. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It banishes the usual discomforts of the period of suspense and makes baby's advent casy and almost painless. It is a marvelous medicine for women. Thousands have testified to this.
