124 State street,

The whole business looks like an immense dung hill of corruption, theft and fraud, the stirring up of which becomes more and more nauseous as it is more deeply probed. There are thousands of plain common people who are unable to see how one is more to blame than the other.

It looks as if there was not only criminal neglect on the part of the state's officials, but criminal condescension and will so look until it is proven beyond the possibility of a doubt that sawdust was not furnished when corn was charged for.

The state treasurer seems to take the position that a mandamus suit must be brought to compel him to pay warrants. A suit was brought to compel the secretary of state to issue warrants in the absence of specific appropriations by the legislature. He is complying with that order of the court, which was to the effect that the general fund in the treasury was available for warrants for all expenditures that ordinarily are provided by the legislature. But the treasurer says: "No they are not. I will not pay out any of these funds. I will stamp warrants not paid for want of funds."

It is now plain that the action of the treasurer, after the way the suit was brought, is part of a conspiracy to set all the claims against the state to drawing interest, to compel the people to pay $60,000 to $80,000 interest a year for two years on their own money already paid in taxes, and at the same time keep the money tied up. This is clearly in the interest of the banks and moneyed class. The taxpayer has to foot the bill. But for this course of the treasurer, the claims against the state would not have drawn a dollar of interest. If the treasurer would comply with the clear intention of the decision of the supreme court he would stop all interest at once.

Now it looks as though it had been a scheme from the beginning of the suit to rob the taxpayer. The combination that works the treasurer undoubtedly brought the suit with an understanding with that official to get the cream off two year's warrants. When this matter is fully understood it will be condemned by all fair-minded Republicans, Democrats and Populists. It is only fair to ask, what interest has the treasurer in hoarding the money? He increases the liability of his bondsmen. Yet it is felony to use the money for speculation. There is a suspicion that the money of the people is used to buy the warrants that then bear interest.

THE OLD WAY
Of Treating Dyspepsia and Indigestion by Dieting a Barbarous and Useless One.

We say the old way, but really it is a very common one at present time and many dyspeptics and physicians as well consider the first step to take in attempting to cure indigestion is to diet, either by selecting certain foods and rejecting others or to greatly diminish the quantity usually taken. In other words the starvation plan is by many supposed to be the first essential.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure for dyspepsia has been proven time and again, but still the moment Dyspepsia makes its appearance course of dieting is at once advised.

All this is radically wrong. It is foolish and unscientific to recommend dieting or starvation to a man suffering from Dyspepsia, because indigestion itself starves every organ and every nerve and every fibre in the body.

What the Dyspeptic wants is abundant nutrition, which means plenty of good, wholesome, well-cooked food and something to assist the weak stomach to digest it. This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are adapted and this is the method by which they cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, in other words the patient eats plenty of wholesome food and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest it for him. In this way the system is nourished and the over-worked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. One of these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat or eggs.

Your druggist will tell you that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the purest and safest remedy sold for stomach troubles and every trial makes one more friend try this excellent preparation. Sold at 50 cents, for full sized package at all drug stores.

"GREATEST ON EARTH."

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

Mr. R. T. Caldwell, is book-keeper in the First National Bank of Fulton, Ky. "I was completely run down, my nerves became so unstrung through loss of sleep and worry that I felt sure I would be compelled to give up my position. I would lie awake all night long, and it took but little to shake me up so that I could not possibly attend to my business as I should. In connection with this I had other troubles, heaviness about the stomach, and pains in different parts of my body. I was also much reduced in flesh. I was persuaded to try

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

I first procured a bottle from a local druggist and good results quickly followed. I then procured another bottle, and by the time I had used this up I was a different man. I am now on my third bottle and am able to sleep soundly and eat regularly, something I could not possibly do before taking your Nervine. I am now fully recovered, and do not hesitate to pronounce Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine the greatest medicine on earth."

Fulton, Ky. R. T. CALDWELL.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at 25c. bottles for $5, or by mail from Dr. J. C. Rorer, 1121 Broadway, N. Y. City.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

A 220 horse in front of a cheap wagon is dangerous. But a cheap man behind a $20,000 horse is not exactly a safe combination.

Mr. Geer still keeps the air about himself in motion.

It surpasses understanding why a laboring man who earns his dollars by hard knocks should be asked to support men who don't do a thing but make thousands out of public contracts.

This paper has got to quit printing X Rays or enlarge.

Here's hoping Weyer will be pacified.

The treasurer of Marion County has the nerve to tell the people just what he does with public money and where it is. But then "he's only a fool populist any how."

Chances are, Dr. Harry Lane will be heard from again.

The Lake County Rustler refers to its editor in its town as "the spider legged rosbie that has to be opened and shut like a window screen, and blinds up everything but facts at the hands of a crank, is the embezzler who last week opened up his mud value," etc.

"If I can't get the governorship I am willing to go to congress."—Phil Metsehan. The state treasurer is willing to do almost anything but tell the people what he does with state funds.

The local management in the Eastern Oregon town where the state press association meets advertise the big three renowned examples of manly beauty in the ranks of Oregon bachelors as an attraction on ladies day: Jefferson Myers, of Sico; Peter D'Arcy, Salem; Chas. Nickell, of Jacksonville.

The cooling showers have come and the delicious perfumed air of autumn dashes in cooling waves on the fevered brow of prosperity.

Office seekers have thus far overlooked one desirable position. Nobody has yet applied to the president for appointment as governor of Hawaii. Why not send the Hon. Ike of Salem over there? It would get him out of the way in Oregon and the would never be missed.—The Dalles T.-M.

When professionals like Lane and Patterson fall out and begin to leak information legitimate business men may get a square deal.

Receipts at the state fair will reach near the $10,000 mark when all in. Wherefore the deficit? Who got the rakeoff? THE JOURNAL confesses to not having got a cent.

MARION.

The gentle rain so common in Oregon at this season of the year has come again, and will be appreciated by the farmers, as the ground was getting too dry for plowing.

R. T. Ray has just completed an air motor (wind mill) with one of the nicest towers in the county, at an expense of over $225, that will be used for irrigating his flower garden, which is destined to be second to none, consisting of a great variety of beautiful roses, and in fact a general assortment of all flowers found in a first-class garden.

Nate Cook and his father, Marion Cook, killed a fine bear weighing about four hundred lbs., a few nights ago. Mr. Bruin had been making nightly raids on Nate's melon patch and the Cooks laid wait for him and soon by the help of dogs had him up a tree, but not liking the situation old Bruin began backing down the tree, and their guns brought him to the ground, badly wounded, and with an ax he was soon dispatched.

H. A. Hinshaw has a week's lay off, and with his family left Tuesday, a. m., on the overland for a visit with their friends in Portland, and S. M. Wiley, of Oregon City, is in charge of the office during H. A. H.'s absence. Our fruit dryer has finished up the prunes and Mr. D. Ellis is now working a run on apples, while M. S. Norton is securing all the apples he can get and making them into cider.

Died—Stephen Fread, at his home near Marion, October 10, 1897, at 2 p. m., after a lingering illness of several months, of gangrene, aged about 72 years. Funeral services conducted at the home by B. F. Hinshaw, at 1 o'clock on the 11th, after which the remains were interred in the Hunsaker cemetery.

Gave Back My Health.

There is no reason for being despondent and considering diseases of the blood incurable, simply because the treatment of physicians and many so-called blood remedies fail to effect a cure. Though it is naturally disheartening to the sufferer who faithfully takes the prescribed treatment of the physicians, often at the expense of hundreds of dollars, to find himself, no better as time goes by, still a cure will result from the right remedy, S. S. S., no matter what other treatment has failed.

The reason that S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) has so successfully cured even the worst cases after other treatment had been tried in vain is that it is the only remedy which forces the poison from the blood, and permanently eliminates it from the system, which is the only correct principle of curing the disease. Mercurial remedies bottle up the poison and tear down the system, while S. S. S. forces out the poison and builds up and adds strength and vigor to the entire system. It is nature's remedy, and contains no harmful ingredient.

Mr. Charles Glenn, of 1563 Dudley St., Cincinnati, is one of the many who constantly praise S. S. S. for giving him back his health. He says:

"From childhood I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, and have taken almost every blood remedy on the market, but my case was deep-seated, and one by one they failed. The large, red blotches increased in size and number, and soon covered my entire body. "My parents had me treated by a number of physicians, but the disease was too much for them, and after their temporary relief was over, I found myself growing steadily worse. Thus I grew into manhood, handicapped by a terrible disease, and having tried so many remedies without relief, when a friend urged me to take S. S. S. I had little faith in any medicine. I was happy to find, however, that I had at last gotten the right remedy, for one bottle of S. S. S. did me so much good that I soon had hopes of being cured. I continued the remedy, and was cured completely, the unsightly spots soon disappeared, leaving my skin perfectly clear. My general health was also built up, and I am robust and strong. I believe S. S. S. will cure the worst case of blood poison in the world. "S. S. S. is a real blood remedy, and will cure the most obstinate cases of Catarrh, Rheumatism, Rheumatoid, Contagious Blood Poison, old sores, or any disease caused by impure blood. It is and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain not a particle of mercury, potash, arsenic or other mineral. S. S. S. is sold by all druggists and is cured by Valuable books and on blood and skin diseases will be mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."
