Mrs. C. E. Wolverson and Miss Price spent the day with friends in Portland. Orange Jacobs Jr. and Miss Donna Jacobs of Seattle, are visiting at the home of Hon. T. W. Davenport on State Street. Mrs. Thos Look, of Goldendale, Wash is a guest of her nephew, Mr. Carey Martin. Deputy Sheriff A. T. Wain, had official business in Woodburn, Aurora and Monitor, today. Misses Vesta and Helen Southwick have gone to Portland for a visit with friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elder, of Stayton, where some of the best people in Marion county hail from, are in town today. Detective Kerrigan of Portland is here as a witness before the grand jury in the case of the State vs. Bailey the Yew Park burglar. Mr. and Mrs. John Heller, who have been spending the summer with their daughter, Mrs. W. T. Bennett, in this city, left today for their home at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. McKinley Mitchell of Gervais, came up today. He says the hop market is at the top notch in his opinion, and 12 to 13 cents, is a fair selling price. He fears there will be a break in the price rather than an advance.

FABER & NEIS WIN A SUIT

Today's Proceedings in Circuit Court Work of Grand Jury. The taking of testimony in the action for money case of Faber & Neis vs. C. R. Houghman was concluded before Judge Geo. H. Burnett Tuesday afternoon when counsel for plaintiffs made a motion that the jury be instructed to bring in a verdict for the plaintiffs for the full amount sued for. The jury was so instructed and a verdict for $490 was rendered. The plaintiffs demanded $490 damage on account of the failure of Mr. Houghman to deliver 14,000 pounds of 1896 hops, as per contract. The action for damages case of Anna Gehman was called at 9 o'clock this morning and at press hour is still on trial before the following jury: Geo. W. Hunt, A. H. Hunt, J. E. Murphy, Ed Taylor, A. Huckestein, C. L. Watt, J. Q. Wilson, G. Steiner, Peter Heater, Geo. Collins, L. A. Savage and W. H. Lee. The plaintiff demands judgment for $3,000. A. C. Hough, of Woodburn, represents the plaintiff, while Thil Ford is counsel for the defendant.

DOCKET ENTRIES.

Other docket entries made by Judge Burnett since this report closed Tuesday afternoon, are as follows: Helen B. Anderson vs L. R. To Be Well Dressed at small cost is no longer a serious problem. Stein-Bloch clothes have solved it to the satisfaction of thousands; why not for you? Whether sack suit, square cut or cutaway if they bear this label they are equal in everything and superior in fit and style to any clothes that you get to-measure and for which you will pay double.

Stein-Bloch are the most famous tailors in the land. They select their selling agents with as much care as their fabrics.

Both must be the best obtainable. That's why we so cheerfully say try the Stein-Bloch clothes; you risk nothing. Money back if you want it, is the soundest guarantee.
