

THE RURAL CARRIERS

Free Delivery to Farmers Begun in Marion County.

EXTENT OF THE SERVICE.

An Explanatory Letter From the Turner Postmaster.

The first information Postmaster Bonham at Salem had of the establishment of free rural delivery in Marion county, was through THE JOUR-NAL. He wrote Postmaster Robertson at Turner and by return mail received following explanatory letter:

POSTMASTER ROBERTSON WRITES:
TURNER, Or., Oct. 20, 1897.
B. F. Bonham, Postmaster, Salem, Or.:
DEAR SIR:—Yours of even date at hand and contents carefully noted.
I will say in reply, that the Free Rural delivery service is in operation here.
As to the character of the service will say that we have three carriers, each covering a distance of about twenty-five miles daily. They leave the office each morning about 8 o'clock and return as soon as the mail can be distributed and collected along each route. The carrier on route No. 1, which takes in the reform school, deaf mute school, and asylum farm, returns to the office for the mail after the Roseburg local passes south and thereby catches all daily papers. All persons requiring their mail delivered, but who do not live on the immediate route of a carrier are required to place a mailing box on the route for the carrier to deposit the mail in and to receive from, for mailing. Carriers may take orders for stamps, collecting the money in advance and delivering stamps on next trip, etc.

I don't know as I can give you any more light on the subject. This seems to be about all there is to it in a general way. Any other information I can give you will be cheerfully done.
Yours Respectfully,
G. F. ROBERTSON, P. M.

ADVANTAGES OF THE PLAN.

To have a daily mail carried to the farmers' door will save many a disagreeable trip to town over muddy roads and through bad weather. It will keep the farmer posted about the state of the market and will leave him more time to attend to his work on the farm. It will carry daily papers to the country homes instead of only weeklies. The demand for ONE CENT DAILIES at the Turner postoffice has increased not a little, and there is no reason why for 25 cents a month THE DAILY JOURNAL cannot be had at every farmhouse in the reach of the carrier from Turner. It will largely increase the number of people who will get mail at that office. Turner is one of the best towns in the county, the center of a thir-tying and intelligent population. The new postmaster there, Mr. Robertson, seems to be an intelligent and public spirited official. We wish the new enterprise success.

OREGON NOTES.

An Astoria private dispatch from Clifton states that John Falongos a resident of that place for the past six years, was killed by the caving of an embankment on the grade of the Astoria & Columbia River railroad.
Falongos and several other residents of Clifton were working on the grade when without warning an enormous quantity of earth came down burying three of the men. All possible haste was made to remove the earth, but when the body of Falongos was taken out life was found to be extinct. The other two were badly injured.

At Hillsboro Monday, while returning from a drive, the horse of C. Schulmerich, ex-county commissioner and senior member of the firm of Schulmerich & Son of this city, shied at some teamsters at the side of the road, upsetting the buggy. Schulmerich's head was badly cut and his body considerably bruised. His wounds were painful, but not necessarily fatal.
Mr. Schulmerich's daughter, who was also in the buggy, escaped uninjured.

C. P. Givens, of King's valley, gives the particulars of a bold robbery, which took place Saturday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, on the road between Airlie and King's Valley, in the Fuller canyon. A man of the name of Bears was walking from Independence to his home on Yaquina bay, when two masked men came out of the bushes, held him up and secured $10, which he had earned drying hops.
The robbers escaped on horseback.

When they first stopped him, Mr.
Bears threw down his pack of clothing and told them to take that, but they said they were after money only, and proceeded to go through his pocket.
Mr. Bears tried to get assistance and follow the robbers, but there was no one at home at B. L. Williams', the nearest place, and by that time his assailants were too far away for pursuit, and no effort has since been made to arrest them.

It is reported in Wallowa, that rich placer strikes have been made on the head of Bear creek, 15 miles west of Lostine. The diggings have been located in a basin on the east prong of Bear creek, which contains the yellow metal. The creek has been staked off for several miles, and scores of prospectors line the mountain.
Several loads of lumber have been taken from Wallowa to build sluiceboxes. The find was made by three prospectors, who have been prospecting in that region for the last two months.

DAUGHTERS IF NOT FATAL.

The Terrible Injuries of Ezra Wyatt—His Horse Ran Away.
Corvallis, Times, Oct. 21.—Ezra Wyatt, resident of Philomath and a brother of Samuel, John and Frank Wyatt, lies dangerously and in all human probability fatally injured at Plainview, Linn county. One cheek is literally torn from his face, one ear is torn completely away, the jaw is fractured and the base of the brain, the doctors say, is injured. There are also internal injuries, the extent and nature of which are not known.
While persons as badly injured may have in single instance recovered, there is not one chance in a hundred, that Mr. Wyatt will recover. He has been since Sunday evening totally unconscious, unable even to recount to relatives about his bedside the tragic story of how he was hurt.
Mr. Wyatt's injuries are supposed to be the result of an accident. He is a minister in the United Brethren church, and last week went to Linn county to attend conference. He traveled in a cart, and during Sunday afternoon had preached a sermon at Hamilton Creek. In the evening he was to preach at Plainview, midway on the road between Lebanon and Brownsville. He was on route to Plainview when the accident happened. Among several other persons that he passed along the road were two men. Two hundred yards from the spot where they last saw him the attention of these two men was attracted by heavy breathing along the roadside. They investigated and found Mr. Wyatt in an unconscious condition, covered with blood, injuries and bruises as described above. The horse and cart was nowhere to be seen.

An investigation of the surroundings indicates that the horse had run away, and that, being thrown out of the vehicle, the injured man had been dragged a distance of seventy or eighty yards. The men quickly secured help and the sufferer was taken to Plainview, six miles south of Lebanon, where he now lies.
Dr. Starr, of Brownsville, and Dr.
Foley, of Lebanon, were both summoned and Monday afternoon Dr. Davis, of Albany, was also called into the case. It had been planned to attempt a difficult operation Monday evening, but after consultation the plan was given up by the surgeons as useless or impossible.

Mr. Wyatt is the eldest son of William Wyatt, the well-known Benton county pioneer. His home is in Phil-omath and besides himself, a wife, two sons, and two daughters are its inmates. He is aged about fifty-seven years. The dreadful accident has roused profound interest and much sympathy is expressed by friends and acquaintances.

Rev. E. C. Wyatt, who was injured as above, died Tuesday night.

ANOTHER DIVORCE CASE.—Mrs.
Ennice Beaber has instituted a suit in department No. 2, Marion county circuit court whereby she seeks a divorce from Emanuel Black to whom she was married at Fossil, Gilliam county, on January 1, 1897. Cruel and inhuman treatment are the grounds upon which the plaintiff hopes to have the matrimonial bonds severed.
Hendricks & Slater are attorneys for plaintiff.

NEW OFFICERS.—The annual election of officers for the Epworth League of the Methodist church, was held last evening and resulted as follows: President, Prof. F. S. Dunn; First Vice-president, Floyd Field; Second Vice-president, Gertrude Savage; Third Vice-president, Ella Currier; Fourth Vice-president, C. J. Atwood; Secretary, I. H. Van Winkle; Treasurer, Geo. E. Hatch.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.—The action for money case of Arabella Bailey vs. H. H. Humphrey was not concluded before Judge Burnett until about 5 p. m. Wednesday when a verdict for $50.20 was returned for plaintiff.
Court then adjourned until 9 a. m.
Friday.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and no cases out of ten are cured by ear drugs, which do nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
