EDITORIAL.

A few years ago the United States coast and geologic survey made a series of six months observations on the Yukon river, not far from the Klondike. As these observations extended from October to April, their records afford a reliable test of the winter climate which may be expected by persons going into that country. The average temperature for October was 33 above zero; for November, 8 above zero; December, 11 below zero; January, 17 below zero; February, 15 below zero; March, 6 above zero; and April, 20 above zero. For 165 days the temperature remained below the freezing point.

The lowest temperatures registered during the winter were: November, 32 below zero; December, 47 below zero; January, 59 below zero; February, 55 below zero; March, 45 below zero; and April, 20 below zero. The greatest continuous cold occurred in February, when the average for five days was 47 below zero.

In the Klondike region, in midwinter, the sun rises from 5:30 to 10 a. m., and sets from 1 to 3 p. m. In June the sun rises about 1:30 in the morning, and sets about 9 p. m., giving about 20 hours of daylight and four hours of twilight.

Writing with reference to these records, Professor Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, says: "Alaska is a land of striking contrasts, both in climate and topography. When the sun shines, the atmosphere is remarkably clear, the scenic effects are magnificent, all nature seems to be in holiday attire. But the scene may change very quickly; the sky becomes overcast, the winds increase in force, rains begin to fall, the evergreens sigh ominously, and utter desolation and loneliness prevail."

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL is rapidly gaining in circulation. It is an eight page paper, has entered upon its eighth volume, and contains the most complete collection of news of any $1. Weekly published in Oregon.

The coming city election should force an issue over the management of Salem city finances. Under former administration warrants were for par, only 8 mills tax was levied and expenses were kept below receipts.

Now 10 mills tax is levied, insurance taxes and other taxes are increased, higher priced officers are employed, yet all city paper draws 8 per cent and warrants are shaved all the year around. The $5,000 due from an insolvent bank is not collected and probably will not be. In the coming change of council and election of a new city treasurer the Swafford bondsmen will probably slip out.

The suggestion that a Bryan man be put up and elected treasurer on a citizen's ticket is meeting with considerable favor. It is certain that the Republican machine has no intention of putting Salem city finances in order and no Republican deserves to be elected treasurer.

Mutiny.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Correspondence just received from the Herald's correspondent in Puerto Principe states that an open mutiny of Spanish soldiers occurred there recently. The mutiny developed into a conflict in the streets between the commanding officers and the troops. The soldiers mutined because rations were insufficient and they could get no pay.

Well Children

that are not very robust need a warming, building and fat-forming food—something to be used for two or three months in the fall—that they may not suffer from cold.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda supplies exactly what they want. They will thrive, grow strong and be well all winter on this splendid food tonic. Nearly all of them become very fond of it. For adults who are not very strong, a course of treatment with the Emulsion for a couple of months in the fall will put them through the winter in first-class condition. Ask your doctor about this.

The Guldensuppe and Luertger Trials.

WHO SLEW WM. GULDENSUPPE?

Is No More a Question—Luertger Case Thrown Up.

New York, Nov. 12.—District Attorney William J. Young and W. F. Howe, counsel for Martin Thorne, held a consultation last night to ascertain when the Thorne trial would be brought to an end.

"Since you have decided not to cross-examine our witnesses who were put on the stand to establish the fact that the body at the morgue is that of William Guldensuppe," said Mr. Young, "I should say that we might close the case by the end of this week. How long will it take you to put in your defense, Mr. Howe?" "Less than a day," replied Mr. Howe. "That is all the time I want. But I don't want to finish the case this week. I think that will be time enough."

"Are you sure that it will not take you more than one day to put in your side of the case?" asked Mr. Young in astonishment.

"That's all," replied Mr. Howe. "It may take you a week to examine all the witnesses for the prosecution, but it will take me less than one day to convince the jury that Martin Thorne is innocent. Why, the testimony of Mrs. Nack has more than strengthened our case. We admit that the body at the morgue is that of William Guldensuppe; we admit that Guldensuppe was killed, but we shall prove to this court and jury that it was Mrs. Nack who killed him."

"Bosh! bosh!" said Mr. Young. "Thorne will be convicted."

"Not at all," replied the lawyer. "Mrs. Nack admitted on the witness stand that she lured Guldensuppe to Woodside; that she bought the oilcloth before the man was dead, and we have found the pistol with which she did the killing."

"How is that?" asked Mr. Young.

"Why," answered Howe, "she killed him with Guldensuppe's own pistol. It was the pistol the detectives found at her house, the same pistol she identified in court today. Just watch us. The jury is with us and I can assure you that Martin Thorne will be acquitted."

Mrs. Nack's Confession.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Rev. E. P. H. Mills, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Haverwood, L. I., to whom it is alleged Mrs. Nack made her confession, says he did not attempt to work on the woman's feelings as has been alleged. Mr. Mills said that during his first visit to the jail Mrs. Nack ridiculed his religion, but that he kept on preaching in the jail corridor.

Sunday last he took as his text "Those who claim him, yet I will trust." During the sermon Mr. Mills said that he noticed that Mrs. Nack was greatly agitated and was crying, and when he had finished, he says, she came to him and told him that she wanted to confess the murder.

Mr. Mills says that he told her that he did not care to hear the confession, but told her to pray. She got down on her knees and prayed and later she told him that the prayer had greatly relieved her and that a great load had been lifted from her mind. He then left her without hearing the confession.

He says that on Tuesday Mrs. Nack sent for him, and that when he arrived at the jail she confessed the crime to him in all its details.

George Memorial Fund.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—W. J. Bayan has contributed $1000 to the Henry George memorial fund. He telegraphed that it gave him great pleasure to add his name to the subscription roll. Many of the subscriptions have come in from children. It has been decided to make the Henry George Memorial fund a popular one. That all may do so, a popular subscription of ten cents has been fixed.

Detective Kills a Preacher.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 12.—Detective Newhead, of the state force, looking after violations of the whiskey law, shot and killed Rev. J. W. Turner, a Baptist preacher, on suspicion. Turner was driving to this city, and was commanded by the detective to halt. He did not halt promptly and was shot. The detective has fled to escape being lynched.

Fatal Result of a Quarrel.
GLENDIVE, Mont., Nov. 12.—Thomas Wilson, residing near a ranch two miles north of this city, was shot and instantly killed yesterday morning by Andrew Brown, a neighbor. The shooting resulted from a quarrel between the two men over the cutting of timber.

Detailed and Burned.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 12.—A passenger train on the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis road, was derailed and entirely consumed by fire at 4 this morning, nine miles from Louisville. No lives were lost, and so far as known no one was seriously injured. The loss will be heavy.

A large wildcat was killed a few miles out from Arlington, by Joe Irby who knocked the animal off a telephone pole with a rock, and cut its throat with a jack-knife.

Sleep

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit.

Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Seriously Ill.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The trial of Martin Thorne may be discontinued for an indefinite period, owing to the illness of Juror Larson. When court adjourned, doctors who examined the juror thought he was only suffering from slight stomach trouble, and it would be able to attend court. It was discovered that Larson was affected with appendicitis, and his condition is so serious that physicians attending him will not allow him to leave his bed.

Captain's Motives brought Thorne into the court room. The prisoner was looking none the worse for his ordeal of yesterday. Judge Smith entered a few minutes later and District Attorney Young informed him of the serious condition of Juror Larson, and with the consent of the lawyers on both sides, Judge Smith adjourned court until today.

Threw Up the Case.
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—At the conference held between Attorney Phalen and Adolph L. Luertger, the sausage-maker, the latter gave to his attorney the original letter of withdrawal received from ex-Judge Vincent and a copy of his reply to the same. The letter follows:

"Chicago, Nov. 10.—Adolph L. Luertger, Dear Sir—Confirming our conversation of today, I desire to say that, without reference to any other reasons, it seems to me the radical differences of opinion between us in regard to the proper method and manner of conducting your second trial make it imperative for me to withdraw from your case, and hence I express the desire to do so. The request is, of course, no surprise to you, and I will be obliged to you if you will confirm in writing what you said to me about it.

Yours truly,
WILLIAM A. VINCENT."

"Chicago, Nov. 10.—Hon. W. A. Vincent, Dear Sir—Your letter announcing your withdrawal from my case is at hand, and in reply permit me to say that I regret very much to have you go. With my acceptance of your determination to withdraw, I extend you my heartfelt thanks for your able and faithful services rendered in my behalf during the trial just closed. Respectfully,

"ADOLPH L. LUERTGER."

"It is not true that there was a dispute between Luertger and Judge Vincent," said Attorney Phalen. "There were no hard feelings and no loud talk. Of course there was always more or less disagreement as to details, and this latter fact, in connection with the fact that Judge Vincent's private business has been allowed to suffer too long is the cause of the withdrawal."

Word has reached Long Creek that on and after July 1, 1898, there will be a daily mail service between Long Creek and Pendleton. Active efforts have been made for several months past to secure the establishment of this service. Heretofore the only outlet for mail matter from Long Creek has been by way of Heppner, made his report to the city council Monday night. The report says the water rates are too high, and recommends that, in case the company refuses to reduce them, an ordinance be passed by the council, regulating them for the future.

Monday evening, in The Dalles, a lot of little boys, who had been watching the men blasting on the railroad, concluded they would do a little blasting. They bought some powder, and made a mine, loaded it with powder. It did not explode as they desired and Theodore Prinz, about 8 years old, thought he would hasten it, as he got to the mine the powder went off, the full force of the charge striking him in the face. His eyeslashes and hair were singed, and the skin on his face badly burned. It is thought his eyesight has not been injured.
