"Old Mountain Party" Have a Reunion.

AT JUDGE GEO. H. BURNETT'S.

Speeches and Songs That Were Sung in the 'Seventies'.

On Wednesday evening, November 10, there was a reunion of what is known in Oregon social history as the Old Mountain Party, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett, 359 High street, Salem. It was the most enjoyable gathering of this company, now scattered into different states of the Union, whose meetings seem to grow in interest as the years roll by. It was called in honor of the presence in Salem of Mrs. Geo. W. Belt, of Spokane, one of the charter members, and as the original invitations read, no pains were spared to make the occasion memorable in the annals of the party. Some twenty odd years ago there was formed a company of young society people at the Capital city who annually went for a summer outing into the mountains of the Santiam. The last trip they made together was nineteen years ago last summer.

The house for this occasion was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and myrtle. The spacious home of Judge and Mrs. Burnett was virtually turned into a camping place of the mountaineers, and they were in camp from eight p. m. until two a. m. They seemed loth to break up, fearing they might never all assemble again, and that some one might be "lost in the mountains wild and bare" before the next re-union took place. It was a gathering of noted singers—that is in their day—and that day seemed to have returned with a full realization of its musical possibilities. Members of the old Mountain party now living at Salem are as follows and were nearly all present:

Dr. and Mrs. Richmond Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook, Miss Anna Stroud, of Portland; Hon. and Mrs. B. Moore, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Irvine, of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gilfrey, of Washington; J. A. Stratton, of Seattle; Miss Adda Scriber, Salem, N. C.; Mrs. Adda Eldridge, of Denver; George Herd, Oregon City; George W. Belt, Spokane; Miss Ellen Matthews, Turner; Edna Binkley, Gervais; Georgia Bunch, Macleay; E. Pearl Spencer and Adda D. Pugh, Salem.

The examining board consisted of County Superintendent Jones, J. J. Kraps and Miss Lizzie B. Cornelius, and that board made the following recommendations:

For State Diplomas—W. S. Safford, and Jessie Starr, both of Salem. For State Certificates—Minnie Iretton, Sublimity; Anna Russell, Silverton; and T. E. Mitchell, Hubbard.

Salem vs. Monmouth—Salem Junior football team went to Monmouth today where they will meet a juvenile team from that city in a match game of football. The local team, although anticipating a close game, was hopeful of making a more creditable showing than they did in the game with the Indians last week. The positions of the players have been somewhat altered and the team has otherwise been strengthened. The line-up of local team in today's game was: Miller, f. b.; Brown, l. b.; O. Beeler, r. b.; Moran, q. b.; Bruce, c. l. Beeler, l. g.; McIntyre, r. g.; Farrar, l. t.; Bishop, r. t.; Olinger, l. e.; Smith, r. e.

Sheer Objected—A poor bespecked husband told the writer recently that he was very fond of smoking at home but his wife objected very strongly until one day he purchased a 10 cent Vacuna cigar and now peace and harmony reign supreme at his home. In fact his wife entreats him to purchase none other.

No Invitations—It is not necessary for George Brock to request of their patrons to "call again." The excellence of the meals served there and the courteous treatment, make it agreeable for all to return. Tomorrow the usual Sunday chicken dinner will be served for only 15 cents.

Women in Politics. TEKAMAH, Nov. 13.—Miss Alice Thomason and Professor C. S. Laughlin were married Thursday evening. The affair grew out of the election. Prof. Laughlin has been principal of the local high school for some time, and Miss Thomason had been his assistant. He was a Republican and his pretty helps conferred the Populist faith.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a marvelous medicine for women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs that make weakness and motherhood possible. It makes them healthy and vigorous. It relieves inflammation, soothes pain and heals ulceration. It tones the system and makes a woman feel bright, happy and amiable. It does away with the discomforts of the critical period and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. No honest dealer will urge an inferior substitute for little extra profit. The sale of "Favorite Prescription" exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

When a woman is in thoroughly good health she can stand a great deal of hard work without serious fatigue or injury. When a woman is ill and still expects herself to work, work, work, from morning till night, she is doing herself grave injury, and sooner or later must pay the penalty. A woman under these circumstances is working under the lash of death. If a woman will always take proper care of the health and strength of her delicate system, she is pretty sure to be in good general health. Too few doctors understand this, and consequently attribute the troubles of which women complain to the wrong causes.
