DISPATCHES

For the Evening Papers

Two Press Associations Bidding for the Oregon Field.

Two Press Associations are bidding for the Oregon evening papers, to supply them telegraphic news.

Mr. E. S. Powell, the very efficient agent of the Associated Press at Portland, is working on a circuit for a very much improved evening press service in which four newspapers are to be included. Of course THE DAILY EVENING CAPITAL JOURNAL is in the list. The "Laffan Bureau" conducted at New York and San Francisco, is offering the evening press of Oregon a telegraphic service, via Frisco. They offer to supply from 500 to 1000 words daily, including San Francisco and Pacific Coast news at very low rates.

Harry D. Woolfe of Merchant's exchange, is the Frisco manager. Recent decisions of the courts make it much more easy for independent evening papers to secure press dispatches. Of course, the telegraph tolls are more expensive than for morning papers, because the news is variable and must be transmitted when the wires are busy.

Amateur sports.

The first of a series of four indoor baseball games between Salem Y. M. C. A. and Co. F. O. N. G. of Albany teams, was played at the opera house at the latter city, Thanksgiving day. Score 14 to 12 for Salem.

The Salem team were: Harry Olinger, Capt.; Wm. Evans, John Chase, Joe Evans, Geo. Bradshaw, Bert Olinger, Albert Disque, Harry Mair and G. J. Thomas, manager.

Alex Mair umpired for Salem.

The next match will come off at Salem Y. M. C. A. rooms Christmas afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Albany game was well contested before a large crowd, and the Salem boys say they were treated in a very hospitable manner.

Chunney Bishop played with Albany team in the football game with Eugene, Thursday, and Alex Mair was referee. They are Salem Y. M. C. A. amateurs and conducted themselves like professionals in ability.

FOOTBALL GAMES

O. A. C. team at Corvallis defeated Forest Grove 54 to 0.

Portland athletic club defeated M. A. C. club at Portland 4 to 0.

Eugene and Albany at latter place, 6 to 6.

Stanford vs U. of C., 28 to 0.

CHEWAWA DEFEATED.

MONMOUTH, OR., Nov. 28.—The football game between the Chewawa Indian school team and that of Monmouth Thanksgiving day, at Taluaga grounds, resulted in a decisive victory for Monmouth. The day was fine and the ground in good condition for fast work. Few long runs were recorded for either side, but short around-the-end gains won the day for Monmouth. The game was notable for good, clean playing on both sides, no fouls being claimed by either team, very few off-side plays being made. Monmouth was handicapped by being forced to put in three new men on account of the illness of regular players. The local team has a strong line with fast halfback, and a fullback who is a whole team by himself. This was practically Monmouth's first game. The score was: Monmouth 18, Chewawa 0.

SOCIETY NOTE BOOK.

Mrs. John H. Albert, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is very much improved.

Mrs. Hallie P. Hinges is engaged to sing the Eliza ann memorial service to be held early in December.

Licenses to wed have been issued by Marion county clerk to J. Franklin and A. E. Smeral and A. L. Prevost and Elizabeth Holly.

The marriage of Miss Clara Hitchens to Wm. Staiger, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jane Hitchens, 149 Union street, was solemnized on Thanksgiving day by Rev. Kantner, of the First Congregational church.

Licenses to wed were issued yesterday by the Marion county clerk to Thaddeus Sterling Jr., and Celia M. Bleimston, and Cyrus Stewart and Lucy V. Reed, the latter couple were married by County Judge Terrell at his residence, and they will become residents of South Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Albert, of this city have cards issued for a reception from 3 to 9 p. m. Monday Nov. 29, in honor of their 25th wedding day.

Friends of Mrs. Dr. Cutmore, (nee Mrs. E. C. Baker) at this city are delighted to receive cards from Auburn, Cal., announcing the birth of a son.

Rev. W. C. Kantner, D. D., joined Mr. E. L. Fowler and Miss Lettie DeLart in marriage Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy in North Salem. The groom is a thrifty farmer residing near the Warren Cranston farm in the Waldo Hills.

Thanksgiving evening, after the choir drill at the M. E. church, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Grannis invited the choir to the parsonage for a social time. Mr. and Mrs. Grannis showed their usual hospitality and well-known skill as entertainers on this occasion.

At Portland, Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1897, Miss Anna Neidenberg to Paul Marnack, both of this city.

Mr. Marnack is an employe in the butcher establishment of McCrow & Steustoff, and the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marnack in this city will be pleased to learn that Salem will be their home.

J. H. Ford, formally of Salem but now farming near Jefferson, and Miss Fish of Jefferson, were married in Salem at 5:30 o'clock Thursday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Beauchamp at his residence. The couple repaired to the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Robt. Ford, near by, where a wedding supper was enjoyed by the relatives and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ford went to their farm home.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hofer were taken completely by surprise, when a number of their friends took possession of their home for the time being. The evening was very pleasantly spent at cards and conversation. Before taking leave the ladies served a dainty lunch which they were thoughtful enough to bring with them. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Chase, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vass, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Nancy West, Miss West and Miss Newton.

At the home of the bride's sister, Mr. Geo. W. Belt, in Spokane, Tuesday Nov. 23d, 1897, Miss Lenore Chamberlain, of Seattle, to Chas. S. Weller, of Salem.

The newly-married couple are well known in Salem and arrived in the city this morning, and they are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Chamberlain, on Seventeenth street, for the present, and later will go to housekeeping at 179 Chemeketa street.

At the bride's home, at Liberty, at 2 o'clock, Thursday, November 25, 1897, occurred the marriage of Miss Celia Blinston to Thaddeus Sterling, both of Marion county, Rev. F. M. George officiating.

An elegant wedding repast was served. The newly married couple will take up their residence on the groom's farm, on Ankeny Bottom.

The bride is the eldest daughter of A. M. Blinston, an old and highly respected resident of Marion county, and the groom is engaged in agricultural pursuits on Ankeny Bottom. They have the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.

The friends and members of Leslie M. E. church, South Salem, met at the parsonage Thanksgiving evening, and gave Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Royal a cordial reception and a number of them remembered the new minister with a generous donation. Prof. Matthews, Supt. of the Sunday school, spoke the sentiments of greeting for all present in a happy manner. He is always a pleasant speaker but this time excelled himself. Rev. Royal replied with hearty words of gratitude. He has been in Oregon 51 years, and with Mrs. Royal has spent about 20 years in educational work. Leslie church rejoices in having such a distinguished pioneer preacher and the neighborhood appreciates having Mr. and Mrs. Royal in their midst. A pleasant social time was had which was very much enjoyed by old and young.

Thanksgiving Day for 1897 will be long remembered by the Oregon State Reform school. Appropriate services were held at the chapel in the morning by Rev. C. B. Bacon, of this city.

At the noon hour an excellent dinner consisting of chicken, cranberry sauce, mince pies, and innumerable other good things was served.

In the evening an entertainment was given in the chapel by the boys. Each part was ably sustained and the splendid success of the affair was due to the excellent work of each individual performer. It was an operatic entertainment entitled "The Enchanted Wood," consisted of thirty-seven characters, and was given under the direction of the officers and teachers of the institution.

The chapel was taxed to accommodate the many visitors, from the neighboring state institutions, Turner and this city. The most attractive feature of the entertainment was the police drill by twelve boys and the captain and this number was very favorably commented upon. Between the acts, C. E. Sport, the baker at the school, delighted the assembly with vocal selections, accompanying himself on the banjo.

Miss Gertrude Roberts, formerly teacher of shorthand in the Salem business college, has opened an office as stenographer and typewriter in the Gray block. Miss Roberts is competent in her profession, and solicits all classes of commercial work.

DUCK HUNTERS.—Among Salemites who enjoyed a more or less successful Thanksgiving duck hunt were Dr. John Griffith, Steve Sanford, L. H. McMillan, Percy Willis and Henry Meyers.
