Daily Capital Journal, WASHINGTON NEWS

BY HOPER BROTHERS.
SATURDAY, DEC. 11, 1897

STATE NEWS.

The annual state teachers association will meet in Portland some time in December.

About $500 worth of goods were stolen from the store of F. W. Gorman at Yaquina last Saturday night.

Emma A. McBride has been appointed postmistress at Eddyville, Or., vice Simon P. Conroy, resigned.

The county treasurer of Yamhill county in his monthly statement shows a balance on hand of $24,898.68.

All of the 40 patients, who were seriously sick from eating headcheese and sausage, at Corvallis are recovering.

The trial of Gus Wochlin, who is being tried for the murder of John D. Ledrick of Hillsboro, is progressing rapidly.

Dr. H. W. Kellogg of the Ohio conference will preach the dedicatory sermon at the M. E. Church in McMinnville on Dec. 19.

Mr. W. H. Smith, who was shot in the leg when Curley Coville was killed is at his home in Silverton. He is yet on crutches but fast recovering.

George Anderson, of Roseburg, captured while fleeing from a house which he intended burglarizing, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

The Lane county rock crusher is at work near Goshen, where rock is being crushed to repair the new Canas wale. About 800 feet of new wale will be built.

The highest bidder for making the new indexes to the real estate records of Benton county was $2,500, while the lowest was $550. The county furnishes the books for the work.

H. A. Deer and Paul Beckley, of Southern Oregon, are pasturing 14,000 head of sheep on the Elgin place, three miles below Corvallis. The sheep were driven from Douglas county.

The following new officials were elected in Tillamook: Mayor B. L. Eddy; recorder, C. N. Drew; councilmen, J. E. Tuttle, P. McIntosh, C. P. Knudson, H. G. Davis and Frank McCormack; marshal, C. W. Clement; treasurer, Howard Carey.

Residents of Wallaoua county report a run of salmon which began within the last week. A run of salmon this late in the season is very unusual in that county. The fish are large and have deep red sides, and have other unusual characteristics. They are headed for Wallaoua lake and are very plentiful.

The Venezuela Boundary.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A tribune special from Washington says:

The British and Venezuelan agents are hurrying to completion their briefs, which must be presented with all evidences and arguments, by February 11 next to the arbitrators on the boundary dispute.

The tribunal, which is considered fully organized, though its members have not met each other, will not assemble to receive the briefs, but it has been arranged by correspondence to hold sessions in Paris, beginning next July, and the hope is expressed of being able to arrive at a satisfactory decision before the arbitrators are compelled to adjourn for their winter duties next September.

The members are M. F. G. Demarets, the Russian authority on international law, who is president; Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer, of the United States; and Baron Herschell and Sir Richard Fen-Collin, of Great Britain.

On or before February 14 copies of the briefs and evidence will be delivered to each of these judges and to the agents of both the disputing governments, who will then have until May 4 to submit briefs in rebuttal, which will constitute the final documents in the case.

Counsel for Venezuela, ex-minister Sprague, declares that the task undertaken by the commission appointed by President Cleveland, especially the investigations of Professor Burt in the Dutch archives, have proven invaluable and swept away all doubt as to the strength of Venezuela's contention.

Ex-Governor John Whiteaker, of Eugene, suffered a severe stroke of paralysis and his friends are much alarmed. His entire right side is affected, and he has no power of speech.

BADLY POISONED

Man Suffering Experienced and Apparent Failure.
DAVE CHERRY, OR.—I was badly poisoned with colic last summer and I could not get rid of it, until I took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla to purify my blood. I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifying medicine that I have ever tried. It gives me a good appetite and makes pure blood. Mrs. MARRIAGE, CHERRY.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

BRAVE INSURGENTS.

Knock at the Gates of Cuba's Capital.

RESULT LIKELY TO BE DECISIVE

Spanish Soldiers Sally Fourth to Meet the Enemy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A dispatch to the World from Havana says: An important battle is expected hourly. The insurgents have planned the most formidable demonstration against Havana, of the year. General Parrado has started from this city with a strong column of troops to meet the insurgents. Senor Canalejas, the confidential agent of the Spanish, went with him to ascertain the real conditions in Havana province.

General Rodriguez with the combined Cuban forces under Juan Delgado Ladarez and Rafael Zeckardinas, is encamped about 20 miles south of here. He has fully 1000 men, who are well armed and is said to have a Hotchkiss rapid-fire cannon.

Enilio Consolo has hanged Antonio Rivera and a negro named Osman. They went to Consolo from Blanco with money and a proposition to lay down his arms and accept autonomy. A note was pinned on the breasts of the hanged men announcing that any one coming on a similar mission would meet a like fate.

Pitiable II True.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The Journal and Advertiser say:

Weyler's policy of extermination, which he called reconcentration, has resulted in an enormous influx of Cubans into New York. Hundreds if not thousands of them are dying of hunger here. The number of these refugees is variously estimated from 12,000 to 20,000. Perhaps the great majority are absolutely without means. There are men and women among them who were worth thousands of dollars before the war began, but are now penniless. Some of them are working as waiters, porters or seamstresses.

Emilio Agranton, president of the Marti Charity Association, says that many of them have actually died from starvation, and that the majority have performed a live quietly in misery rather than let their desperate wants be known to those who could help them, but who have in the past known them to be people of wealth, influence and refinement.

Burned Alive.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A Herald dispatch from Madrid says:

A storm of indignation has been provoked here by news of tortures inflicted by the Cuban rebels upon inhabitants of Cuba, where women and children are alleged to have been bound and burnt alive. The details are given by the Iuparcal, a paper by no means favorable to the present government's policy, and the news is now officially confirmed. One of the men who signed it as far as known at present, the only crime the unfortunate creatures appear to have been guilty of is that they favored the acceptance of autonomy.

Explosive Bullets Used.

HAVANA, Dec. 11.—Latest reports of the late fight in Pinar del Rio province show the Spanish loss more than claimed. The dead or wounded include one colonel, one major, seven captains, eleven subordinate officers and 74 privates. Most of the wounded will die. The rebel loss was 14. The rebels used explosive bullets.

De Lome's Enemies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The Spanish colony in this city has been divided by a petition sent to Madrid at the time of the assassination of Premier Canovas, asking for the appointment of a successor to Senor de Lome. According to the World the petition was drawn so as to attack Senor de Lome without mentioning his name, and among the 40 prominent Spaniards who signed it were several friends of the minister who did not see any attack upon him in the apparently harmless recommendation. The result was:
