CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.
Exercises Planned at the Schools and Institutions.

The Journal rejoices with all its readers over the approaching holiday season, full of good cheer and promise of happy reunions and gift-givings.

The children in the Salem Orphan's Home will have a Christmas tree and entertainment Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to which many friends are invited.

The public schools of Salem close this afternoon for the regular holiday vacation. There will be Christmas exercises at some of the rooms this afternoon.

The program for the entertainment at the Polytechnic school is as follows:
By school "The Fairy's Address," Louise Cronise Hurrah for Santa Claus. Three boys candle drill. Miss Lockley's girls song. Miss Lockley's class Christmas Eve. Miss Lockley's class Experience of a Xmas stocking.

At the Lincoln school there will be the Christmas "Doll." Three boys a letter to Santa Claus. Eva Smith Merry Christmas. Frank Newcombe Santa Claus' Reindeer.

FROM STAYTON.
Miss Pearl Holman, was visiting in Salem last week, the guest of Mrs. Riley Thomas.
Mrs. M. V. Baisley has been quite ill during the past week but is slowly recovering.
Mrs. Magrs returned home last Tuesday after a prolonged visit with her daughter Mrs. Woodington of Silverton.
Mr. Needem returned to Stayton last Tuesday after a two weeks stay in Salem.
Mr. Morey, the popular butcher of our little town, drove out of town last Saturday with his family for a weeks visit in Salem with relatives.
Mrs. Cross is still lying very ill at her home near Center street.
Harry Henline is home from Salem after a two months absence spent in Salem, Dallas and Gervais.
Stayton's library is now complete and should be an addition that the citizens of the town would be proud of and make every effort to keep with them, the books, consisting of fifty nicely bound volumes by standard authors, are changed every three months.
Miss Nora Crabtree who has been spending the winter in Sodyville & attending the Mineral Spring college is expected home this week to spend the holidays with her parents.
Dr. Derbyshire was called to Mill City and Gates last Thursday on a professional visit.
Miss Maud Wortley, of Stayton is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rows, in Gates.
Mr. Dell Baisley, who is a student at the Capital Business college in Salem, will spend the holidays at home with his parents.
Miss Tempest Dunaway returned to her home for the holidays last Tuesday after a two months absence.
A pleasant time is anticipated by the young people of our little town upon Christmas eve, when the opera house will be given over to those who care to indulge in the pleasure of a mask ball.
Stayton was very unfortunate last Friday in losing one of her fairest daughters, in the person of Miss Louie Tillock, who left for San Francisco, via Portland, where she spent several days visiting with relatives and friends, then continuing her journey on direct to San Francisco where she expects to remain with an aunt until spring. Louie will be greatly missed by her large circle of friends in Stayton who will anxiously await news of her speedy return.
It is rumored that the young men of the Athletic club will have a public Christmas tree at the hall Christmas night.
The Misses Baisleys will give an informal reception in honor of their brother Mr. Delbert Baisley of Salem, upon the eve of December 27, at their home upon Sixth street, invitation will be issued at an early date.
Miss Oble Stayton, is expected home for the holidays.
