FOR THE KLONDIKE.

A Number of Salemites to Leave Sunday—Others at a Later Date.

The Klondike fever has struck Salem and that it is contagious no one questions. There will be a large exodus from Salem during the next few weeks for Alaskan points. The majority of those leaving expect to go direct to Dawson City and the mining region. A number, however, will locate in Skagway and other favorable points and engage in various business enterprises.

Quite a party of Salemites will go Sunday and others will follow as soon as they can make preparations and secure transportation.

Among those who will leave Portland Sunday, the 23rd inst., via steamer Oregon, are David Draper and Russell Coleman, who may decide to go into the interior; Walter Hendricks, Bert Jones, Chas Crayan, Levi Balmer, and A. W. Mize will also take passage on the "Oregon" Sunday for Skagway, J. O. Bozorth, Adam Ohuart and Jack Lemmon will leave Portland on Feb. 1st for Dawson City.

Jas. A. Mothorn, the well-known notorman, having on Tuesday discontinued work, went to Portland today to see about securing the necessary outfit and transportation for a trip to the "Land of Gold." He will leave shortly after the first of the month and will be accompanied by one or two other gentlemen.

Mr. Palmer, Richard Burford and Percy Jory, all residing south of this city, are contemplating a trip to the Klondike and expect to leave during February.

Henry Myers, Fred Morris, Otto Martin and Walter Jennings, all of Seio, will be numbered among the "Oregon's" passengers Sunday for the Klondike. They will go direct to the mines.

The Klondike fever is not characteristic of any one locality but instead is general throughout the country.

The following is taken from the Albany Democrat of Tuesday:

"James Cochran, T. W. Fritts, T. W. Crank, E. E. Warner, Everett Kraemer, J. H. and W. T. Foster, G. T. Cox, Wm. Lewis, John Unger, Jas. Agee and Chris Jarstad, came down from the Upper Santiam last evening and left for Portland, where they will take the Oregon next Sunday for Alaska and the mines. On the same steamer there will go from Albany for Alaska, H. J. Sower, C. G. Rawlins, D. B. Monteith, Al Boenicke, Henry Williams, W. F. Pfeiffer and John Rolfe. None of the Albany men will probably go farther than Skagway."

Mr. and Mrs. "Tues" Potter, of Turner, are visiting at the home of County Treasurer G. L. Brown. Mr. Potter will leave tomorrow for Seattle where if he is not suited he will go on to Skagway or Dawson City. Mr. Potter is a painter and shipbuilder by occupation and may find work at Seattle.

F. N. Derby was in Portland Tuesday afternoon where he purchased transportation for some prospective Klondikers. Mr. Derby says the "Oregon" will have a full list of passengers upon leaving Portland Sunday.

Of the 250 cabin tickets more than a half of the number had already been purchased yesterday and of the 350 steerage tickets a large number had also been secured.

H. W. Jones, of Clymer, boarded the afternoon local for Portland. He will take passage on the steamer Oregon Sunday for Skagway.

H. G. Sonneman, the enterprising State street grocer, will on Friday begin the work of evaporating potatoes for the Klondike trade. The work will be done on the farm of G. A. Stevens near the insane asylum. It is quite probable that carrots, parsnips, cabbage and other vegetables will also be evaporated. This is purely a venture but promises to prove a successful and a profitable one.

The Performance Tonight. Lovers of high class dramatic art will be delighted with Managers Patton's offering to their many patrons at the opera house when Miss Janet Waldorf will present tonight, Sheridan's celebrated comedy, "The Hunchback," and on tomorrow evening "Ingomar," will be given.

The Great Falls Montana Leader, speaking of a recent performance says: "In the ability displayed by Janet Waldorf as 'Julia' in 'The Hunchback' last evening at the Grand is a fair criterion of her work; we may expect within a very short time to find that young lady classed in the very front ranks of the world's actresses. No woman has ever appeared upon the stage in Great Falls who possessed anything like the histrionic ability displayed by Miss Waldorf last night. She takes the part of Julia perfectly. In the scenes of love, of mirth, of passion and of despair, she is powerful, lovable or passionate as the situation demands, and through it all she is natural and true to life. No more can one say or desire in an actress. 'The Hunchback' gives scope for her talents and she knows how to take advantage of her opportunities. It is not likely that Miss Waldorf will visit Great Falls soon again. We imagine that when her talent becomes better known in this country larger cities and larger audiences will demand all her time. Those who neglect seeing her now are undoubtedly missing an opportunity."

A NEW SUIT.—A. J. Bases and Mary B. Willard, co-executors of the last will and testament of J. J. Bases deceased, have instituted foreclosure proceedings against Benjamin Vincke et al. Judgment is ased for $800, with interest at 10 per cent from June 10, 1894; $16.90 in taxes with interest at 10 per cent from Jan. 18, 1898, and $100 as special attorneys fees. Plaintiffs also ask that a mortgage on 70.5 acres in T. 8 S. R. 3 W. be foreclosed. The amount claimed to be due is alleged to be the balance on a note for $800 executed April 23, 1890 and upon which the interest was paid up to June 10, 1894.

COUNTY COURT MATTERS.

Work of January Term Concluded and Adjournment Taken.

At the session of the Marion county court Tuesday afternoon several changes were made in the boundaries of the various precincts. Changes of the precincts of East Salem, West Silverton, Sublimity, Turner, Howell, Macleay, Woodburn, Hubbard, Fairfield, Geryais, Englewood, Horeb, Eikhorn, Breitenbush and Silver Falls.

The names of Libcon and Labish precincts were changed to Annsville and Brooks respectively. Abiqua precinct was divided and a new precinct to be known as Montor was established. The other half of the original precinct will be known as Mount Angel.

In the matter of the assessment of the property of Marion county for the year 1898 and the employment of assistants to the assessor in making such assessment, the court made an order similar to the one of last March and ready to be submitted to the county board of equalization on or before the last Monday in August; the assessor is also commanded to follow the form of roll recommended by the secretary of state.

W. H. Fletcher, publisher of the Weekly Independent, has entered a writ against the court's action in selecting the JOURNAL and the Statesman as the newspapers in which to publish the county court proceedings, for the current year. Mr. Fletcher bases his claim on the grounds that his paper has the largest circulation of any paper published in Marion county. The writ will be heard at the regular February term of the court, Feb. 10 at 1 p. m. having been named for hearing the protest.

The court reconvened this morning the resignation of O. H. Gilbert as constable of the assessment precinct was accepted and John Smith was appointed to serve the unexpired term of Mr. Gilbert.

Court adjourned sine die.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

The secretary of state has been notified that he is to blame because the assessment rolls of Marion county were not received in time for the state board of equalization to act. The Marion county court in substance says the reason for the assessment rolls not being furnished by the state were not used and the regular forms as laid down were not followed is because of the poor quality of binding of said books as well as the material of which they are made. On that account a new and different form was used and out of that difference has grown all the trouble and litigation.

SECRETARY KINCAD is preparing a reply. The books used by Marion county cost about $35 while those furnished by the state did not cost $7 each, and have been used by nearly all the counties of the state. Mr. Kincad will reply Thursday to the strictures of the county court.

NEW CORPORATIONS. New corporations today were formed by filing articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state as follows: Coquille River and Alaska Mining Co., organized by twenty of Coos county's sturdy citizens for the purpose of building a ship and of navigating the north Pacific ocean and of mining.

The Alaska Mutual Protective Association of Portland. Also the Oregon Oak Lumber Association of Oregon City.

POTATOES FOR KLONDIKE.

Tons to be Dried at Salem for the North. Scores of driers in the Puget Sound country are now busily engaged drying all kinds of vegetables for the great North, and Salem has also caught the fever. H. G. Sonneman, the State street grocer, has contracted for the Stevens drier east of the city, and will begin at once putting up a superior article of dried potato, the latest and best process. The potatoes are first boiled and peeled; then they are forced through a colander or sieve, after which the product is dried, and comes out of the drier looking very much like fine-crumbled stone. This is put up in 25 pound screw-top cans and thus placed on the market. Mr. Stevens has made some successful experiments, and will no doubt be able to turn out a superior commercial article. Mr. Sonneman has orders for all that one drier can turn out. This kind of studs sell at 20 cents a pound in Seattle and other outfitting points, and form a large portion of every Klondiker's stock of provisions.

BORN.

SNOW.—At the family home in Highland, Wednesday, Jan. 19, 1898, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snow a son.

DIED.

DRAKE.—In this city, at 420 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1898, B. F. Drake, aged 73 years, of chronic kidney and bladder troubles.

The deceased was native of Massachusetts where he was born July 13, 1825. He came to Oregon in the '50's settling at Oregon City.

In 1850 he removed to Salem and established the Salem Iron Works in partnership with John Watson. Two years later he became sole owner, but in 1864 was joined in the business by John H. Moore, which partnership continued for four years since which time Mr. Drake has conducted the business until early in December when he was obliged to transfer the property into the hands of A. N. Bush.

Deceased was a member of Chemeketa Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., under whose auspices the funeral will be conducted. The details of the funeral will be determined upon at the regular meeting of the lodge tonight.

TROUBLED THE WRONG FARMER

One Indian Shot and Killed and Another Wounded.

WALLA WALLA, Wn., Jan. 19.—Word has just been received from Wallula of a shooting affray, which occurred near that place Tuesday afternoon. From the meager particulars received, it appears that, about 5 o'clock last evening, Indian Jim, accompanied by his son and several other Indians, went to the farm of William F. De Long, with whom they had had trouble, and ordered him to vacate the premises. They threatened to burn his house and commit other depredations. De Long went into the house, got a gun, and in order to protect himself and property, shot and killed Indian Jim's son and wounded another Indian.

When the other Indians saw their companions were shot, they hurried away. The report of the shooting caused great excitement, and a mob organizing for the purpose of pursuing the fleeing Indians.

Sheriff Ellingsworth and Deputy United States Marshal J. B. Wilson were notified of the shooting at last night, and will leave early this morning for the scene.
