

CUBANS SURRENDER.

Delivered Up Their Arms to General Aguirre.

MINISTER DE LOME NOTIFIED.

Blanco Says It Is True--Consul Hyatt's Report.

HAVANA, Jan. 22.—The Spanish authorities report that the insurgent general, Juan Maso, with the forces under his command, Lieutenant-Colonel Perin and Jose Carmen Hernandez, Majors Feliciano Quesada, Saturnino Leon and Victoriano Gomez, with six other officers and 110 privates, well armed and well supplied with ammunition, have surrendered at Fomento to the Spanish General Aguirre and Senor Marcos Garcia, governor of Santa Clara province. The insurgents are said to have formed in line and delivered up their arms according to the ordinance, shouting "Long live Spain!" "Long live the queen regent!" "Long live Spanish Cuba!" and "Long live autonomy!"

In addition to those who surrendered with General Juan Maso, Garcia, according to the Spanish authorities, 160 well-armed men have surrendered, among them two lieutenant-colonels and three other officers. The Spanish troops on the other hand are said to have lost 12 killed and 93 wounded.

Says It's True. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Spanish minister has received a cablegram from General Blanco, confirming the preceding dispatch and giving the details as therein stated. General Blanco says the form of surrender was of such a dignified character as to serve as a model for those to follow. The cable continues:

"The rank of Juan Mason, his close family connection with Bartolome Mason, president of the so-called Cuban republic, and the formal and military character of the capitulation give unusual importance to the act."

Hyatt's Report. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The Central Cuban relief committee appointed by President McKinley has received a letter from W. R. Day, assistant secretary of state, and a cablegram from Consul General Lee. Mr. Day's letter contained an inclosure from Consul Hyatt, at Santiago de Cuba, to the effect that one-third of the people in that district are sick and in need of medicine. Linen goods, too, are wanted, and as for food, rice, beans, cornmeal, codfish, dried beef and other articles which will keep well in a warm climate, would be welcome.

Luetgert on the Stand. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Adolph L. Luetgert went on the witness stand and told to jury the story of his doings in his sausage factory on the night of May 1, in an endeavor to explain the mystery surrounding the disappearance of his wife, for whose murder he is being tried. The courtroom was packed. There was an unusual number of women present. During the examination, when mention was made of his wife, Luetgert broke down and commenced crying like a child. His attorneys asked for a recess, but Judge Cary refused to allow it, and after a few moments Luetgert regained control of himself.

Wife-Murderer Convicted. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—In the case of Chris Merry, the pedler charged with wife-murder, the jury have returned a verdict of guilty. Smith, his alleged accomplice, was not guilty. The jury was out all night. When the verdict was read, Smith jumped to his feet and shouted for joy, but the judge sternly commanded him to sit down. "Bring me a warrant," said the judge, "I want this man arrested as an accessory to the murder after the fact and I want him indicted by the grand jury today."

Murdered. TEKOA, Wn., Jan. 22.—Evidence of a horrible murder was discovered at the farm of Dan Galland, an aged bachelor. He had been murdered in his house and the body thrown into the hog pen. Inside the house presented a horrible sight and there were evidences of a terrible struggle. Robbery was the motive as the house had been thoroughly ransacked. Galland was wealthy. He had three years' crops of wheat, about $3,000, in the bank, and was supposed to have the money in his house. He lived alone in an isolated place. He has a sister in California.

In Favor of Annexation. DES MOINES, Jan. 22.—The house of representatives has passed a joint resolution introduced by Van Houten, requesting Senators Allison and Gear to vote for the Hawaiian annexation treaty. The vote was 54 to 40, most of the Democrats and Fusionists opposing it.

PRACTICE WHAT THEY PREACH.

Leading Clergymen of Every Denomination Use and Advise Paine's Celery Compound.

Like Goldsmith's parson who Tried each art, reproved each dull delay, Allured to brighter worlds and led the way.

great preachers throughout the country have been the most untiring and earnest in telling the truth about Paine's celery compound, in urging sick people to use it, and at the same time they themselves have employed the great remedy in their own homes with results that have steadily kept up their faith in its health giving powers.

It is significant that Paine's celery compound stands alone as the one remedy that is freely used in the homes not only of clergymen, but of liberally as well as professionally educated men: physicians, lawyers, school teachers and others, while every other remedy purporting to accomplish equal results, is promptly shown the door.

No class of men have the public good so disinterestedly at heart as clergymen; none others see so intimately the affairs of so many homes. It is their business to know the sad side, sorrows and sufferings. As confident confessor and comforter they learn the truth as even the physician often fails to do.

And clergymen recommend Paine's celery compound wherever they enter a home where some member of the family needs a general building up of the body, a purifying of the blood and a strengthening of tired nerves.

Another great preacher, Rev. S. Domer pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church Washington D. C., says:

Washington, D. C., May 15, 1897. Wells, Richardson & Co., Gentlemen—Have used Paine's celery compound as a tonic and am pleased to certify that so far as I have been able to test it I have found it quite satisfactory.

Yours very truly S. DOMER, St. Paul's Eng. Luth. Church.

It cannot be repeated too often that the stomach is the fountain which supplies every part of the body. If the stomach is sick, the brain, heart, liver, bowels and kidneys are all sick. The trouble may all be felt in one spot; it may be in the stomach itself, or it may be in the brain, or in a rheumatic muscle. It will be felt in the weakest place. Paine's celery compound is fully competent to correct such disordered condition of the stomach, and to restore healthy, hearty tone that will enable it to meet every demand made upon it by hard-worked brain, heart and nerves.

A dyspeptic stomach cannot furnish sweet, healthy chyme, as the digested food is called, but acids and poisonous gases, and the brain and nerves thus get poison instead of food: It is not food swallowed, but food well digested that produces flesh and blood. Paine's celery compound disposes the body to take on flesh. It makes breath sweeter, the strength more enduring, the body plumper and the spirits better.

Dyspeptics and nervous, sickly persons, whose lives are a failure, both as to enjoyment and usefulness, ought to learn how closely their debility, aches and pains depend on their general run-down condition, and that the sensible lasting cure can only come from building up their general health and constitution. This is the grand mission of Paine's celery compound. It cures neuralgia, rheumatism, stomach trouble, blood diseases and headaches by this enlightening, broad treatment. Pure blood and plenty of it, quiet, satisfactorily fed nerves and a condition of the brain that makes sound, sweet sleep a safeguard against all nervous troubles comes when Paine's celery compound is used.

If you are "played out," to use a forcible street phrase, can't digest, can't work and have lost courage, Paine's celery compound will show itself to be the best friend you ever had. It will enable you to forget your stomach, and will do for you what it has done for so many others—make you again a healthy, active man or woman.

JOHNSON & BUTCHART

The Famous Bears

THE CALIFORNIA BEARS OF LOS ANGELES, CAL., spent some time in looking over San Francisco with a view of purchasing an outfit for Alaska. They then came to Seattle and gave a liberal amount of time to inspecting the goods of the different outfitters in Seattle; after careful consideration they concluded that for absolutely reliable goods at reasonable figures there was nothing superior or equal to the Seattle Woolen Manufacturing Company, and would recommend all their friends going into that country to give this firm a call before purchasing elsewhere.
