SOCIETY NOTE BOOK.

Friday evening the Men's League of the First Presbyterian church gave a social in the main auditorium of the church. One hour was pleasantly passed in a social way after which the company was invited into the lecture rooms where tables had been affair was intended to have been a arranged and plates prepared for ac-commodation of one hundred and fifty guests. Grace having been pro-scheme leaked out but the affair was nounced by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, all joined in singing 'Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow,' after which the guests did ample justice to the bountiful repast that had been prepared by the members of the League, assisted by the ladies.

The evenium taked out that all all was none the less enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Benninghoff will soon remove from our city and engage in agricultural pursuits, and the affair was but an indication of the high esteem in which this couple is held by their acquaintances.

Mr. J.O. Bozorth's rich baritone voice was enjoyed by all in the solo "Bocked In the Cradle of the Deep" and the delighted auditors prevailed upon the vocalist for a second selection which was given. Mr. Bozorth expects soon to leave for the Klondike gold fields and his many warm friends in the church took advantage of the opportunity offered them to have some music before his departure.

church and for some time has been seriously indisposed. This is only an additional evidence of the true spirit of Christianity and sympathetic interest that exists between the pastor and people of this congregation. During the ensuing four weeks the pulpit will be supplied but in the absence of a suitable speaker the Sunday services will be converted into a prayer meeting, each member having pledged himself to become an active participant in such exercises. music before his departure.

The affair, though quite informal, was a delightful event and will tend to revive the social life of this church.
