Finest stock of shoes ever shown in being consumed, as on the two preceding days, in discussing extraneous subjects. By far the most interesting feature of the day was a debate on the question of reducing the mail carrier service in large cities, owing to the failure of the senate to attach the estimated deficiency of $160,000 to the urgent deficiensy bill. Loud used strong words in his criticism of the postoffice department officials and promised some interesting disclosures later on. The motion to strike out the appropriation for the Carlisle Indian school was defeated after considerable debate by a vote of 29 to 65.
