

Silver Republican Party.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, independent of the action of any other nation.

We demand that all money shall be issued directly by the government, in quantity adequate for the needs of the people; and all money so issued, whether gold, silver or paper, shall be a full legal tender for all debts, public or private.

We demand that no contract or law shall discriminate against any money issued by government.

We demand the speedy repeal of the National Banking laws.

We demand that there shall be no further issues of United States interest bearing bonds in time of peace.

We protest against any legislation for the retirement of the United States treasury notes (greenbacks), the money with which, under the Republican administration of our revered and martyred Lincoln, this nation was preserved from dismemberment.

We demand the election of all officers by the direct vote of the people.

We believe that under a Republican form of government, all laws, enacted for the people, should have the approval of the people, and we therefore demand direct legislation by the people.

We the undersigned voters of Precinct, firmly believing the foregoing principles should prevail hereby enroll ourselves as members of Club of Precinct, County, Oregon.

SILVER REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Organized and Issues a Call for a State Convention.

A meeting of the Silver Republican state central committee was held January 7, at Portland, for the purpose of apportioning the number of delegates to the next state convention. Nineteen of the 32 counties of the state were represented at the meeting, as follows:

Baker—C. M. Donaldson.
Benton—Eugene Palmer.
Clackamas—William Barlow.
Clatsop—W. Hampton Smith.
Columbia—J. A. Roberts.
Douglas—J. W. Coon.
Jackson—Robert Taylor.
Josephine—D. C. Brownell.
Lane—C. H. Baker.
Linn—D. M. Jones.
Lincoln—O. G. Dalaba.
Malheur—J. W. Hawthorn.
Marion—W. T. Rigdon.
Multnomah—Seneca Smith.
Polk—E. T. Smith.
Union—J. K. R. R. R. R.
Wasco—G. E. Sanders.
Washington—John P. Alpin, jr.
Yamhill—C. W. Talmage.

The basis of representation to the state convention was fixed at two at large from each county, and one for every 700 votes, and a major fraction thereof, cast for the People's Democratic, Silver Republican presidential electors in November, 1896. One such apportionment there will be 131 delegates to the convention, as follows:

- | | | | |
|-----------|---|------------|----|
| Baker | 5 | Klamath | 3 |
| Benton | 3 | Lake | 3 |
| Clackamas | 5 | Lincoln | 3 |
| Clatsop | 4 | Linn | 3 |
| Columbia | 3 | Malheur | 3 |
| Coos | 4 | Marion | 3 |
| Crook | 3 | Morrow | 3 |
| Curry | 2 | Multnomah | 11 |
| Douglas | 3 | Polk | 4 |
| Gilliam | 3 | Sherman | 3 |
| Grant | 3 | Tillamook | 3 |
| Harney | 3 | Union | 3 |
| Jackson | 3 | Wasco | 4 |
| Josephine | 4 | Washington | 4 |
| Lane | 3 | Yamhill | 4 |

The committee resolved that no proxies to state convention be given except by duly elected delegates to other delegates from the same county.

An executive committee of five was appointed as follows: W. T. Rigdon, Marion county; W. Hampton Smith, Clatsop; Seneca Smith, Multnomah; C. M. Donaldson, Baker; C. W. Talmage, Yamhill, and a resolution was adopted notifying the Democratic State Central Committee of the same.

At the session of the executive committee held after adjournment of the state committee, it was resolved that the state convention of the Silver Republican party be called to meet in Portland for March 23.

TO SILVER REPUBLICANS.

Issued by the State Central Committee to the Bimetallists.

At a meeting of the state central committee of the "Silver Republicans" of Oregon, held at the Hotel Perkins, January 7, the following address was unanimously adopted:

"Believing it has never been the intention of the common voters of the Republican party to lead that great organization to purposes of evil and that the true followers of Abraham Lincoln will be as quick to correct errors of their own as to rebuke wrongs of others, we invite the careful consideration of Republicans to the present political position of our country.

"The money power, although thwarted in one of its efforts by President Jackson, for a time ruined the great Democratic party of the United States, by fraudulently dividing its forces, and leading its greatest wing to champion the cause of human slavery. The same power of greed, ever seeking its own advantage, has succeeded in dividing the Republican party and capturing its organization, which it now proposes to use as the engine of a financial scheme against the people of the country, that has already brought woe and must end in industrial slavery.

"True to the traditions of the old party, and the principles of Lincoln, the Silver Republicans of the United States have kept the doors of the old home open, that all who will may assist in making greater the great day that shall wrest the old party from the hands of its despoilers. We ask you to consider:

"Silver as a money of the constitution was attacked by hostile legislation, and is entitled to free and unlimited coinage, as you declared in your state platform in 1890, as follows:

"Both gold and silver were equally the money of the constitution from the beginning of the Republic, until the hostile legislation against silver, which unduly contracted the circulating medium country, and recognizing that the great interests of the people demand more money for use in the channels of trade and commerce, therefore, we declare ourselves in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and denounce any attempt to discriminate against silver as unwise and unjust.

"The party of power that attacks the inalienable rights of silver is guilty of a violation of the constitution, and has been declared by the princes of American state men.

"Daniel Webster said: 'I am clearly of the opinion that neither Congress nor any other authority can legally demonetize either gold or silver. If one metal can be demonetized as money, then the other one can be, and thus the constitution can be overthrown. The command to Congress is to coin money, not to destroy it; to create legal tender money for the use of the people, and the grant of authority to create money cannot be construed to mean authority to destroy money.'

"James G. Blaine said: 'I believe gold and silver to be the money of the constitution; indeed, the money of the American people, anterior to the constitution, which the great organic law recognizes as independent of its own existence. No power was conferred on Congress to declare either metal should not be money. Congress has, therefore, no judgment, no power demonetize silver any more than to demonetize gold.'

"Silver is a standard money of our country, and its use as such with gold is a tradition of the Republican party as well as a harmonious party declared in our national platform in 1862, as follows: 'The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as money.'

"The demonization of silver is wrong, and the Republican party, in its national platform in 1888, condemned the effort of President Cleveland's administration to demonetize it, as follows: 'The Republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money, and condemns the Democratic administration in its effort to demonetize silver.'

"President McKinley, on February 12, 1891, as a member of Congress, in the house, said: 'During all of Grover Cleveland's years at the head of the government he was dishonoring one of our precious metals, one of our own great products, discrediting silver and enhancing the price of gold. He endeavored even before his inauguration to office, to stop the coinage of silver dollars, and afterwards, and to the end of his administration persistently used his power to that end. He was determined to contract the circulating medium and demonetize one of the coins of commerce, limit the volume of money among the people, make money scarce, and therefore ruin. He would have increased the value of money and diminished the value of everything else, money the master, everything else the servant.'

"You witnessed in the last campaign the most cruel coercion of the laboring vote by the money-changers, in charge of the old party—a coercion that put the lives of wives and children at stake, by a threatened withdrawal of employment if the voter did not forego his own opinion and vote the sentiments of his employers. This cannot be Lincoln Republicanism.

"You have witnessed the unblushing repudiation of their promises to strive for international bimetallism by this same aggregation of greed, as soon as it had obtained power under a promise so solemnly made to a nation which it did not intend to perform. This cannot be Lincoln Republicanism. You heard their promises that all should have employment at increased wages, and now see that the trusts they fostered have reduced wages; more than 30,000 cotton mill workers have been victimized within the past few days. They promised to protect and keep good all the denunciations of our money, and they now propose to retire it all except gold, and the paper money of their private corporations, by incurring a greater public debt than was required by our forefathers to build the nation. The power of greed only promises, it never fulfills. But Lincoln Republicanism never promised what it did not fulfill.

"You cannot expect to get the old party back through the aid of the power that despoils it; you cannot expect a more emblem of greed to save its fair name from the infamy that always attaches to the agency of selfishness, disloyalty and coercion. A political combination that would take from the government it pretended to serve the right to issue its own currency, and give it to a few bankers, largely made up of money-changers, could be purchased by other aggregations of capital to commit other violations of the constitution.

"Their promises to the farmers would have been as wholly disappointing as those of the failure of the crops in other wheat producing countries, and gaunt famine that followed. You have observed one year of the present administration, and must be satisfied that we are having Clevelandism under McKinley, as we had Shermanism under Carlisle. The same unpatriotic power that made President Cleveland a traitor to the great party that honored him has continued its un-American regime in the person of another man, whom it will not permit to refer to his former votes, speeches and writings for free and unlimited coinage of silver, when he was a salaried servant of the nation in one of its highest trusts. There is no perceptible difference between Cleveland Democracy and McKinley Republicanism, so far as bimetallism is concerned.

"While we would gladly welcome international bimetallism, the attitude of the present administration in abandoning its platform and its commission appointed thereunder, and in avowedly attempting to fasten the Gage gold standard permanently upon the country, makes it clear that it is opposed to bimetallism from any source. The battle is not that of Republicanism against Populism or Democracy; it is the unrelenting and cruel war of selfish, disloyal greed against all these. The conflict is, and involves the peace and happiness of the people, if not the life of the nation.

"Let us, therefore, exhort all to come to the help of those who love true Republicanism and their country, and let us advise an alliance, and the faithful co-operation of those who stand for their own convictions, exercise their own judgment, and regard the power of selfish greed as a common enemy.

"All who favor bimetallism are our allies. All who favor the gold standard are political enemies. We are proud of the United States of America, and believe in the capacity of our people to establish and maintain most successfully our own system of money. We believe in the more perfect independence of this people. We believe in that plank of our platform adopted unanimously by the Republican state convention of 1890, to which we have called your attention, and confidently look forward to the glad day when we shall again espouse its principles, an undivided party, seeking the welfare of the nation and the prosperity of its people.

"C. W. TALMAGE, Chairman.
C. M. DONALDSON, Secretary.

CALL TO ORGANIZE.

Two Lines of Work Before Silver Republicans in Oregon.

The Silver and Reform forces of Oregon have two lines of work and organization. In the coming state campaign some counties will maintain three party organizations—Democrat, Populists and Silver Republicans.

In such counties three county conventions will be called and all three organizations will, if possible, agree on one ticket. This necessitates a Silver Republican county organization by precincts.

In other counties there will be but one Union county convention of all three parties, meeting at the primary. In such counties the Silver Republicans must have a county central committee or executive committee to act through.

The JOURNAL today gives up its space to the platform and address to the people of the Silver Republicans. A large edition of the DAILY and WEEKLY has been printed for circulation.

All Silver Republicans should be organized under our declaration of principles as soon practicable. Some good live man in every precinct in the state should circulate club rolls until every Silver Republican is enrolled. A meeting should be then called and a precinct committee man elected and placed in correspondence with the county chairman. A county executive committee should then be formed as soon as possible. The time set for holding primaries and county conventions, that delegates to the state convention should be elected in time. Where the precinct organization cannot be perfected in time the county committeeman should call a mass convention and elect delegates to the State Convention.

For Club headings or any other necessary papers for organizing, the application should be made to W. T. Rigdon, chairman executive committee, Silver Republican party, Salem, Or.

It is hoped that this work will be carried on with all possible speed, and done in a thorough manner. Let every Silver Republican consider himself a special committee to push the matter of enrollment in his neighborhood.

Folly Well Answered.

By the Editor of The Dalles Times-Mountaineer.

Reply to a Mitchell Push Organ That Clamours for a Session.

Gov. Lord should get a move on and convene the legislature. Oregon standing on one leg in the senate when she has abundant ability that could aptly represent her is the quiteness of outrageous folly—Linn county Republican.

It is but natural that the Republicans should see but one service for all Oregon legislature to perform—that of electing a United States senator, regardless of cost or consequence, since it is a paper just come into existence, having for an excuse for its birth the advocacy of that gentleman's interests whose only use for the taxpayers of the state is a seat in the upper house of congress.

We agree with the Republican that Oregon has abundant ability from which to make senators; it is hanging around loose everywhere; it is hanging waste; in fact we have a surfeit of senatorial timbers that would perhaps serve the nation better following the plow.

With such an abundance of ability on every hand it may be folly for Oregon to "stand on one leg in the senate," at least that is the opinion of the "ability," especially one particular gentleman who considers himself especially fitted for the place. But we would ask what is Oregon losing by thus being "one-legged" in the senate? And what would it cost to supply the missing "leg"? At present there is no legislation pending before congress in which the state of Oregon is deeply interested that it can afford an expenditure of $30,000 to $50,000 to get a full representation in that body. Besides the state is fairly well represented in congress, at least and more than this, one of our former senators demonstrated that the state's interests could be fully represented by one senator, when he deserted his post of duty at Washington in January and February of 1897 and came home to look after his re-election.

There are many reasons why Gov. Lord should not "get a move on" and convene the legislature. Principal among these is the expense that would be incurred, with little hope of any direct benefit except saddling upon the nation the salary of one more senator and a few more representatives, at least anywhere from $30,000 to $50,000 to conduct an extra session for twenty days, and what could the people expect from it? In the light of the session of 1895 and the so-called session of 1897, resulting, respectively, in the worst sort of folly for the governor to place an extra burden on all the people of the state just in order to satisfy the desire of office possessed by one man and a few of his strikers.

From Astoria.

The evening of the 27th inst., was one of unusual interest in this little city. The occasion was the installation of the newly elected officers of the local Pacific Circle Women of Woodcraft, which ceremony was performed by the visiting members of the Silver Bell Circle No. 43 of Salem. About 7 o'clock in the evening the Salem delegation began to arrive and by 9 o'clock the number had reached nearly twenty-five. When all had arrived, the organization was immediately completed and the following officers were installed: G. N. Mrs. M. B. Handsaker; Adv. Mrs. M. Callahan; clerk, Mrs. Ellen Shaw; banker, Mrs. J. F. Bashor; guide, O. H. Gilbert; musician, Mrs. Julia Smith; musician, Miss Frankie Gilbert; I. H. C. H. Mitchell; O. S. W. G. Prunk; managers, E. B. Handsaker, Mrs. E. Spree, and Mrs. W. G. Prunk. When the installation was completed those present were treated to a banquet, which was prepared by the ladies of the local circle. In the meantime there was rendered an excellent program, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, recitation, etc.

When the exercises were concluded the votaries of Terpsichore repaired to the ball room where youth and pleasure are wont to meet "and chase the glowing hours with flying feet." This amusement was indulged in until nearly 3 o'clock, when the crowd gradually dispersed with pleasant remembrance of one time enjoyably spent in an effort to bring about the time when fraternal union and brotherly love shall whisper to the nations: "Peace on earth; good will to men."

An Educational Meeting.

The Astoria Teachers association which was only recently formed, held a very interesting and profitable educational meeting at Astoria Saturday. The meeting was quite largely attended, County Supt. Jones helping at both sessions.

The forenoon session was devoted to the reading of a paper prepared by a discussion of a little book entitled, "The Recitation," the author of which is J. N. Patrick, of St. Louis. It is a very excellent little book and was thoroughly discussed by the teachers.

In the afternoon Mr. Kraps, of Macleay, verily discussed "Arithmetic" and the best methods of teaching it—all important branches.

E. Hofer delivered an address on "Supplementary Reading."

Prof. W. J. Crawford of this city, gave a discussion on History and was followed by W. L. Cummings who discussed "Reading."

The next educational meeting will be held at Astoria March 5.

IN OLDEN TIMES.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
