ON THE RIVER.—As a result of the continued heavy rains of the past ten days, the Willamette is rising quite rapidly at Salem. The gauge indicated a depth of 11 feet above low water mark this morning and river was rising steadily. . . . The supplies of the Klondike party amounting in all to about eight tons, was shipped to Portland via Steamer "Altona" this morning. . . . Note of the members of the party have yet gone to Portland having not been informed of the arrival of their steamer in Portland. The steamer was due to leave Tuesday evening but has been delayed on the return trip from Skagway and has not yet reached Portland.

THE NEGATIVE.—The two weeks allotted Willamette University in which to choose the side of the question for debate recently submitted by Pacific University, of Forest Grove, expired Saturday when the Forest Grove school was informed that Willamette's debaters would present the negative side of the argument. The question to be debated is: "Resolved that the best interests of the people of the United States would be served by government ownership of railroads." Unless a postponement is had as a result of the delinquency of Forest Grove in submitting the question, the debate will take place in Forest Grove on Friday evening March 4.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

Large Crowds Gather to Hear Evangelists Potter and Miller.

The first of a series of a week's union evangelistic services under the leadership of Messrs. Potter and Miller, the successful evangelists, was held in the First Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The large auditorium of that church was filled with a company consisting principally of ladies.

Rev. Potter is an able speaker. He has a strong sweet voice, so requisite for a successful public speaker. He is a man of pleasing appearance and a forcible and eloquent speaker. The evangelist expressed a desire that all might forget to which religious denomination they might belong and unite in the work of saving souls. The evangelist is a Methodist in that he believes in demonstrative audiences.

The singing evangelist, Mr. Miller, who accompanies Evangelist Potter, is a wonderful power for good. He has a strong, sweet voice and sings with beautiful expression. During the services Mr. Miller was heard in two songs: "Far away Land" and "The Old Fountain."

Evangelist Potter delivered an excellent address on "Heaven." At the conclusion of the services, a large number expressed a desire to be remembered in prayer, and many remained to attend an after-meeting.

In the evening the services were held in the First Methodist church and before the hour set for services every available seat in both the large auditorium and the gallery had been taken. The large choir loft was filled with the choirs of the various churches participating in the union services. Preceding the address by Mr. Potter on "The Young Man's Choice," Mr. Miller sang with sweet expression, "The Ninety and Nine" and "What Will You Do?"

A number went forward at the close of the sermon and many remained to the after meeting.

This afternoon services were held in the Baptist church, when Evangelist Potter delivered an address on "Is This God's Book?" This evening at 7:30 p. m. services will again be held in the Methodist church. Mr. Miller will sing a song entitled "The Trundle Bed."

The local workers are more than pleased with the auspicious opening exercises of the union evangelistic meetings, which promise to be productive of much good, and hope that the interest and attendance manifested at Sunday's meetings may not be abated.

Evangelist D. W. Potter was happily surprised at his rooms at Hotel Salem Saturday evening when his brother, S. W. Potter, of Bay City, Oregon, called on him, having just arrived in the city.

AT UNITY CHURCH.
Among the churches which did not adjourn and unite with the evangelistic services at the M. E. church last evening were the Catholic Episcopal and the Unitarian. At the latter church, Dr. Copeland spoke of the religion of the Buddha, Thomas Paine, Abraham Lincoln and others. He said that in their respective periods each great leader of orthodox was called a heretic or an infidel. He then took up Martin Luther, explaining how near he came being burned for heresy. How Wesley, the great Methodist leader was rotten egged and his followers scoffed at and called "Methodists" then as a term of derision. How John Calvin was excommunicated. How Roger Williams, the great Baptist, was driven out of Massachusetts. How all the great leaders of the present day churches were called infidels. He then made a plea for the Unitarians saying they were called infidels but that they were no more infidels than the great leaders he had just mentioned. "Infidels," meaning unfaithful. Unfaithful to what? Not unfaithful to God, not unfaithful to the truth, not unfaithful to humanity, not unfaithful to the true Christ, but to man-made images of God—old and superstitious ideas and cast iron creeds. He alluded to the present orthodox revival and said that he hoped it would do much good but cautioned people not to be carried away with excitement. To accept that which was good and think soberly and search honestly for the real truth.

BLUE FRONT BURGLARIZED.

The Store Entered Sunday Night and $6 in Money Was Stolen.

Insufficient protection in the rear of the store building from burglars, accounts for the burglary of the "Blue Front" grocery conducted by Damon Bros. on Commercial street, some time Sunday night. About $6 in money was taken from the cash register and a quantity of breakfast bacon and eggs were also carried away.

Entrance to the store building was effected by breaking through a rear window. The general appearance of the inside of the store this morning was such as to indicate that the party or parties were in search of eatables and also to warrant the suspicion that the burglary was undoubtedly the work of tramps.

A number of eggs were scattered about the floor and placed alongside the cash register, which had been opened and about $6 in money taken, one dollar of which consisted of pennies was found a large piece of bacon. It is probable the thief had seized the bacon upon entering the building but at the prospect of obtaining money from the cash register, deserted his more bulky plunder.

Considerable blood was found upon the case from which a number of eggs had been taken, going to show that the thief had cut his hands while entering the store.

This instance should cause other business men to look after better protection from such criminals by barring up the rear entrance more effectively.

More Silver Meetings.
The North Salem binetalle club met at Labor Exchange building Saturday night and enrolled forty members. There was a good attendance considering the bad night. Some good talks were made and officers elected. The club meets Wednesday night.

There will be a meeting of the Macleay Union League held at the hall in that place on Wednesday eve, February 9, at 7 p. m. at which time a good literary and musical program will be rendered. Every body cordially invited.

The Silver Republicans of Prospect precinct are requested to meet at East Salem schoolhouse Wednesday evening February 9, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of effecting an organization.

FALSE ALARM.—About 10 o'clock Sunday morning the fire department was called out by reason of a burning fire in the residence occupied by Prof. and Mrs. L. G. Cochran, on State street. No work was necessary upon the part of the fire boys, for all danger from the threatening flames was over upon their arrival.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventative of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. Stone's Drug Store.
