

OREGON PIONEERS DEAD.

Judge J. C. Peebles and Lyman Savage Pass on Beyond—Other Deaths.

Friday at 3 p. m. at the family home southeast of this city, Hon. John Peebles, a pioneer citizen of this county, passed away.

For months past Mr. Peebles had been afflicted with a cough, his final illness dating from last Tuesday only.

His family, his friends and the community lose much in the demise of this estimable citizen, who for close upon half a century has been known in Oregon as all that a man could be in these several relations.

He was a native of Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, having been borne there on January 23, 1826, thus making him 72 years and 18 days of age.

As a lad of 12 years he moved with his parents to Elkhart county, Indiana, and twelve years later (or in 1850) turned his face westward with Oregon as the goal of his ambition.

He arrived in Oregon City on October 7 of that year, remaining there until March, 1851, when he removed to Marion county, settling upon his donation land claim, upon which the town of Fairfield was subsequently located.

Two years later Mr. Peebles entered public as assis'tant clerk of the Oregon house of representatives, and in 1853 was elected a member of that body, serving with such colleagues as Hon. L. F. Grover and Hon. E. F. Colby.

Mr. Peebles was an active member of the constitutional convention of 1857, being chairman of the committee on education. In 1860 he was elected by the legislature as librarian of the state, serving the legislature that thus honored him, as chief clerk of the senate.

In 1862 he was elected county judge of Marion county, being re-elected in 1866 and again in 1874, serving his county for twelve years.

Judge Peebles was a prominent factor in the organization of the Oregon democracy and remained with that party until the inception of the civil war, when he cast his influence in favor of Abraham Lincoln and circulated the first petition for signatures calling for a national meeting in the city of Salem.

From that day until all ties were severed in death, he was a devoted Republican, being twice honored with the chairmanship of that party's state conventions, in 1878 and 1880.

Mr. Peebles at one time read law but in deference to the stronger taste he entertained for agriculture, which he has followed successfully on his home-farm near this city.

In 1851 he was married to Miss E. J. Mark, of Clackamas county, and to this happy union, four children were born, namely: George A., superintendent of schools in this city; John, now a resident of Burns; Mrs. Grace Agnew, of Idaho; and Mrs. William Clark, who dwells near the old family home in this county. These with the stricken widow, mourn the death of a father in whom their love and pride were firmly centered.

Funeral services will occur Sunday at 1 o'clock at the home, Rev. Geo. W. Grannis, of the First M. E. church, officiating, interment to be in Rural cemetery, south of this city.

The procession will pass the Park school house at about 2:30 and reach the cemetery, via the blind school, about 3 p. m.

LYMAN A. SAVAGE. Lyman Austin Savage died at 6:35 o'clock Friday evening, at his home on Asylum avenue, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets.

Mr. Savage's death was quite sudden, his ordinary health for years having been excellent.

He was conscious throughout his illness and up to his last hour. On Thursday he sent for lawyers and made formal disposal of his affairs; and while anticipating death, was buoyant with the hope that he would live longer than he did.

Mr. Savage was a pioneer of Oregon and of Marion county of fifty-three years' standing having crossed the plains as a boy in 1845 with his father's family. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Towner Savage, whose original homestead in the Webfoot state was on "Salem prairie," just north of this city, where decedent and his brothers, John, Lewis, M. R., and O. G. Savage, and his sister Mrs. Europa Edwards, (of Walla Walla, Washington) were all raised to manhood womanhood.

Lyman A. Savage was a successful agriculturist, having secured a competency by application and fair-dealing. His name has been respected his character admired and his friendship valued. He was a devoted husband and father. His family consists of his widow (see Miss Teresa Keene, to whom he was married just twenty years ago, his first wife, a Miss Matilda Stewart having died several years prior) one son, Elmer N., a young farmer, of Gervais, and a daughter, Miss Grace Savage.

Decedent was 62 years old, born in Kalamazoo county, Michigan on December 31, 1835.

Funeral will be conducted at the family home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. C. B. Bacon, of the First Baptist church officiating, assisted by Rev. G. W. Grannis, of the First M. E. church. Interment will take place at Rural cemetery.

OTHER DEATHS. LONG.—At the home in North Salem, at 3 p. m. Friday, February 11, 1898, Mrs. W. A. Long, aged 20 years, of stomach trouble.

Funeral services were held today from the home of Joseph Fortier, on Summer street.

LOOSE.—On Friday, February 11, 1898, at the home on the Wallace road in Polk county, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loose, aged 4 days.

DENHAM.—At the family residence on Nineteenth street, between Bellevue and Oak, at 11:30 p. m. Friday, February 11, 1898, of paralysis, Salliah H. Denham, aged 65 years.

Deceased was the wife of Thomas Denham, the well-known carpenter and contractor, and sister of Mrs. Emma Penton, both of Salem. Her maiden name was Shout and she was born in Lexington, Ky. Her father was a pastor of the Christian denomination, to which she also belonged, having become a member of the church at Seattle, while residing there a few years ago. Twenty-five years ago she became the wife of Mr. Denham and in 1876 they came to Salem, which has been their home city most of the time since.

She was the aunt of R. L. and Harry J. Penton, the bill-posters and expressmen here for some time.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS. Evangelist Potter Leaves the City.—Mr. Miller Will Remain.

By reason of the inclement weather the attendance at the union evangelistic service at the Methodist church Friday evening was not as large as usual but what was lacking in numbers was more than made up in interest.

The singing by Mr. Miller, so expressively given, had a noticeable effect upon the audience. The music by the large choir served better than ever.

Evangelist Potter spoke eloquently on "The Last Judgment" and many went forward to the altar. The meeting continued until a late hour and was attended by splendid results.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter, accompanied by the evangelist's brother, S. W. Potter, via steamer Altona this morning for the home of the latter at Bay City, Tillamook county, for a short visit and recreation.

Salemites will be glad to know, however, that Mr. Miller, the singing evangelist, has decided to remain in Salem for a short season.

No services, however, were held this afternoon nor will there be any held this evening, but Sunday afternoon a rousing men's meeting is to be held in the First Presbyterian church and again in the evening services will be resumed at the Methodist church.

The man who lies wounded on the battlefield is an object of pity. The first thought of a tender-hearted comrade is to offer succor and sympathy. There are many wounded men and women on the battle-field of life. Shattered in body and mind, and suffering tortures before which the brief suffering of the wounded hero on the battle-field of war, pales into insignificance. They make no outcry and their friends and acquaintances pass them by without offering help. Their sufferings are known only to themselves. These are the thousands of sufferers from ill-health. Their name is legion.

The pity of it is that if they but knew it there is relief at hand.

Bottled Up!

Whether in the form of pill powder or liquid, the doctor's prescription for blood diseases is always the same—mercury or potash. These drugs bottle up the poison and dry it up in the system, but they also dry up the marrow in the bones at the same time.

The suppleness and elasticity of the joints give way to a stiffness, the forming pains of rheumatism. The form gradually bends, the bones ache, while decrepitude and helplessness prematurely take possession of the body, and it is but a short step to a pair of crutches. Then comes falling of the hair and decay of the bones—a condition truly horrible.

Contagious Blood Poison—the curse of mankind—is the most horrible of all diseases, and has always baffled the doctors. Their potash and mercury bottles up the poison, but it always breaks forth again attacking some delicate organ, frequently the mouth and throat, filling them with eating sores. S.S.S. is the only known cure for this disease. It is guaranteed purely vegetable, and one thousand dollars reward is offered for proof to the contrary. It never fails to cure Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Cancer, or any other disease of the blood. If you have a blood disease, take a remedy which will not injure you. Beware of mercury; don't do violence to your system. Don't get bottled up!
