WOMEN MAY VOTE.

Supreme Court Decides the School Election Case.

A VERY SWEEPING OPINION.

Judge Burnett's Old Ruling Is Reversed.

The suit of Laura A. Harris vs Sherwood Burr et al, appeal from Lane, opinion by Wolverson J. was affirmed by the supreme court today. The sole question presented in this suit whether women are entitled to vote at a meeting for election of a school director of the district in which the meeting is held. Plaintiff was awarded damages by Judge Fullerton for having been denied the privilege of voting. Appeal was taken and now the supreme court upholds the lower court, and women entitled to vote under the law of 1891 can collect damages if refused the right.

The law upheld defines the rights of voters at school meetings as follows: Twenty-one years of age, resident of the district one month preceding election, and who has paid a tax other than road tax in the county; women who are widows, and have children and taxable property in the district, may vote if they choose.

The decision is a sweeping one and completely overrules the opinion held by Judge Burnett at Salem, under which women have been shut out of school elections.

The only question now seems to be the property qualifications of judges of elections, as any woman qualified to vote who is refused the right may sustain a suit for damages against the judges of the election.

The news was telegraphed to Eugene and there will be a celebration by the ladies of that city. The result will be gratifying to those at Salem who have contended for the right of women to vote at school elections.

HON. M'KINLEY MITCHELL.

Republican Legislator Who Favors the Teller Resolution.

Hon. McKinley Mitchell of Gervais was in town today and expressed himself as strongly opposed to the Gage policy of retiring the greenbacks, or going one hairs breadth beyond the St. Louis platform.

Mr. Mitchell said to a JOURNAL reporter: "I believe the Teller resolution is right in principle and sound as law, to wit: that all bonds issued prior to the Cleveland bonds are payable in coin and that coin means either gold or silver.

"The policy of putting nearly a thousand millions of our present national currency onto a gold basis I am opposed to."

Asked if he was a candidate for re-nomination at the hands of the Republicans of Marion county, he said he did not seek the honor, but if he accepted a nomination it would not be as a Mitchell man or a Corbett man. "If I run it will be as a candidate without any strings or factional attachments. I would go in to serve the whole party and the people or not at all."

Mr. U'Ren rests his political hopes on discord and division among the Populists. They may fool him.

G. A. Ehlen, Butteville.

T. T. Shaw, Howell.

R. S. Rutherford.

C. A. Bellenger, Salem.

David Brodie, Garfield.

Of the seven jurymen six are farmers, C. A. Bellenger, of Salem, being a merchant.

R. S. Rutherford was appointed foreman of the grand jury and T. B. Patton was named as bailiff of that body.

The action for money case, of J. R. Jackson vs Henry and John S. Talbot is on trial this afternoon. Plaintiff seeks to recover $250 alleged to be due for land rent.

DIED.

GEISY.—At the home of his mother, Mrs. Barbara Geisy, 196 State street corner of Church street, at 11:30 a. m. Monday, February 14, 1898, H. E. Geisy, aged 43 years, 8 months 9 days, of laryngitis.

GREGOIRE.—At the Salem hospital, Saturday, February 12, 1898, Mrs. Victoria Gregoire, aged 76 years, of cancer of the stomach.

Deceased was a native of Montreal, Canada, and has been a resident of Marion county since early in the 40's. For two and half years the deceased has resided in this city, making her home with her son J. D. Gregoire, who is chapel guard at the penitentiary. Mrs. J. W. Du Rette, of this city is also a daughter of the deceased.

The remains were taken to St. Louis, near Gervais, this morning, where funeral services were held in the Catholic church and the remains were interred in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned wish to extend their thanks to the friends who assisted in the late bereavement of our mother, Mrs. Gregoire.

A VALENTINE WEDDING.

Isidor Greenbaum and Miss Eva Adolph United in Marriage.

The wedding nuptials of Miss Eva Adolph to Mr. Isidor Greenbaum, both of this city, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's mother in this city, today, at high noon, Rabbi Levin, of Portland, officiating.

The ceremony was performed in an impressive manner after the ritual of the Jewish church in the presence of the family. Mr. and Mrs. S. Friedman, with whom the groom has always made his home, acted as first gentleman and lady on this important occasion. Mr. Greenbaum's parents residing in England.

The ceremony in the Hebrew, was translated into English, and was very impressive and followed by some wise words of admonition to the newly made man and wife. Mrs. Adolph gave away the bride, who is her oldest daughter. Miss Eva was attired in a charming dark green travelling suit trimmed with lace, and wearing a beautiful coiffure of orange blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Greenbaum are well known to all Salemites, the bride being a native of the Capital City, and the groom having lived here since he was 19 years old. They are a well matched couple. All sat down to a rich wedding dinner and afterwards took the Southern Pacific train for Portland. They will return in a few days to make their future home in Salem.

THEY WILL BE MARRIED.

Frank Gunnison and Nina McIlwain Secure a Marriage License.

Nina McIlwain, the pretty young girl of 20 summers, who on Thursday last departed for her home, and her youthful lover Frank Gunnison are to be married.

County Clerk L. V. Ehlen today issued a marriage license to the two young people. F. J. Rice, brother-in-law of young Gunnison, and administrator of the Gunnison estate witnessed the issuance of the license.

The prospective husband today wrote his guardian, Deputy Sheriff James Ross, at Toledo, asking permission to assume consensual relations with the girl. If a favorable answer is received the ceremony will be performed.

The young people expect after their marriage to go to the home of the bride's parents about six miles north of Enger where they will engage in honorable employment and make at honest living.

DROWNED.

Father and Child Drowned at Woodville, Or.

Special to the Journal.

WOODVILLE, Or., Feb. 14.—Yesterday, while O. P. Randall, wife and daughter were on their way to a funeral, driving onto the ferry their horse became frightened and started ageable backed off of the boat into the river. Mrs. Randall jumped out of the buggy in time to save herself, but Mr. Randall and little daughter went into the river and were drawn under. Mr. Randall had a heavy overcoat which turned up over his head making it impossible for him to swim. The condition were such that it was impossible to render Mr. Randall any assistance. When last seen he held the little girl in his arms. The wife and mother is grief stricken at the sight of seeing her husband and child swept away before her very eyes. The mother is insane with grief after the catastrophe. Mr. Randall is a relative of Mrs. Alice Etter of this city.

Dr. Copeland on Salvation.

Unity Church was filled last evening to hear Dr. Copeland give the Unitarian idea of salvation. His text was "What Shall I do to be Saved?" He said there had been many answers to this question. To properly answer it a correct idea of Salvation should be given. Salvation was too often defined as an escape from hell. It was not an escape from anywhere, but a cleansing. From the fancied hell preached about in the orthodox churches we need no escape. God will protect a child in no person—no human being to dwell in such a place. The scriptures are mistranslated and thus interpreted. Hell and Heaven are both within the person. Live the higher—better—nobler life—live the life that Christ describes—love your neighbor—help the sick and poor and the afflicted—and you are in Heaven. "Believe in the Lord Jesus?" Yes. But how? Believe in his teachings and practice them. He was tempted. He was like you and me only he had that divine spirit cultivated to perfection. That divine spirit is in every human being—more cultivated in some than in others—can be developed and made perfect in us all.

What shall I do to be saved? Do your nearest duty—then the next—then the next; make your life a constant sacrifice to good; love your neighbor as yourself; speak well of others, tolerate difference of opinion. Thus will you be saved for you will be in Heaven. As a preface to his evening sermon Dr. Copeland spoke briefly of Abraham Lincoln's religion.

A CLEVER ENTERTAINER.—Arthur Redwood, the king of Humorist, will appear at Reed's opera house Friday night in his original entertainment entitled "Stray Leaves." The Ontario Times says the entertainment given by Mr. Redwood last night fully deserved the large attendance. The best of monologues are usually monotonous, but not in this case. Mr. Redwood makes the time fly, his "Drawing room sketch" and "The people we meet" were very well portrayed. Very few entertainers can keep in rows of laughter as did Mr. Redwood. Seats are now on sale at popular prices.

"I smell some big financial transactions in this school district, and I want on the school board." Geo. G. Bingham.

By all means! let us put the collar of a boss on this school district.

There have been several assignments in Salem lately. Business has been poor in the capital city ever since the legislature failed to organize and make the customary appropriations of a regular session. State money is very advantageous to Salem; without it that town would dwindle to the size of Albany or Eugene, or even smaller.—Pendleton E. O.

We always told the people of Newport, McBride was no slouch at getting an appropriation. He has proved it. Now let's have the Willamette improved.

A Salem grocer advertised twenty-four bars of soap for 25c. In Saturday's JOURNAL, it was a mistake as that many for a dollar is a big thing. It looked as if he wanted to get rid of the last vestiges of the Democratic party.

Saturday's JOURNAL was a spring crocus, sure.

There are no controversies or discords in the Republican party except over the spoils. Shall the plunder go to the gold Republicans or the hermaphrodite Mitchellites? The administration seems to favor the bisexual.

Lord and Kincaid will wish they had given the Republicans more of a new deal, when they find most of the McBride retinue busy carrying this county against them at the primaries.
