TWO SENTENCES PRONOUNCED.

The Damage Suit of Dose vs. Toose Concluded Today.
At 9 a. m. today Alphonso Pettijean was sentenced to one year's imprisonment by Judge Geo. H. Burnett, having been convicted of larceny from a dwelling.

The Dose-Toose case was concluded sooner than was expected. Of the 45 witnesses subpoenaed by the plaintiff, but thirteen were allowed to give testimony, on the grounds that the testimony of each witness was practically the same as that of the preceding witness. All testimony was introduced prior to adjournment at 5 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. At 9 o'clock this morning the closing arguments by the respective counsel began. These speeches consumed the entire forenoon. At 1 o'clock this afternoon, Judge Burnett delivered the usual instructions to the jury and that body retired to determine upon a verdict.

Attorney Wm. Kaiser of this city, and Attorneys J. C. Johnson, and F. G. Eby, of Woodburn, as counsel for the plaintiff made vigorous fight as did also Messrs. Geo. G. Bingham and J. A. Carson of this city and E. P. Morcom, of Woodburn, as counsel for Mr. Toose. The case was warmly contested.

Edward Cotty, indicted as A. Batson, the 17-year-old youth who pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery, was this afternoon sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Before sentence was pronounced the youth arose and stated that at the time he committed the crime he did not fully realize what the offense meant. He expressed the minimum sentence upon the youth and expressed a hope that when his term had expired the young man would make a man of himself and engage in an honorable business.

Resolutions Adopted.
At a meeting of Olive Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., at its hall in the Holman building, Saturday night, resolutions expressing the appreciation of the services of Messrs. W. J. Culyer, H. P. Minto, Jos. Cavanaugh, James A. Mothorn, and S. N. Eye and bespeaking for them success in their perilous journey, were unanimously passed. The resolutions were as follows:
"Whereas, Brothers W. J. Culyer and H. P. Minto are about to depart, and Brothers S. N. Eye, Jos. H. Cavanaugh and J. A. Mothorn have already departed from our midst to seek their fortunes in the frozen North, and
"Whereas, The said brothers have been faithful and conscientious Odd Fellows and loyal and valued members of Olive Lodge, No. 18, and
"Resolved, The efforts of the said brothers to promote the interests of our lodge, and the order in general, have been fully appreciated by this lodge; therefore be it
"Resolved, That this lodge extend to the above named brothers its hearty appreciation of their efforts to promote the interests of our Fellowship in our midst, and be it further,
"Resolved, That this lodge unite with the many friends of the above named brothers in wishing them success in the hazardous venture they are about to undertake, and a safe and speedy return."

MISS MATTIE McNARY IS DEAD.

After Several Weeks Illness She Succumbs to Nervous Prostration.
At 9:45 a. m. today, after several weeks protracted illness, Miss Mattie McNary, a native Salemite, died at the family home, No. 555 Commercial street.

Miss McNary for several years has been employed in the Salem public schools in which vocation she has won an enviable reputation as a successful educational worker.
The deceased was a faithful and consistent member of the First Baptist church and was an exemplary Christian. She had a lovable character and a sweet and agreeable disposition.
She leaves two brothers, John H. and Charles, and three sisters, Mrs. Thos. Bruce, Mrs. Walter Stolz, and Miss Nina McNary.

Funeral services will be conducted from the First Baptist church at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Rev. C. B. Bacon, officiating. The remains will be interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

To Another Field of Labor.
Rev. J. M. Beauchamp, for the past year, pastor of the Central Congregational church, has been called to another field of labor.

The following poetry is from the pen of Mrs. Mae Van Patten, treasurer of the Central Congregational church:

To our Pastor J. M. Beauchamp, who has been called to another field of labor.
Thou hast been summoned, to another field,
And we must say farewell
Though much we'll miss you, yet we must yield,
For all God's work is well.

We shall miss you in our singing,
We shall miss you, all along,
Though we must give up the singer,
We shall not forget his songs.

Yet we know the Master calls thee,
Oft our thoughts will turn to thee
And our prayers will wait thee onward,
O'er life's rough tempestuous sea.

Thou has been a faithful servant,
Bringing messages of truths divine,
And may heaven's choicest blessings
Ever rest on thee and thine.
