NONDAY, MARCH 21, 1898

EDITORIAL.

Two years next April congress almost unanimously recognized the Cubans as belligerents. President Cleveland was ordered to use his kindly offices to secure the independence of Cuba. The old unamerican despot ignored the action of congress and so prevented Cuba gaining her freedom.

Lane county has made a good start for a complete and harmonious Union of the Silver forces. There are no bickerings, personal jealousies or dissatisfaction. That county gave Bryan nearly 400 majority and the Silver sentiment is stronger now than then. The Eugene Guard and the Cottage Grove-Lemati papers have been doing noble work for the Union cause.

The Silver Republicans are going to the state conventions to ask for nothing but Union and harmony upon principle. If any offices are allotted to them they will fill them with the very best men in the organization. If they have the office of secretary of state allotted to them they will undoubtedly ask that Harrison R. Kincaid, the present incumbent, be continued.

Judge R. P. Boise, of Salem, will not be a candidate for governor. He says a candidate for that office would have to go over the state and make a canvass, and it would cost him at least $500 and he cannot afford it. He would take a nomination for circuit judge if one of those offices is conceded to the People's party. There are four offices in this judicial district—two judges, district attorney and member of the state board of equalization. In the conference for this district the Silver Republicans may claim one place. The Democrats will certainly claim one judge. It is going to be a very delicate matter to arrange this just right, and THE JOURNAL has not seen fit to push the claims of any candidate, because to do so would make a harmonious arrangement almost impossible. In this case of seeking an Union of three conventions personality leads to confusion, while principle leads to harmony.

MR. HAWLEY'S DEFENCE.

THE JOURNAL prints President Hawley's defence of himself in a Eugene paper. We desire to do the gentleman the utmost possible justice, but must still insist that he produced absolutely nothing new in all the histories he read, or nothing to justify his denunciations of John Brown at Eugene. The Roseburg Plaindealer, a loyal Republican paper says editorially:

"The Eugene Register gives an editorial report of a lecture, said to have been delivered in that city lately by W. C. Hawley, president of the Willamette university, on John Brown, in which the speaker classed John Brown with Wilkes Booth, Charles J. Guiteau, Benedict Arnold and Judas Iscariot, and branded him as a cut throat, murderer, liar and traitor.

"Now if this man Hawley is correctly quoted, and we hope for the good name of the state and its university that he is not, his proper field is Texas. They would appreciate such sentiments as these in that state and he could command his own salary as a teacher in her schools. There have been more monuments erected to commemorate the memory of John Brown of Ossawatamie, than Hawley will have friends in Oregon after delivering such a lecture, and the memory of John Brown as a hero and martyr to the cause of human freedom, will live for a thousand years after the memory of Hawley has perished from the earth."

The above is a slander on Texas, as confederate veterans united with Union army veterans at Los Angeles the other day in doing honor to the name and memory of John Brown.

THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS.

THE JOURNAL believes it is the moral duty of our country to help Cuba get her freedom.

Rev. Stephen A. Northrop of the First Baptist church in Kansas City, Mo., in a prelude to his sermon expressed our sentiments. He said: "I cannot help but feel that war is inevitable. But humanity is a larger word than America. These dogs of war ought to be driven back to their kennels, not merely because of this Maine disaster, but because of liberty-loving, body-starving Cuba. Is it not about time Uncle Sam clutched the throat of Spain and bid her hands off? Think of it my people. We have allowed this country of hateful name to starve 500,000 men women and children right at our very doors. I am amazed that the civilized and christianized nations of the world have not offered to help her before this. The time has surely come when the United States must not keep silent."

MR. SEARS EXPLAINS.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I have met Mr. W. B. Davis who feels injured by my mention of his name in my report of the Populist convention.

All the statements that I made are technically correct and I mentioned them to explain Dr. Embree's earnestness in fencing against apprehension of outside influences in the convention. Now, Mr. Davis assures me that he is a Populist, as is Mr. Burns also, and hence both would have been admitted to seats in the convention under my motion. I have no disposition to reflect upon the motives of either of these gentlemen to their injury, and when Mr. Davis assures me that they acted entirely upon their own motion freely, I must accept the statement. I have had dealings with Mr. Davis for several years and always found him honorable and fair in his business matters and I must accept his statement that his political action is from honest motives likewise. Within the Populist Party there are many both for and against fusion of equal honesty and patriotism all looking to the best and surest course to the success of the same principles.

JAMES K. SEARS.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

The success of the Union or any other state ticket depends very much upon the character of the candidates.

The fathers of the People's party do not propose to let their offspring get out of their hands, and they are right.

By all means, let us have a middle-of-the-road Populist, Debs-social-Democracy state ticket. It can't hurt Union.

The Western Oregon district wants a congressman who can do something for Yaquina Bay and our coast harbors, no matter what party he's from.

That distinguished organization known as the Illihee club is not represented on the Union ticket. Never, mind boys; we'll get some of you onto the Republican ticket.

The state conventions at Portland this week can't do better work than was done by the three Marion county conventions. The state platform can be an improvement on the Marion county platform, but not much.

The local fire department is frequently called out by false alarms but seldom is it summoned to extinguish an incipient blaze that had its origin as a result of the experiment of a learned, local professor in chemistry.

Politics runs in pairs this year. It looks as if two judiciary candidates would come from Salem; two sheriff candidates from the state board of agriculture and two gubernatorial candidates from Macleay.

Bingham and Davis sign the Republican county convention call, and still the Statesman points its finger at respectable men on the fusion ticket. It should remember how its bosses were endorsed last Monday—by one to four.

During the three conventions ratification meeting the gallerys at the opera house were filled with gold Republicans taking notes on the methods of the people—an idea entirely new to the old-timers, especially the official class.

A timely remark from The Dalles Chronicle, a Republican paper: "Candidates for the legislature this year should be chosen with particular caution. There should be no room for men of the Brownell type. To be a member of the legislative assembly is an ambition worthy any honorable citizen; but it isn't every voter who is fit for the position."

* * *

Boss Bingham went about telling his friends that THE JOURNAL'S attacks were giving him a much larger vote than he would otherwise have had. If that is true how many votes would he otherwise have had for school director of Salem district No. 24?

The railroad commission suit of Wagner vs. Compson seems to hang on unnecessarily in the supreme court. If it could be decided at once, it would settle the legal status of a great many boards and commissions and turn a great deal of money loose that is now locked up in the state treasury.

* * *

Who can deny to John C. Young the right to re-organize the People's party and construct one to his own liking? Because he favored Union of forces in the Bryan campaign and formed a Union of Democrats, Populists and Silver Republicans to hold up the last legislature and defeat John H. Mitchell, is no sign he shall be for Union forever. Wise men change their minds; fools never. But then, we can't help thinking John should have gone Union the third time as well as twice, and are sorry he hasn't.

The Republican of Baker City says there were 75 straight Populists, the Democrat says there were 17 at John C. Young's middle-of-the-road Peoples party convention. One of the local reports says. There was a frosty farce enacted in the so-called mass meeting of the middle-of-the-road Populists at Woodmen's hall. In fact, all were unceremoniously given the grand oriental bounce from the hall excepting only the dozen or so anti-pie eaters who would probably trot along in the exact center of the political road, even should there arise a regular popular cyclone to urge all citizens, who are not deaf, dumb and blind, to unite in a common battle to maintain the rights of all the people against selfishness and greed enthroned in high places.

Consumption

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.

A Stockraiser's Reply.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I see by the Statesman the editor of that paper is inclined to ridicule and belittle the Union ticket, because its personnel is not high-toned enough to suit his aristocratic notions. The Statesman refers to George W. Dimick as the "bull man," because he raises good cattle and is engaged in the common work of the farm. The editor seems to think that stockraisers, who take care of bulls and pigs—should stay at home, and take care of their bulls and pigs and not presume to run for office, and seek to associate with such bejewelled and silk-stockinged people as the editor of the Statesman.

Silver Republican Congressional Convention.

To the Silver Republicans of Oregon,—Gentlemen: We your executive committee of the central committee of the Silver Republican party of Oregon, after carefully considering the matter of congressional conventions, have decided that both conventions should be held at the same time and place as the state convention and that the same delegates constitute the district conventions. Therefore, we hereby call congressional convention of both districts of Oregon to convene in the city of Portland, Oregon, on March 23, 1898, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress in each district. The basis for representation for delegates will be the same as to the state convention and all delegates from the first congressional district to the state convention will constitute the convention for the first district and all the delegates from the second congressional district to the state convention will constitute the convention for the second district. County conventions will take notice and instruct their delegates accordingly. By order of the executive committee.

THE UNION PLATFORM.

Following was submitted by the joint committee on platform and unanimously adopted by all three conventions:

"Gentlemen of the Convention: Your joint committee on platform beg leave to report that they have reached an unanimous agreement on a declaration of principles on the basis of three fundamental propositions, to-wit:

"1. Financial reform.
"2. Direct legislation.
"3. Reduction in expenditures.

"We recommend that you give these declarations your careful consideration, and that they be adopted by each convention.

"We recommend that each convention select its very best men for candidates and delegates to the state convention to carry these principles into effect.

"We recommend that the nominees of the several conventions be endorsed by each of the conventions and that every nominee be pledged in writing to support both personally and officially all the demands of the Union platform.

DECLARATIONS.

"1. To protect the government intended by the fathers and for the welfare and prosperity of this and the future generations, we demand the establishment of an economic and financial system which shall make us masters of our own affairs and independent of European control by the adoption of the following declaration of principles:

"2. We demand a national money, safe and sound, issued by the general government only, without the intervention of banks of issue, to be full tender for all debt, public and private; a just equitable and efficient means of distribution direct to the people and through the lawful disbursements of the government.

"3. We demand the free and unrestricted coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of foreign nations.

"4. We demand the volume of circulating medium be speedily increased to an amount sufficient to meet demands of the business and population of this country and to restore the just level of prices of labor and production.

"5. We denounce the sale of bonds and the increase of the public interest bearing debt made by the late administration as unnecessary and without authority of law and that no more bonds be issued except by specific act of congress. We demand such legislation as will prevent the demonetization of the lawful money of the United States by private contract.

"6 We demand that the government in payment of its obligations shall use its option as to the kind of lawful money in which they are to be paid, and we denounce the present and preceding administrations for surrendering this option to the holders of government obligations.

"7. We demand such changes in our constitution as will grant to the people the right to direct self-government through the initiative, the referendum and the imperative mandate.

"8. That we pledge a reduction in the salaries of Marion county officials from the total of about $22,500 per annum to about $13,500, or a net reduction of at least $9,000 per annum and pledge our candidates for the legislature to use their best endeavors to secure those reduced salaries.

"9. We demand that all fees collected by public officials be paid into the public treasury.

"10. We demand that the state officials receive their constitutional salaries only.
