Mrs. H. S. Bean returned today from a short visit in Portland.

The Janet Waldorf company are coming to Salem on a night next week.

Mrs. H. A. Dearborn has returned from an extended visit with Portland relatives.

Mrs. S. M. Stock returned Friday evening from a week's visit very pleasantly spent with Portland friends.

The South Salem Reading Circle, better known as the Gelton club, concludes its second year's work this evening with a lecture at Leslie church by Hon. J. H. Fletcher. Admission 10c, for benefit of public school library.

An April day party was given Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoyer, Lincoln Park, in honor of about twenty school friends of their oldest son, Mac. An evening's program of pure enjoyment, aided by refreshments, was carried out from 7 to 10 p. m.

There was a marked interest and an increased attendance this afternoon at Mrs. Eta Willman's afternoon class practice. As usual, the musical program was furnished by the pupils. Subject of reading, "Learning New Pieces." A letter from C. H. Scott (founder and president of Interstate system) was read to the class.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of the First Christian church, gave an "April Fool Social" at the residence of S. T. Riggs, corner of Center and Summer streets, Friday evening. A program consisting of musical and literary numbers was rendered, interspersed with appropriate jokes and practical fun. When the program had been rendered, numerous pastimes incident to the first day of April were indulged in to the endless delight of the perpetrators thereof and the temporary embarrassment of those who were fooled thereby.

The banquet tendered the graduating class of the Medical College of Willamette University Wednesday evening by the faculty of that department, was one of the most elaborate and highly successful affairs ever given in this city. At the conclusion of the exercises in the church the members of the faculty and young graduates repaired to Strong's banquet rooms in the Eldridge block where several hours were most happily passed.

When the substantial feast of the evening had been partaken of the assembly was treated to a rare intellectual feast in the way of toasts. Chief Justice F. A. Moore served the occasion as toastmaster and proposed the following toasts: "Law and Medicine," Gov. W. P. Lord; "Willamette Medical College," Dr. W. H. Byrd; "Idiocy," Dr. W. T. Williamson; "The Ladies," Dr. C. H. Hall; "Class of 1897," Dr. E. D. Johnson; "The Country Practitioner," Dr. Anderson, of Wauwassig, Wis.; "Public Schools," Hon. G. M. Irwin.

The affair was most ably engineered by a committee from the medical faculty and was a decided success, forming a happy final to the years hard work just closed.

AN AFTERNOON Of the good old-fashioned sort was given at the home of Mrs. E. E. Waters on Summer street Thursday in honor of Mrs. H. K. McCully, who has

The reception was graced by the presence of about forty-five ladies, mostly old friends of the family and the honored guest. The music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Ella McDowell, who sang, and Mrs. Etta Willman and Fred Waters. Refreshments were served and added to the pleasure of the down-right hard visiting that was indulged on this rare occasion.

W. C. Brann Dead.

April 1, at Wasco, Texas, Brann, editor of the Iconoclast, was shot and killed in a bloody encounter with a man he had a controversy with. It is an illustration of the scriptural truth, that he who resorts to violence will perish by violence.

FROM DYE—A letter received in this city today from Albert M. Grilley contains some very interesting news. Mr. M. Grilley writes from Dye and reports the weather exceptionally mild. He says he has not yet worn any of his Klodike outfit, feeling comfortable with the same clothing he wore in Oregon. The snow has begun to melt making it a difficult and hazardous trip over the trail. Albert has been offered a position with a transportation company of Dye at $5 per day and board or $7 per day and board himself. He is seriously considering accepting the offer. Russell Coleman, also of this city, is employed by the same company and is receiving the same wages offered Mr. M. Grilley.

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

Go to church tomorrow and pray for clean politics.

Walter Toole is still the uncrowned king of the Woodburn Republican ring.

Governor Lord should go into the grocery business if he wants to carry Salem primaries.

No man on the Union ticket will get Senator Patterson or any other senator to introduce a bill to raise his salary.

"We are tired of putting men in office and then having some one else run them."—Just a common plug taxpayer.

"We've been harvesting jackasses long enough," is the way Major Hunt puts it, in speaking of the great Geer victory.

"What do we care for governorship. It's deputy assessor and road supervisor we are after."—Hosts of Republican patriots.

The late war scare has at least developed the fact that there is loyalty and patriotism even among the anarchists in congress.

How does Bro. Granis justify his organizing the Probi party and his going to the primary and voting a "push" ticket?

Bobby Bura's "Coming Through the Rye," is now paraphrased: "Every lassie has her wheelite." And it appears the laddies are not in it.

Is the Republican party of Clackamas so weak and in need of assistance that it must nominate gold standard Democrats for office?—Clackamas Independent.

Zoologists say that all known species of wild animals are gradually diminishing in size. All except the campaign liar. He is just as "wild" and as "big" as he ever was.—East Oregonian.

Governor Fletcher is to lecture at South Salem church tonight. There have been some passages at arms between us and Fletcher but we shall do our best this evening to protect him from bodily harm.

Bro. Granis believes in organizing the Probi party and keeping the ticket in the field, but as for him he is charged with having voted at the Republican primary. If this is true Bro. Granis has entered upon his annual career of political inconsistencies quite early.

How the Geer people can load up with a dead weight in politics like that two-bit photographer and A. P. A. hoodoo, Bill Cherrington, passes understanding. As Roscoe Conkling once said, a man should pray to be delivered from his fool friends.

If Geer wants to know just how much good Bill Cherrington can do him in his campaign for governor he should consult George Grab Bingham, the two-bit photographer's late candidate for school director. But then Bill can't hurt Geer as much as he did Bingham because Geer is not so easily hurt.

Col. Hofer, of THE JOURNAL, is casting reflections on our good looks. Why we have aroused his jealousy to the pitch of calling us hoarsely, is beyond our comprehension. If unwittingly we attract the attention of the Colonel's lady admirers, we beg pardon, inasmuch as that never has been our strong forte. But if on the other hand, the Colonel thinks to make us famous by that application we shall try and bear it. Now Colonel, cease your jealous fears; you are pre-eminently the ladies' man and we have no wish to interfere with your well merited position.—Cottage Grove Messenger.

A little boy asked for a bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can," the drug store recognized the household name for "Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers," and gave him a bottle of these little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles. Stone's drug store.

Thousands of sufferers from grippe have been restored to health by the famous "Cough Cure." It quickly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, and all throat and lung diseases. Stone's drug store.

M. L. Yocum, Cameron, Pa., says "I was a sufferer for ten years trying all kinds of pills remedies, but without success. Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure." As a permanent cure for piles Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. Stone's drug store.
