Oregon's Troops

Gov. Lord Goes to Portland On Military Business.

A Company of Oregon Sharpshooters to Be Raised at Salem.

Since Governor W. P. Lord was officially informed Monday afternoon by the war department at Washington that Oregon would be called upon to furnish her quota of troops under call for 125,000, the war situation has become of more interest locally. "Have you enlisted?" is the interrogation with which one is accosted on all sides. There are now 103 men enlisted in Companies B and I. O. N. G., in this city, and some splendid recruits are being added daily. The full roster of 120 men will soon be supplied.
Now that a formal call has been made for troops from Oregon, interest is intense. From the fact that Oregon's quota of troops will consist of 1200 men, it is quite probable it will take all of the regular National Guard of this state to answer the call.
It is very probable Companies B, and I of the national guard stationed at this city, will be numbered among the 1200. Governor Lord last night notified Adjutant General B. B. Tuttle of the call made by the war department on Oregon for troops, and notified him that he would be in Portland today. Until Gov. Lord's return nothing regarding the movements of the militia stationed at this city will be definitely assured, notwithstanding rumors to the contrary.
It may not be improper to state that Governor Lord got his first news of Portland being the place of rendezvous of the JOURNAL bulletin board last evening.

OREGON SHARPshootERS.
"Volunteers for the war are wanted and a battalion of mounted sharpshooters is going to be raised. The qualifications of this battalion will be as follows:
"Native born Americans, physically able to stand the campaign.
"Must be able to put two out of six bullets into a 3-inch diameter circle, 100 yards distant, off hand and to make a good string with the other four bullets.
"Must have killed deer, and been able to, under ordinary favorable circumstances, stop them off the run.
"Must be a good horseman.
"Must be able to do fairly good work with a Colt's six-shooter.
"Men not possessing all of the above mentioned qualifications need not apply.
"This call is addressed mainly to the Webfoot boys who have been raised on the farm and mountain ranches; to men whose eyes and hands have been trained to handle a rifle; who can shoot at a running deer without saving the "buck-ague." A battalion of such men can whip ten battalions of Spaniards.
"This battalion will tender its services with the stipulation that it is to be sent to the front, not given garrison duty.
"The battalion will elect its own officers. Address Lock box 96, Salem, Oregon.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION TONIGHT.
The Oregon National Guard, at Salem, is ordered to assemble at the armory tonight to pass a physical examination by the United States armory surgeon, ordered here from Portland.

Mandamus Suit

Appeal May Be Taken in Holt-Kincaid Case.

Middle-Roaders May Have to Carry Their Case to the Supreme Court.

The Holt-Kincaid mandamus suit may be appealed to the supreme court at once.

KINCAID OPPOSES IT.
Secretary Kincaid's attorneys are anxious to take an appeal. They believe that would tie up the suit until after election and shut the Middle-Roaders off the ticket. Mr. Kincaid however says this shall not be done. He agrees with Judge Boise that it would work injustice to keep the Middle-Roaders off the ticket in that way, and while it may cost him his election, he favors allowing the Holt bolting nominees to go on as they are certified to him.

MAY BE APPEALED.
W. H. Bilyeu, of Albany, wrote Secretary Kincaid and Judge R. P. Boise of Salem today that the lawyers for the state might appeal from the mandamus decision of Judge Hewitt. It may be carried to the supreme court and the proceedings may be begun to enjoin the secretary of state from printing the Middle-Roaders as the People's party ticket. The law don't allow but one Peoples party ticket and it is a farce to presume that the 16 bolting delegates, about one-tenth part of the People's party state convention, shall take precedence over the regular convention. It is a fraud on nine-tenths of the people.

HISTORY OF THE FACTS shows that this faction of the People's party really represent no party organization, represent no convention, represent nothing but the laboriousness and noble aspiration known as kickers on general principles. Knowing themselves defeated in a straight fight at the polls, confusion must be created, litigation must be started, results must be secured. Bro. Hill, Editor Fitch, and other great and interested friends of the people have time and means to do the prospecting.
The pleadings before Judge Hewitt show that the so-called Holt convention was never called by the Peoples party state central committee, was never held on the date that convention was called, that it had no power or authority to put up a ticket, and it is denied that the so-called Holt convention, or Bolt convention met or attempted to meet or organized or attempted to organize by the election of officers or at all on the 23rd day of March, 1898, or that any of the persons claiming to be members of said so-called Holt convention, met together in a pretended or any convention except as herein stated, or that they or any of them organized or attempted to organize said so-called Holt convention until the 25th day of March, 1898.

The pleadings further deny that the so-called Holt, or Bolt, convention was made up of delegates duly or regularly or at all selected by the various or any county conventions of the State of Oregon, and denies that any county conventions whether made up of delegates elected by primary elections or otherwise of the Peoples party or any party selected or elected or sent to said so-called Holt convention, any delegates at all, and denies that any of the persons who sat in or made up said so-called Holt convention were selected, or elected, or sent thereto by any county or other conventions however the same might have been composed of, or any party whatsoever.

They were simply 16 noble contesting delegates who were not seated in the regular convention. But that is enough for an exercise to hinge a mandamus proceedings on for partisan purposes and that is all Dr. Hill, J. K. Sears, and Judge Hewitt wanted.

THE 16 TO 1 BOLT.
The pleadings set it forth thus: That on said 25th day of March after the said S. H. Holt and the fifteen others aforesaid had bolted and walked out from the said regular convention, they and the said John C. Young, confederating with several others none of which others or said Young had been elected as delegates of said regular state convention, or to any state convention of said party, proceeded to another hall entirely separated and removed from the hall in which said regular convention was then holding its meeting, and pretended to organize themselves into a pretended state convention.

On said 25th day of March, 1898, the so-called Holt convention duly adjourned itself to reconvene in said city of Portland on the 14th day of April, 1898. That after it had so adjourned some of its pretended members left the said city of Portland and returned to their several homes. That thereafter and after said adjournment, and after said pretended members had so left the city and returned to their homes, certain others of the said pretended members of the so-called Holt convention in the absence of the pretended members who had gone to their homes as aforesaid, reassembled and proceeded to make their pretended nominations?

Was there a regular state convention of delegates as alleged in the sworn certificate of nomination? Kincaid denies the truth of it. That makes an issue. The undisputed facts set forth in the pleadings are that there was no convention. In spite of this, and without giving any reasons whatever, Hewitt holds not only that there was a convention but ignores the People's Party convention of 234 delegates and holds that the Holt-Bolt convention was the only real and legal state convention. Hewitt has become a 16 to 1 man for sure.

A PARTISAN DECREE was rendered by Judge H. H. Hewitt in the Holt-Kincaid mandamus suit. Judge Hewitt was going to get a large vote among the silver people who are a majority in this judicial district, but since his open coalition with the Middle-Roader faction Boise and D'Arcy will get a straight vote and Hewitt does not deserve the votes of Independent Republicans. A judge who will hold that 16 bolting delegates are the legally constituted state convention of the Peoples party may serve the ends of his party but he is wrenching the law terribly to do it.

WHAT IT MEANS is simply this: That the election is to be carried by deception and fraud if necessary. They will force two Peoples party tickets on the Australian ballot, and in each county where they can influence the county clerk to mix the tickets up so as to divide the vote it will be done. In Multnomah county an injunction suit is brought to keep the Mitchell Republican ticket off the ballot. If that succeeds it will also knock the Middle-Roaders out. The true principle of the Australian ballot law is this:

1. There shall be but one ticket of candidates put on the ballot of any one party by delegates at a convention.
2. Any faction or group of voters have a right to nominate a ticket or a candidate for any office, and have it put on the Australian ballot by petition or assembly of voters.
That is the way Mr. Kincaid has construed the law and will put on the Middle-Roaders. That is not the way Mr. Hewitt has construed it. The people will hold Mr. Kincaid's construction correct.

There is no way for the Union ticket voters to protect themselves but to get out every voter, post their voters who to vote for, and then have watchers in each polling place to see that the ballots are honestly and correctly counted. This election in Oregon will be carried by fraud, use of money and crooked practices if there is any way left open to do it.

MAN HANGED NEAR SILVERTON

Coroner A. M. Clough Leaves for the Scene and Will Hold an Inquest.
Word reached this city at noon today by telephone that a man had been found hanged near Silverton. Coroner A. M. Clough was notified of the discovery and accompanied by Deputy Sheriff A. T. Wain, left at 1 o'clock this afternoon for the scene of the suicide or murder as the case may be, with the intention of holding an inquest.

The name of the dead man is John Huffman, a bachelor aged about 45 years. He has no relatives in this country. It is the general supposition that the man committed suicide for he has acted in a strange manner for the past two years. It is generally believed the man's mind was partly deranged. He threatened a number of times to end his life and today's suicide is thought to be the result of such intentions.
The man inhabited a small but on a small ranch located on the Abiqua about seven miles above Scotts mills and between that place and Silverton. He has resided in that vicinity for about ten years.

CAPITAL PRINTING COMPANY.

244 Commercial Street Salem Oregon

JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

Nobody seems to question the ability of Oregon's war governor. He was a captain in the regular army, stationed at Fort Steilacoon on Puget Sound when that was part of Oregon's territory. Before he was a major on the staff of Col. Knight.

THE JOURNAL war bulletins speak for themselves. They come hourly and minutely if there is news to send. They are intelligent and reliable and the people of Salem can depend on getting all the news that reaches Portland and San Francisco from any source whatever.

The regular Republicans seek to enjoin the Mitchell Republicans in Multnomah county; the regular Democrats seek to enjoin the bolting Penoyer Democrats in same county; the bolting Populists mandamus the regular Populists; out of all these decisions the people will get great results—in the neck. Let the merry war go on. It will have one effect: the overthrow of the present complicated and ridiculous nominating system.

The Republican state ticket is not as good as could have been expected. For governor, an agricultural humorist; for secretary of state one of the Clatsop county Republican ring where recent defalcation will take an additional seven mills taxes to square the accounts; for state treasurer another Republican official from a county where a large defalcation was compromised at about 35 cents on the dollar; for state superintendent of the schools an agent of the poor and down-trodden American Book Co. "Bah for Reform."

County Supt. H. S. Lyman of Astoria, spent Sunday at Salem and went to Albany. He is Union candidate for state superintendent of schools, and while at Salem met many old friends of his father, a pioneer Congregational Missionary and founder of Pacific College at Forest Grove. The family have all been educators and the present candidate is warmly supported by many of the leading educators of the state of all parties. The office is not a political one and Mr. Lyman will poll a large vote outside the three parties that put him up.
