Salem Militia Will Go.

Companies "B" and "I" Have Been Ordered to Portland.

Will Probably Go Saturday Morning—The Members of the Companies.

The O. N. G. Army on the third floor in the City Hall Building has presented a scene of unusual activity since Tuesday evening. This increased activity was occasioned by the reception in this Tuesday evening of general orders to the Oregon National Guard from Adjutant General H. B. Tuttle.

By the orders the commanding officer of each infantry company is directed to immediately recruit his command to the maximum strength. Companies B and I of this city have been ordered to proceed to Portland within twenty-four hours after the receipt of this order, fully armed and equipped for active service in the field.

Major Sanford Whiting, brigade surgeon, arrived in the city last evening and has since been engaged in giving the members and new recruits of the two companies a rigid medical examination. Of the entire number enlisted, but about 10 per cent failed to pass the examination. Major Whiting in conversation with a Journal representative this morning expressed himself as highly pleased with the Salem companies. He pronounced the members thereof "splendid men."

There is not a little conjecture as to when the troops will proceed to Portland. The general orders received at evening would indicate that the companies would be obliged to leave this city this evening but from the fact that extensive arrangements are being made for a farewell ball at the armory tonight, it is more than probable the local companies will not proceed to the metropolis before Thursday morning.

A complete list of the officers and members of the two companies is as follows:

COMPANY B.
Officers—Captain, Ralph Terrell; First Lieutenant, R. W. Holman; Second Lieutenant, C. A. Burt; First Sergeant, F. A. Gard; Sergeants, J. G. Flake and W. C. Judson; Corporals, J. Fisher and Jacob Herboldt.

Privates—Wm. L. Batchelor, Joe Burdine, Frank G. Carey, R. C. Churchill, Wm. Dickey, Nick Eff, D. Farrar, Huie Goodell, John Herboldt, Louis Herboldt, Frank Hanna, Wm. P. Hughes, W. F. Harris, Hal G. Hibbard, T. C. Johnson, Samuel C. Jones, R. A. Judson, Geo. A. Judson, Louis E. Judson, L. L. Judson, Ernest G. Jones, Arthur W. Keady, Henry Lee, C. F. McAllister, H. C. Miller, Peter Mackey, L. J. McGoon, W. G. Miller, Chas. Munley, Wm. A. Monroe, Wm. O'Mara, Fred Peterson, H. W. Ross, Geo. W. Russell, Geo. S. Race, Boyd Richardson, G. W. Stewart, Clark D. Smith, Chas. N. Schreiber, W. F. Schwarz, Al. M. Southwick, F. S. Thompson, Lewis E. Thibodeau, Wm. Elmer Truitt, Chas. Williamson, Frank West, J. F. Welch, H. O. White, Henry Zoller, Pearl Fulkerson and Clarence Wilson.

Seven cadets, of the State Agricultural college, at Corvallis, came down on the morning boat and enlisted in Company B. They are: M. J. Phillips, Archie Kruse, C. A. Riddle, Carl Abrams, Lee Rusk, L. A. Noel and J. J. Thurston.

COMPANY I.
Officers.—Captain, Elmer E. Worrick; First lieutenant, C. A. Murphy; Second lieutenant, Leon G. Holland; First Sergeant, R. L. White; Quartermaster, H. K. Hall; Sergeants, A. J. Cauppler, C. B. Clement; Corporal, W. M. Meyers.

Privates—Jacob Ammann, C. G. Boothby, E. S. Sanford, J. H. Campbell, E. R. Colgan, E. P. Cox, J. W. Clement, Leonard Dodson, Joe Evans, Lee Feller, Bert F. Frohman, Edward Fane, Clifford Fones, Lee Fones, Leon Girod, Arthur Girod, Benjamin McNeil Howell, John F. Henry, R. J. Johnson, Emmett Jones, Henry Janzen, E. O. Larsen, L. J. Lehman, Geo. F. Littlefield, Chas. E. Lennon, Bert Low, Andrew McFarlane, Harry Mason, Jacob Neubrech, W. H. Peter, Chas. Rowell, R. J. Sharp, J. Howard Sharp, Geo. A. Shultz, Walter Swartz, Chas. C. Savage, Watson Townsend, Sam Wright, A. Wenger, Robert Waln, Dennis A. Morrison, A. L. De Sart and Chas. McKinley.

Snap Shots From Our Bargain Counter.

Most people are apt to forget the little things—the things that count in the long run. We devote a table to articles ranging from 1c to 10c—arranged in sections plainly marked so you can pick out what you want. Nearly everything there is in everyday demand. Here's a few of them:

WIGGINS' BAZAAR!

All companies of the O. N. G. will report at Portland where twelve companies of one hundred men each will be formed and the officers thereof subsequently announced by Governor W. P. Lord. Each company will be accompanied by its captain to Portland but none of the field officers know whether or not they will be called into service.

Major Percy Willis, of this city, will not go to Portland with the Salem companies. It will require three majors to take charge of the regiment from this state. There are five majors in the state and two will necessarily have to remain behind. It is more than probable Governor will see fit to honor Capital City and name Major Willis to one of these posts.

Miss Lila Terrell and Miss Ima Holland have been working very industriously Tuesday and today in making preparations for a farewell ball to be given the members of Companies B and I, their wives, families and sweethearts, in the armory this evening. It will be an invitation affair as it has been expressly arranged for the militia boys. The armory has been beautifully decorated and the occasion will no doubt prove a memorable one for the "boys in blue" and their privileged guests.

This morning a member of one of the Salem companies, who owns about thirty acres of land north of this city and in addition thereto, some personal property, called at the county clerk's office and had his last will and testament drawn up. The document was legally prepared and witnessed and died away in a safe repository.

LATER.
Since the above was written Captains Terrell and Worrick, of Companies B and I, have received orders from headquarters at Portland, notifying them not to proceed to Portland until Saturday afternoon. In the meantime additional recruits will be enlisted in the two companies until the maximum strength is supplied.

FIRST MAN ENLISTED.
Marion county has the honor of furnishing the first volunteer private soldier that offered his services to Governor Lord and will join the Albina company.

G. A. Durette of Fairfield is the man and he will at once join Capt. J. C. Rutenic's command.

COAST DEPARTERS.
Frank Reiser, department commander of the G. A. R. of Oregon, has sent the following circular to all officers and comrades, dated Eugene, April 25:

"Under this date I have tendered the services of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic of this department, for the defense of our coast, until such time as younger men could be drilled and prepared for active service."

"Please notify me at once how many of our comrades can be depended upon to answer an emergency call."

The old veterans will furnish a strong force for the coast defense.

A. O. U. W. AND SOLDIERS.
The clerk of Salem Camp has received notice from the Head Camp that all members of the Woodmen of the World who desire to enlist can keep themselves in good standing by paying an additional 20 cents on each thousand of insurance.

In cases where the enlisted neighbor is not able to pay his assessments during the time of his enlistment and who has no immediate relatives to pay for him it will be the duty of the local camp to keep him in good standing during the term of his enlistment.

In case a neighbor is sick or wounded in battle the Head Camp will see that he has the proper care and medical attendance, the expense to be born by the order. Hurrah for the Woodmen!

War Bulletins.

Enlarged Press Reports of Cuban News.

War Cables Received Direct by "The Journal."

The American-Spanish war for "Cuba Libre" is the greatest event in modern history. It may involve the leading European nations in war before it is over.

The most glorious halo that history will place on the brow of the American people is the perfect unanimity of sentiment in upholding a vigorous war policy. The only fear anyone had was that it would not be vigorous enough. But all parties and all creeds unite in upholding the vigorous prosecution of the war. Spain banked on political divisions among the American people. Spain is doomed to disappointment and defeat.

The Journal has broken all records for securing and publishing the latest war news and will continue to do so until the last gun is fired. The Journal is recognized as the war news paper and the one Oregon paper that arouses enthusiasm and patriotism among all its readers.

The Journal is paying more money for telegraphic war news than all other Salem papers, or than any paper but the Oregonian. It has today doubled its telegraphic report and will receive all the news received by all the great press associations.

The Journal has proven too speedy for all competitors in securing and publishing war news. Its bulletin service has been furnished to the largest numbers of people in the city and has been in demand all over the country.

Our news service has been so complete that even old subscribers are surprised to receive from ten to twenty columns of war news fresh from the press daily. Subscriptions are pouring in from all the remote parts of the state. Salem lists are swelling.

An increased force is required to handle the war news, prepare the bulletins for the crowds at the bulletin boards. The Journal solicits increased subscriptions and advertising patronage. It does this in the belief that it is giving a service to the people of all parties that merits encouragement and support. Send in your subscriptions.
