About twenty-five young people gathered at the residence of B. R. Ryan Thursday night to celebrate the birthday of J. M. Ryan. They extended good wishes for him in his trip to B. C. goldfields whence he starts on Monday, 20th inst. The evening was spent in games, songs and charades, after which came refreshments consisting of nuts, candy, and an old-fashioned taffy pull and ice cream.

Salem Rebekah lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., had one of its pleasant social meetings in the Odd Fellows' hall Monday night, after the usual work of the lodge had been finished. Ice cream and cake were served and a most enjoyable time was had by all. The local ranch of the Vigilantes also had a social after its regular lodge work, an interesting program being rendered, after which refreshments, consisting of cake, ice cream, etc., were served.

A pretty home wedding occurred at Albany Wednesday morning when at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Curl, their charming daughter, Miss Mattie Ellen Curl became the wife of Wallace Glover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Cone, of the First Christian church of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Glover departed for Ilwaco, Wn., where they will be at home after June 20. Mr. Glover is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Glover, of the Waldo Hills and is well-known in this city. He has the best wishes of a host of friends here for a happy and prosperous future.

Patriotism is rampant in the Capital City. Scarcely a week passes but one or more flag raisings are noted. The young people of Unity Guild showed their enthusiasm Thursday evening by unfolding to the breeze a beautiful emblem of "Old Glory." The flag, which is 12x7 1/2 feet, was unfurled while the company that had gathered sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Rev. W. E. Copeland, the popular pastor, delivered an eloquent and patriotic address and after singing "America" as a fitting final to the program, the party repaired to the society hall where delicious refreshments were served. Dancing followed until 10 o'clock.

WIGGINS' BAZAAR!

The graduating exercises and entertainment at the Kaiser school was a grand success. The class consisted of the following: Effa Beardsly, Halie Gilmour, Zenna Etter and Della Goodrich. The opening address by Mr. T. J. Jackson, was followed by essays by the class, after which Judge L. D. Henry gave a very appropriate address to the graduating class and to the school. Mr. F. J. Beatty gave a talk and illustration of X-Rays' heat light and sound. This was followed by music by the Chemawa male quartet, and instrumental music by Messrs. Pruetland Clemons. Refreshments—cake, strawberries, ice cream—were then served after which the drama was produced. The house was packed to its utmost capacity. The exercises ended a very successful school year.

J. A. Van Eaton, accompanied by family, who for the past 25 years has been a resident of Salem, leaves next week for Colorado Springs, Col., where he will engage in the insurance business. Thursday evening at the conclusion of the regular weekly prayer service, at the First Presbyterian church, the members of that congregation gave Mr. and Mrs. Van Eaton a surprise and farewell in the church parlors. Some choice musical numbers were rendered and delicious strawberries and cream were served. The affair was as happy as it was a successful surprise and Mr. and Mrs. Van Eaton received the best wishes of their host of friends for a successful career in their new home. The change is also made in anticipation of a change for the better in Mrs. Van Eaton's health, which is quite poorly.

Mrs. Willman has received word that E. H. Scott, president of the Kansas City Conservatory of music, and founder of the Interstate System of Musical Instruction, will be present and take part in the first annual public exercises of the class, which will be given in the opera house on the 25th of this month, and to which the public are cordially invited, free of charge. It is a deserved compliment and Mrs. Willman, as a superior teacher, that she is favored by a visit from Mr. Scott on this occasion. The participants in this entertainment will be members of Mrs. Willman's classes, President Scott and Mrs. Halie Parrish-Hinges. A dictated program will appear later. Mrs. Willman will continue her work uninterrupted throughout the summer, and will be always found at her studio, over the First National Bank from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. when arrangements can be made for private or class lessons.

The members of this year's academy graduating class of Willamette university and a few invited guests, were most delightfully entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Ethel Rigdon, a member of the class, at her home corner of Eighteenth and Mill streets. Several parlor games were played to the great enjoyment of the young people. At 11 o'clock the party was invited into the dining room where an elaborate supper had been spread and to which the young people did great justice. Adjournment to the parlor was taken after supper and other games were played until shortly after midnight when the party happily pronounced their hostess a successful entertainer, left for their respective homes, with but a single regret—that such pleasant occasions could not be more frequently enjoyed. Those present were: Miss Bertha Kay, Miss Ina Stillwell, Miss Martha Bowerman, Miss Clara Scott, Miss Jennie Jones, Miss Sophia Townsend, Miss Deane Kitchen, Miss Lou Starrett, Miss Mary Dunlap, Miss Nellie Clark, and Roxana Thompson. Messrs. Chas. Wentworth, R. B. Wilkins, F. R. Bowersox, R. W. Williams, B. E. Haney, J. W. Cochran, R. A. Watson, and M. M. Miller.

On Wednesday evening June 15 1898 a very enjoyable and profitable meeting was held in this city by Capital Lodge No. 255 Fraternal Union of America. Five candidates were initiated into the mysteries of this splendid order, after which ice cream and strawberries were served to all present. Among the large number present we note the names of the following: F. E. Adams and wife of Albany Oregon, Mr. Adams is Fraternal Master of the Albany Lodge, is an intelligent and excellent gentleman and an enthusiastic Frater. Miss Eloise Phillips of Dallas Or., Mrs. Helen Southwick, Mrs. Mary Hofer, Mrs. Amanda Anderson, Mrs. N. O. Baker, Mrs. J. M. Woodruff and Mrs. Rose Babcock; Miss D. Maguire, Miss A. Newton, Miss Allena Mellen, Miss Mary E. Scott, Miss Ada Stone, Miss Martha J. Morris, and Messrs. C. H. Robertson, F. X. Hofer, R. A. Judson, L. L. Judson, John H. Scott, Chas. E. Biers, S. B. Catterlin, O. J. Hull, J. N. Starr, V. J. Lehman, J. C. Savage, M. J. Conor, D. F. Lane, and Arthur Welch, all of Salem, and J. J. Sturgill the Supreme Guide of Baker City, Or. Mr. Sturgill says us that a great many people are requesting that organizers be sent to their different villages to establish lodges there, and that he can give good men and women an opportunity to organize for the F. U. of A.
