

HONOLULU

Gives Welcome to Recruits.

Three Days Spent at Hawaiian Islands.

Alleged Attempt to Blow Up City of Peking.

Spanish Vice-Counsel Enters a Vigorous Protest.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 20.—

The Honolulu steamer Mlowera brought the following report:

The United States transports City of Peking, Australia and City of Sydney arrived at Honolulu together June 1. As soon as the three vessels were sighted, all Honolulu turned out to welcome the soldiers. The docks were lined with people, and as the vessels entered the harbor the spectators yelled themselves hoarse. Such a scene of enthusiasm has never been witnessed in Honolulu.

When the vessels docked it was late, so the order was given to allow no one ashore, but the next morning about half the troop were allowed to land. During the day they were allowed the freedom of the city. The men visited Waikiki and other points of interest, and had a pleasant time generally.

At noon President Dole and his cabinet received the officers of the expedition. During the reception, the steamer and the grounds of the executive building were thronged with people.

June 3, the soldiers were entertained on the grounds of the executive building. President Dole was on hand to welcome them. The utmost freedom prevailed, the affair being very informal. To each man the chief executive gave a word of welcome to Honolulu. An outdoor luncheon was served by the ladies of the city.

The transports left for Manila June 4. The Charleston steamed outside and waited for the fleet, which got away about 10 o'clock, with the Charleston in the rear. While the vessels were in port they took in the neighborhood of 1000 tons of coal.

Of the 2500 men among the various vessels, but two desertions were recorded, and they were from the Oregon regiment. Two men were left behind, one of whom was discharged for disability, and the other is in a local hospital.

Eternal Vigilance.
"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of everything worth having, of life itself. A man needn't be always looking for danger, afraid that something will happen to him; but a wise man will form a habit of care about the important things of life.
It isn't half so much trouble to take care of yourself as it is not to. A man who follows regular, healthy habits, feels good all the time. Life is worth living to him. But a man who neglects his health, who crowds into one day more than a good healthy man would ever know of in a whole year.
When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work, when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force. He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow," but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs, and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutrients and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all bilious impurities and pour into the circulation an abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength and nerve-energy. It does not make flabby flesh. It is the only suitable tonic and strength-builder for corpulent people.

The voyage down was pleasant, and the vessels traveled abreast most of the way, although it was necessary for the City of Peking and Australia to slow up and wait for the City of Sydney.

Eight cases of measles broke out on the Australia. The sick men were separated from the other passengers on the ship by being quartered on the hurricane deck, and the surgeons had the cases well in hand when the vessels arrived.

Three Kamehameha school students all native Hawaiians, tried to enlist with Colonel Sumner, of the Oregon regiment for the trip to Manila. The boys were worked up over the war, and were immensely enthusiastic in their American sentiments. Four men, regular members of the Hawaiian army, joined the United States forces at Honolulu. They went on board the Peking and were enlisted at once.

It was given out officially that the Bennington would not leave port until the arrival of the Mohican. The Bennington will go to the Mars Island to be cleaned, and then will be sent to Manila as a fleet convoy.

While the United States troops were in Honolulu, over 7000 letters were written by them. The postage amounting to $441, was paid by the Hawaiian government. Most of the writing was done in the legislative halls. The stationery was furnished free of charge.

The Hawaiian Star of June 3 publishes the following story regarding an attempt to blow up the United States steamer City of Peking while that vessel was in port there:

"If the report which is in circulation today is true, Honolulu came near being the scene of a frightful disaster as that of the Maine, and in much the same way. The story is nothing more or less than an attempt to blow up the Peking was frustrated just in time. An enlisted man, it is said, was caught in the act of arranging a fuse connecting with the magazine. The magazine contains 400 tons of powder, and had been guarded closely. The man, it is said, is now under the closest guard, and when the Peking gets out on the high seas, he will be hanged at the yard arm. The greatest secrecy concerning the matter is being maintained for fear it would mar the spirit of the present occasion. The alleged culprit is said to be a half-breed Spaniard."

The publication caused a sensation in Honolulu. Officers on the ship denied the truth of the story, but their denial was made in a half-hearted way. There are many corroborative features which tend to point out the truth of the report, which was first circulated by enlisted men. Others admitted that the Spanish half-breed was on board the ship. Two Honolulu citizens stated that they were on board of the Peking June 3 when they saw a man in iron and under close guard. They were convinced that the prisoner was the man who attempted to blow up the ship.

Following is the full text of the correspondence between the Spanish vice-consul at this port and the Hawaiian government, relating to the entertainment of American troops at this port:

"Honolulu, June 1. H. E. Cooper, Minister of Foreign Affairs.—Sir: In my capacity as vice-consul for Spain, I have the honor today to enter formal protest with the Hawaiian government against the constant violation of neutrality in this harbor while actual war exists between Spain and the United States of America. Requesting you to acknowledge receipt of this communication, I have the honor to be, sir, H. RENJES, "Vice-Consul for Spain."

The reply of the government, which is now in Mr. Renjes' hands, is as follows:

"Department of Foreign Affairs, Honolulu, June 6, 1898.—Sir: In reply to your note of the 1st inst. I have the honor to say that, owing to the intimate relations now existing between this country and the United States, this government has not issued a proclamation of neutrality, having reference to the present conflict between the United States and Spain; but, on the contrary, it has tendered to the United States privilege and assistance, for which reason your protest can receive no further consideration than to acknowledge its receipt. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

HENRY E. COOPER, "Minister of Foreign Affairs."

"To H. Renjes, esq., vice consul for Spain Honolulu."

The Battleships. WASHINGTON, June 20.—The navy department issued advertisements calling for proposals for the building of the three great battleships authorized by the last naval appropriation bill. These bids will be opened at the department September 1, and 34 months will be allowed for the completion of the ships after contract. That is the maximum, but bidders are invited to specify the time within which they can complete the construction, which indicates the departments' intention to regard construction as one of the determining factors in awarding the contracts. The time allowed by the department about three months less than the period fixed in preceding contracts for the construction of vessels of this class.

THE THIRD DRAFT.
More Troops Are Needed for Occupation of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The war department is profiting by the experience gained in the organization and dispatch of General Shafter's expedition by the concentration of troops in the great camps and by the development of weak places in the supply systems. It is desired that future operations be conducted with a view to avoiding friction, improving the methods of equipping the volunteers, and generally facilitating the organization of an effective army.

It has been suggested that, owing to the heavy demands for troops, which have far exceeded the number originally deemed to be sufficient, there will be occasion to issue another call for volunteers. Having in mind the length of time required to develop raw material into seasoned soldiers, as revealed by the experiences at Chickamauga, Tampa and Camp Alger, there is no doubt the president will be forehanded in this matter, and that upon the existence of a reasonable doubt as to the sufficiency of the present military force, he will take steps to increase it. But before any effort is made to raise more troops, the war department will see to it the amplest facilities are provided, and that the equipment will be ready for the men. The material secured under another call will not include national guardsmen, and the men will be absolutely green and wholly without military equipment of any kind.

The preparations being made by the war department to meet any possible demands in the future, as revealed in the very thorough report of the board, headed by Major Hopkins, appointed to look after suitable camping sites, undoubtedly has given rise to the report that additional military camps are to be established. The department has put things in trim to establish at short notice several additional camps, but so far it has not ordered any troops to them, and is not likely to, unless there should be a further call for volunteers.

The projected dispatch of relief expeditions with food and supplies to the suffering Cubans is no new feature to the campaign, as seemed to have been supposed in some quarters. From the first the president had in mind the probable suffering of the reconcentrados, whose lot was likely to be made doubly hard by the war, unless our people came to their relief. It was his purpose to lose no opportunity in sending supplies to these people, and the reported preparations of expeditions in Florida to carry these are nothing more than the natural execution of the president's plans.

No news has been made public today regarding securing transports for the Porto Rico expedition. The few on hand are entirely inadequate for the needs of the invading army, and 20 or 30 more will have to be obtained.
