NO EXAMINATION
 Held to Fill the Vacant Cadetship for Oregon.
 Before election Congressman T. H. Tongue announced that an open competitive examination would be held at Salem for the cadetship.
 After several failures of appointees to the Oregon cadetship, the examination that was to be held at Salem has also been a failure.
 It was announced but no board of examiners was ever appointed, and no steps ever taken to give all the young men of this district an equal chance to compete openly for the honor of going to the U. S. military or naval training schools.

NO EXAMINATION HELD.
 June 20 was the day named by Congressman T. H. Tongue for holding a competitive examination at this place for applicants for cadetships at West Point military school.
 A young man, named Osburn, of Eugene, and Walter F. Smith, of Sublimity, reported to R. J. Hendricks this morning for the purpose of taking the examination but that gentleman, having received no official notification whatever as to the examination or the manner in which it was to be conducted, was unable to furnish the applicants any definite information. No provision whatever has been made for holding the examination. Such competitive examinations were formerly held in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction and were conducted under his supervision. It is supposed that in the excitement attendant upon the recent election, Congressman Tongue neglected to make arrangements for conducting the examinations. It is possible the examination will be held on a later date and that definite announcement of the same will be made. Mr. Smith, who came down from Sublimity, reports that there were a number of other young men in his immediate neighborhood who intended coming to Salem and taking the examination but being unable to learn anything definite regarding the examination, concluded to stay at home.

In the examination held on the 1st inst. at the West Point school, of the two candidates from Oregon for admission as military cadets, one was successful in passing the examination and is now a cadet. That young man was Leo. Snellburg, of Sublimity.

ALBANY WILL HOWL.
 A Big Double-Decker Celebration on the Ways for the Fourth.
 The Albany Fourth of July committee are working hard to make their celebration something more than a local greased pig affair, and seem in a fair way to get there.
 T. M. French is chairman of the finance committee, and such men as Mayor Burkhardt, A. J. Hodges and other prominent citizens are actively at work.

The celebration will begin Saturday night, the second, with a celebration program at the opera house. A big platform is to be built 30 x 40, and seats for 400 built in an amphitheatre, with a free show all day, including acrobats, lady minstrels, a hayseed band and athletic performers, besides oration, music, etc.
 If the railroad companies will make terms the Albany people will run an excursion train from Silverton, as well as Eugene, Lebanon and both ways on the Corvallis and Eastern.
 There will be a hot time at Albany and the committee is using printers ink freely.

The number of swine about Salem is being considerably reduced by reason of an epidemic that is prevalent throughout the valley. It is not thoroughly understood and the proper course to pursue to evade its fatal results is not known. At first it was supposed to be cholera but from the fact that the hogs suffer with the disease for two or three weeks before death occurs, it is considered a more serious ailment. Eugene Eckert and E. C. Cross of this city, have recently lost over a hundred head of swine, while the loss of several head is reported from the state penitentiary. Farmers from various sections of this county and also from Polk county report similar losses from an unknown cause. It is hoped the epidemic may be checked before it becomes general throughout the valley.

WILSON L. MAHREY DEAD.
 A Venerable Citizen of Salem Will Be Buried Tuesday.

Sunday morning at 4:55, Wilson L. Mahrey died at the home of his grand-daughter, Mrs. Nellie J. Lottritz, 163 Church street.
 Mr. Mahrey was a well known figure on the streets of the Capital City, where he has made his home for seven years past. He was generally accompanied by little Louise Lottritz.
 He was born at Mt. Morris, Livingston county, New York, October 24, 1805, making him almost ninety-three years old, and one of the oldest men in the state. He was a spiritualist in religion, and was one of the pioneer charter members of the Washingtonian society in San Francisco. He resided in California from some time in the 'fifties, until he came to Oregon. Mr. Mahrey was a public-spirited man, and attended nearly all gatherings of a public nature. The writer recalls his presence at a meeting for the encouragement of flax culture, which he understood a great deal about from his boyhood when Baxen homespun was a family product in all American homes. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Peter Holiday, living on the old home-stand. He had counted some on visiting her this year but it was not to be. For years Mr. Mahrey was a traveling salesman for R. H. McDonald & Co., wholesale druggists, San Francisco. His wife was an invalid for many years but he gave her his undivided time and most careful patient attention until her death. He was a steamboat captain on the Sacramento river for years. He also practiced medicine for many years with John Van Zandt, of Frisco. His profession was that of druggist, but he turned his hand at many occupations, including acting as United States army scout and interpreter for the government during the Mexican war, for which he was given a pension about ten years ago of $5 a month.

Up to Friday afternoon he was in the best of health. Indeed he was a marvel of physical preservation and in enjoyment of all his faculties. Friday afternoon he went to the dog and pony show with the family, enjoying it intensely.
 His death came on gradually after his prostration Saturday evening, when he had gone out to consult with a physician. His final hour of life was one of sweet peaceful sleep, from which he was expected to rally.
 The funeral will be held at Unity church, Tuesday at 2 o'clock, the Grand Army post at Salem officiating, Rev. Copeland, at whose church he attended conducting the service.

EVERYBODY GOES
 To the Boys in Blue Entertainment Tonight.
 Indications are that there will be a large attendance at the Emergency Corps' first entertainment for the benefit of Oregon troops, to be given by Sedgewick Emergency Corps, No. 1, A. O. U. W. hall, State Insurance building this evening. The H. A. C. band very kindly consented to give its service and will appear on the street at 7:45. Admission only 10 cents. Ice cream and cake 10 cents extra.
 The program for the occasion is as follows:
 Short address by J. Q. Barnes, Song by Grace Van Wagner and Pearl Macey.
 Recitation by George Flagg.
 Our Boys' Quartet—Willie Kantner, Robbie McCarl, Harold Sellwood and Caples Matthieu.
 Recitation by Musa Geer.
 Song by McKinley quartet.
 Recitation by Minnie DeLong.
 Song by the Misses Southwick.
 Instrumental duet (bones and piano) by Prof. St. Helen and Mrs. Edith Thomas.
 Solo by Prof. Heratige.
 The drawing for the quilt will take place immediately after the program.

The H. A. C. band pleasantly entertained a large company of Salemites Sunday afternoon in Marion Square by one of their delightful open air concerts. Threatening weather reduced the size of the crowd but those present showed their appreciation of the efforts of the band to entertain. These Sunday afternoon concerts are increasing in popularity.

TWO COURTS IN SESSION.
 Vote for District Judge Being Recounted by Canvassing Board.

Judge H. H. Hewitt convened the June term of Department No. 2, Marion county circuit court this morning. This is the last term of court in this county over which Judge Hewitt will preside as district judge.
 The only entry made during the morning session was: Southern Pacific Company vs A. L. Mills et al. motion of defendants for additional findings overruled. Motion of plaintiffs for additional findings overruled.
 Court adjourned till 1 p. m. to meet in the county court room.

Judge Burnett reconvened his department of the circuit court at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The case of State vs Dan Stone, charged with burglarizing the dental office of Dr. J. W. Meredith in this city the latter part of April, was called and tried before the following jury: A. F. Will, G. Gist, Jesse Stelwer, Godfrey Dental, H. J. Miller, Edward Beck, C. Harding, Harvey Taylor, Charley Cannon, Edward Walker, C. R. Downie and John Whitney.
 Detectives J. F. Kerrigan and F. Snow and H. Meyer, proprietor of a pawn-shop, all of the metropolis, arrived up from Portland on the Roseburg mail and served as witnesses for the state.
 District Attorney S. L. Hayden assisted by his deputy J. H. McNary, appeared for the state. Stone conducted his own defense which he did in a way that evinced a splendid knowledge of court proceedings particularly as conducted in behalf of the accused.
 Case went to jury shortly after 2 o'clock and after a few minutes deliberation, a verdict of guilty was returned. Stone waived further time and was sentenced to three years six months imprisonment. Court then adjourned until 9 a. m. Tuesday.

OREGON REAL ESTATE.
 California Loan Companies Regard Webfoot as a Paradise.
 I. C. Terry, representing the Pacific States Savings, Loan and Building Company, of Frisco, is in Salem.
 His company has large investments in Capital City real estate and Oregon loans. He says three savings banks, of Frisco, have over $100,000,000 deposits loaned on real estate and that Oregon is a paradise to Golden State conditions. Frosts nipped their fruits, dry weather soaked their crops, drought has burned their grass, sand storms and hot winds have ruined the complexions of their women, and it has been Genesee on the installment plan start to finish in this year of our Lord, 1898.
 Oregon will turn off big money crops and will be able to pay interest on loans on farm property. Mr. Terry regards this state as a hopeful field of operations, and will be at Hotel Willamette several days. There has been no rebound in town property and loans are not being made on city or suburban real estate.
 At Salem Saturday, the Prof. A. Brock and improvements that cost well over five thousand dollars when made, was bid in on execution for $3100.
 There are a few new buildings going up at Salem but vacant ones are not diminishing in number.

SALEM WILL CELEBRATE.

Preliminary Steps Taken Towards a Rousing Celebration.
 The business men's meeting in the city police court room Saturday evening was largely attended and was marked for considerable enthusiasm, characteristic of Salem gatherings on such occasions. It was decided to hold a grand demonstration in this city on July 4, and that the eagle will scream on that occasion goes without saying.
 S. M. Stock was made permanent chairman and F. S. Dearborn served as secretary. O. E. Krause, C. S. Riely, W. T. Stolz, F. W. Steuseloff and P. H. Sroat were named as a general committee to manage the affair.
 A soliciting committee was appointed, consisting of O. E. Krause, C. S. Riely, and W. T. Stolz and during the next few days will call on the business men of the city for contributions. The committee will hold another meeting tonight at the same place, when sub-committees and other details necessary for a successful celebration will be looked after.
 This is the year of years for a grand celebration of the anniversary of our independence. Let us show our patriotism by having a regular "Dewey" celebration.
 LATER.
 The soliciting committee after having made an extensive canvass of the city this morning, find that the business men of the city are opposed to going ahead with a celebration. Hence it is declared off.

A SUMMER NORMAL.
 Another Attraction At Oregon's Great Educational Center.
 A summer normal school for training teachers will be conducted at Salem from July 5, to Aug. 12, by graduates of the Valparaiso, Ind., state normal school.
 "Salem has the finest summer climate in the world," says A. Bush, a gentleman who has traveled a great deal. If professional teachers, who understand true normal work, can make the finest summer school in the world Salem will have that to boast of.
 Send for a circular to A. J. Garland, A. M. principal, state insurance building Salem.
 Salem has a law school, a medical school, a music school, and we need a summer school for teachers. This is a good enterprise and deserves hearty encouragement and support. It is in good hands and has great merit.

 Dr. J. F. Cook, Salem, Or:
 I received your letter and was glad to hear from you. You want to know how my leg is getting along. It is all right; the flesh is growing out over the shin bone and is turning white. It is not straight yet, but I think it will be as straight as the other leg when warm weather comes on. I can work most of the time. The other doctors told me I could never be cured without splitting it and scraping the bone, but they are mistaken. It is getting well without cutting or scraping, so they do not know as much as they thought they did, but you are all right; for you have done just what you said you could do. I will answer any questions you ask about my leg.
 Very truly yours,
