Circuit Judgeship.

Goes by a Second Recount to Hon. P. H. D'Arcy.

Charges of Palpable Fraud That Will Have to Be Further Investigated.

The recount of the Marion County vote for circuit judge, held Monday evening by the canvassing board, resulted in some startling developments. Three mistakes, aggregating 40 votes in all, were discovered in favor of P. H. D'Arcy, this effecting his election by a majority, over Hon. R. P. Boise, whose majority has heretofore been 34. The recount raises presumptions of fraud and the same will be thoroughly investigated by Hon. R. P. Boise and his friends. Mr. D'Arcy was at first reported elected and Mr. Boise even conceded this. Then corrections gave it to Boise. Now it goes again to D'Arcy.

Suspicion is aroused by the fact that each of the three mistakes discovered Monday evening was in favor of Mr. D'Arcy and increased his vote sufficiently to insure his election.

In looking over the vote from Butteville precinct for judge, it was found there were 20 more tallies than were indicated in the totals. In Mt. Angel and Monitor precinct a similar irregularity of 10 votes each was found, thus increasing Mr. D'Arcy's vote 40 in all and giving him a majority in the district of 60 over Mr. Boise.

JUDGE BOISE INTERVIEWED.

Judge R. P. Boise was seen this morning and expressed himself surprised at the result of the re-canvass of the vote Monday evening. "The end is not yet," said Judge Boise. "Myself and friends will await the final action of canvassing board when our course will be outlined. I am now satisfied I have simply been counted out by fraudulent practices. The original returns from Butteville, Mt. Angel, and Monitor precincts have been altered in order to accomplish my defeat. It is remarkably strange that after carefully making two counts during which a mistake was found of 10 votes in Woodburn precinct against Mr. D'Arcy and a single mistake against myself, that in a third count a mistake of 20 votes should be found in Butteville precinct where the largest number of votes received by any candidate for the circuit judgeship was 67, and a mistake of 10 each should be found in Mt. Angel and Monitor precincts and all in favor of my opponent, Mr. D'Arcy. On Monday the 13th, myself and friends interviewed County Clerk L. V. Ehlen and Justice Hayes, one of the canvassing board, and they declared themselves fully satisfied with the result of the canvass which had just been completed, giving Mr. D'Arcy a majority in this county of 177, and declared that they would that day certify thereto. But instead they adjourn for one week and during the interval the changes were made by which my defeat could be accomplished."

OTHERS MAKE STATEMENTS.

Justice Hayes, of Woodburn, a member of the canvassing board, was seen at the court house this morning when asked if the board had certified to the result of last night's re-canvass he replied they had not, but were waiting for the return of County Clerk Ehlen before doing so. When asked regarding the error of 40 votes, Mr. Hayes admitted that he could not understand how the mistake was overlooked on the two previous counts. J. B. F. Giesy, another member of the canvassing board, was seen at his State street home, and expressed himself as being very much dissatisfied with the result of the recount. He said he would most positively refuse to certify to the returns as compiled at the board's last meeting Monday evening for he was convinced that the returns from the precincts in which mistakes were now discovered had been tampered with. Monday morning prior to his departure from the city, County Clerk Ehlen left a note for Mr. Giesy, instructing him to proceed with a re-canvass of the votes, to make out the certificate and have Deputy County Clerk F. A. Turner sign it for him (Ehlen). Mr. Giesy also related the manner in which the first two counts were had. He said: "Every precaution was used to detect any possible mistake. In counting the vote for circuit judge and sheriff, the tallies were counted to see if they corresponded with the totals reckoned by the election judges of the various precincts. They were very carefully counted and had an error of 20 votes existed in Butteville precinct or 10 votes each in Monitor and Mt. Angel precincts, it certainly would not have been overlooked."

W. T. Rigdon who was present when the returns were canvassed made a copy of the result of the canvass after the second recount, as did also Attorney N. B. Knight and the same will be valuable in event of any subsequent litigation that may ensue. Mr. Rigdon was chairman of the Silver Republican county central committee and has no doubt in his own mind as to how the whole job was carried out.

THE JOURNAL, Monday night, spoke of absent Woodburn tally-sheet. Its next reappearance was when G. G. Gans discovered it under the blotter on a table in the county court room. It is not believed that this has any significance, as Mr. Gans is Judge Hewitt's bailiff, and some one evidently had the sheet out and had showed it under the table when through with it.

VIOLATIONS OF LAW.

THE JOURNAL publicly called attention to the tampering with the arrangement of the ballot by the Republican county clerk. The form of the ballot was changed from the way it was arranged by the secretary of state. This was an outrage, but it was protested against when it was found that some of the ticket were defeated. The sample ballots were also found for distribution in the interest of the Republican ticket. The selection of all Republican judges and clerks in some of the strong Republican precincts was another outrage on common decency, to say nothing of a clear violation of law.

MAY AFFECT COUNTY POLITICS.

The Salem Statesman, (Rep.) says this morning: "The way the matter stands now, none of the officers-elect can take their places, unless the board agrees and signs up the returns. In this case the old officers would hold over. "The writer hereof, being simply a news reporter, is not permitted to express any editorial opinion concerning the startling news related above; but it is predicted that the end of the matter has not yet been reached, and there are now rumblings of a storm of public opinion that will, if it gathers full force, shake up old Marion county as it has not been shaken for many a long day. This news reporter will await the outcome with interest, promising to keep the public well informed."

THE JOURNAL will give all the news in the case and has no interest but to see justice done. It believes Boise or D'Arcy too honorable a man to take an office the title to which is obtained by fraud. We believe the courts will have to settle the matter. Judge Burnett is the officer before whom the trial must be had. He is just entering upon a six year term and could have no incentive to do otherwise than distinguish himself by giving the matter a fair and impartial trial. It is to be hoped that County Clerk Ehlen will return and justify the confidence of his friends and family that he has not been a party to any dishonorable transaction.

Chenawa Commencement.

The annual commencement exercises of the Chenawa Indian Training school, will be held Wednesday. There will be four graduates, viz: Adolph Farrow, of the Umatilla Reservation; Warren Brainerd, of Hooper Valley Reservation; Julia Sorter, of Washington; and Oscar Norton, of California. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to be present and enjoy the exercises.

The program for the day is as follows:
 9 a. m.—Band Concert.
 10 a. m.—Field Day Sports.
 1 p. m.—Inspection shops, school rooms etc.

 7:30 p. m.—Entertainment and Cantata.

Joe Reese and Reginald Rankin, are the names of two youthful Salemites, who, unless they reform their ways in the very near future, will find themselves in serious trouble, one of these days. A few days since the residence of G. R. Baker, in Yew Park, was entered and thoroughly ransacked, a quantity of silver-ware and other articles being carried away. The police were notified and succeeded in tracing the crime to these two youths, who when accused of the crime admitted their guilt, in fact they could do nothing else for a quantity of the stolen property was found in their possession. This morning the boys were held to await the action of the grand jury. Their parents furnished the required bail and the boys are enjoying temporary liberty, at least.

Sedgewick Emergency Corps gave a program and ice cream social Monday night. A quilt was raffled off, Miss Musa Geer winning the prize, and is thereby that much nearer being outfitted for the Alaska of Matrimony. All the receipts were enough to pay the expenses of $1.10 and put 50 cents into the treasury. The ladies wish to thank all who helped and nearly every body did help who had a chance.

F. W. Miller today made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Naming C. B. Updegraff as assignee. Mr. Miller estimates his assets, consisting of his stock of cigars and tobaccos and fixtures at $406.50 with outstanding bills amounting to $50, making a total of $456.50. The liabilities amount to $374.50.

For Mt. Angel.

There is quite an attendance of Salemites at the Mt. Angel college commencement, set for June 21. The Sisters' academy exercises are to take place this afternoon. The dedication of the newly finished Catholic church will be at 9 o'clock Wednesday. Archbishop Gross of Portland is to officiate and the occasion is one of more than ordinary interest to the college and its friends.

 How A. Cooper Had a Rotten Bone Healed After 35 Years.
 CHEWALIS, Wash., April 9, 1898.
 I received your letter and was glad to hear from you. You want to know how my leg is getting along. It is all right; the flesh is growing out over the shin bone and is turning white. It is not straight yet, but I think it will be as straight as the other leg when warm weather comes on. I can work most of the time. The other doctors told me I could never be cured without splitting it and scraping the bone, but they are mistaken. It is getting well without cutting or scraping, so they do not know as much as they thought they did, but you are all right, for you have done just what you said you could do. I will answer any questions you ask about my leg. Very truly yours,
