

THEY ARE NOT CHEAP!

Nobody Has Yet Said That of Our Goods They Are Cheap—Fairly So.

Look at them in every light, weigh them, measure them, try them any way you will, they are undeniably cheap goods.

"THEY CAN'T BE GOOD."

Why can't they? Can't they be good because no other merchant has yet made such prices on good goods?

Special bargains this week in dress goods, hostery, muslin underwear, dress skirts, shirt waists and summer corsets.

Weather.

Tonight and Thursday fair. Major D. C. Sherman and Frank Waters are new notaries.

J. C. Gove, a Michigan violinist, from Yamhill county, has been admitted to the asylum.

A marriage license was issued to T. H. Simpkins and Miss Anna N. Lehman, H. H. Vandeyert witnessing the issuance of the same.

Geo. W. Anderson and J. W. Barnes, of Elkton, came to Salem today. They report cattle and grass crops in prime condition.

I. D. Driver Jr., went to Portland this afternoon on business. Mr. Driver reports the condition of his father-in-law, Samuel R. Ramp, unchanged from that on Tuesday afternoon.

Justice Johnson says the parties he discharged were not the only persons who might have had access to the tally sheets. There were others. He says one day when he went to the court house he found some of the election records in the hands of a newspaper reporter and immediately requested the county clerk to have them locked up.

A handsome team of gray horses created a little excitement on State street this morning by indulging in a runaway. The team was hitched to a wagon and started on the upper end of State street. The wagon became detached near the railroad but the horses continued down the street being captured at Willard's blacksmith shop, none the worse for the run, excepting a few slight bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wiggins, accompanied by Mr. Wiggins' brother, Ernest Wiggins, of Eureka, Kan., who has been spending the summer in this city, left today for the "Sunflower" state. At Oregon City they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiggins and at Tacoma Mrs. Fred Lockley and daughter Miss Margaret, joined the party.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. W. S. Dunniway and Dr. E. B. Philbrook, constituting the bicycle committee at the local Fourth of July celebration has awarded prizes for best decorated wheels as follows: First prizes, Ruby Willard and Wilbur Ross; second prizes, Beulah Bruce and Oscar Holt. The first prizes in each instance were $5 and the second prizes amounted to $2.50 each.

Ex-Sheriff F. T. Wrightman today removed his household effects from the sheriff's apartments in the court house to his residence on Summer street near Chomeketa. Sheriff Durbin and family will move into the court house next week. Recorder J. H. Roberts has rented the Seel property on south Summer street, into which he has already moved. A. L. Downing, the "hatchler" treasurer, of Turner has secured accommodations in the city. Mr. Downing's predecessor, Geo. L. Brown, than whom Marion county never had a more popular or efficient officer, expects to remove to his old home at Stayton some time this week. He will again engage in the saw-mill business with Lee Brown & Sons, being a member of the firm.

G. P. Bennett and thirty others petitioned for a road leading out of Stayton to be altered. The court appointed L. Hobson, D. H. Johnson, and W. H. Sherman viewers, to meet July 18th.

The court will be busy the greater part of the day auditing bills.

Lost Three Toes.

At 1:30 this morning John, the 17-year-old son of John Burrows, head dyer at the Salem woolen mill, and an employe at the same institution, met with an accident at the mills by which he lost the three smaller toes of his right foot.

Young Burrows is one of the night hands at the mills where he is one of the spinners. His foot was caught in the "mule" of the spinning machinery and before he could get the machinery stopped three of his toes had been littered through from off his foot. The boy was taken to the Salem hospital where the injury was attended to.

The transports that are at Santiago. Their failure to return is explained by the fact that they are held to bring back to the wounded.

The present program is to place the injured men on the transports and bring them back to this country.

Fort Monroe will be their destination. The military reservation at the entrance of Chesapeake bay will be turned into a military hospital. It is admirably located for this purpose.

It is so far north as to be removed from the objections which attach to Florida points on account of heat, and there are accommodations for all the wounded.

The transports will also be used to convey the thousands of prisoners already captured. These will be taken to Fort McPherson, near Atlanta, and be held until the close of the war.

The feeding of these prisoners, as well as the starving people of Santiago, has been fully provided for in the arrangements of the subsistence department of the army.

Not the Alfonso XIII.

Key West, July 6.—The report that the Alfonso XIII was captured while running the blockade at Havana reached here.

This must be a mistake in name of vessel as the Alfonso XIII is known to be at Cadix, Spain, retained there in the shipping interests of Spain.

NIGHTWATCH ROBERTS GOES

To Make a Place for Ex-Grand Juror Dan Humphrey.

Jas. W. Roberts, for two years night-watch at courthouse, was relieved this morning from further duty. He was the star witness who gave in the first testimony in the tally sheet fraud case.

He is now succeeded by Dan Humphrey of Woodburn who goes on duty tonight for the first time.

Judge Terrell told Roberts that they had no fault to find with him and gave no reason for discharging him. Roberts is a man of steady habits, good moral character, and was always faithful in discharge of his duties. But he saw too much on the nights of June 10th and 11th. He was a faulty to support and is in debt for sickness in the family, and a home he built on the strength of his job.

Mr. Humphrey was one of the famous minority of the grand jury that wrote-washed the county court in the court house repairs investigation. His appointment comes as a direct reward for his services at that time.

The Republican bosses who have persuaded Judge Terrell to remove Roberts and put in Humphrey may have been moved to do so to help Humphrey support his family. But his selection is more likely due to their fear that he will squeal. His election and Robert's removal are generally regarded as an outrage on the public. Under the present court house regime the sentiment "the public be d—d," seems to be everlasting in evidence.

Wounded Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—There has been some question as to the delay in sending back the transports that are at Santiago.

Their failure to return is explained by the fact that they are held to bring back to the wounded.

The present program is to place the injured men on the transports and bring them back to this country.

Fort Monroe will be their destination. The military reservation at the entrance of Chesapeake bay will be turned into a military hospital. It is admirably located for this purpose.
