MAP OF SANTIAGO PROVINCE.

The province of Santiago de Cuba is practically the first point which has been attacked seriously by the United States army and naval forces. This is doubtless due to the bottling up of Cervers's fleet in the harbor of the city of Santiago. Guantanamo Bay, where 600 marines were landed by Lieutenant Colonel Huntington, is about 30 miles east of the ontrance of Santiago harbor where Morro Castle and Booapa Castle were smashed by the big guns of Rear Admiral Sampson's and Commodere Schley's warships. Santiago was formerly the capital of Cube and is the second city of importance on the island.
