REED'S OPERAHOUSE.

Leased for Another Term by Patton Bros. of Salem.

They did so well last year giving the Capital City theatre facilities that the lease of Reed's opera house in this city for the season of 1908-09 had been secured by the Patton Bros., the bookellers and stationers. These energetic gentlemen have booked twenty-eight sterling attractions for the new season with open dates and pending negotiations for still other high-grade troupes.

The Messrs. Patton have endeavored in the past year to cater to the amusement-lovers of the Capital City and to ascertain their preferences, and have done so with a very meagre margin of money profit. This year they will be better equipped in every sense and it is hoped on all sides they may realize a handsome measure of success.

The Sam T. Shaw company will open the new season here on September 1st, and will be followed in course, by the Bitzer Theater company, which will occupy the boards of the Reed during the entire state fair season.

There is no doubt the management will present the strongest line of engagements ever made in Salem and due appreciation should and, no doubt, will be accorded the Messrs. Patton for discernment and enterprise. Following are some of the certainties:

"Shaw Dramatic Co.," "Bittern Broadway Theater Co.," "Ganton's Minstrels," "Murry & Mack," "South Before the War," "Pulse of New York," "Two Married Men," "Hogan's Alley," "Romance of Conon Hollow," "A Boy Wanted," "Dan's Sully," "Tennessee Pardner," "McEwan the Great," "Hired Girl Co.," "Wild Oats," "The Colonel," "Little Gypsy," "Run on the Bank," "Davis Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Electrician," "Gay Matinee Girl," "Black Patti's Troubadours," "W. S. Cleveland's Minstrels," "Jossey Marvin Co.," "Signal of Liberty," and "Magnifico Co."

Arrangements are now being made for the "Cherry Pickers," "Harry Corson Clarke," and James-Warde & Behan, for the legislative attraction.

Our Army Boys.

Our boys of Co. G did an act the other day that shows they have true American hearts. Out on the parade grounds is seen a little group of sticks, and if you notice when the 3,000 soldiers are on the field drilling they never approach those little sticks stuck up in the ground. If you go to the spot you will find a lark's nest, built before war's alarm had been sounded. Here in the armed camp the bird, her nest and six eggs are safe. Members of Co. G found the nest as they swept across the field in company formation. The boys opened ranks as they passed the spot. Then our boys set up sticks around it and now the mother-bird sits on its eggs, an emblem of peace while all around are the trappings of war.—Daily Herald, Austin, Minn.

St. Joseph's New Pastor.

It is announced that the choice of Archbishop W. H. Gross, of the Catholic diocese of Oregon, to the matter of supplying, permanently, the pulpit of St. Joseph's church in this city, had fallen upon Rev. J. C. Hughes, of Portland, one of the clergy attached to St. Mary's cathedral.

The reverend gentleman has been given leave of absence for one month at the end of which time he will report here and at once assume the direction of the temporal and spiritual interests of the Salem church.

The new rector of St. Joseph's is in the bloom of manhood, of an active energetic temperament, an able scholar and a man of refined accomplishments, and will, without question, most satisfactorily fill the place so happily occupied by his lamented predecessor, the late Rev. J. S. White.

Until Rev. Hughes arrives here, Rev. Dominick, of Mt. Angel, will retain the management of parish affairs.

To Guard the Forest.

By order of the department creating an extended service in forest ranging Capt. S. R. Ormsby appoints the following persons to serve on the forest range during the months of August and September:

Newt, Ferrel, T. C. Lewis, Salem; Ephraim Hennes, Gates; W. P. Vandervort, Lava; T. P. Claypool, Sisters; F. V. Hobart, Hazel Dell; James Kirkwood, Hull; J. O. Davis, Eugene; George Perquin, Roseburg, and W. L. Lamb, Yoncalla.

The men are appointed as near these ranges as possible, owing to the short time of service and the small compensation.

Discharged.

Elmer Musser, was discharged from the county jail Monday upon payment of the remainder of his fine which was eleven dollars.

This leaves the jail empty, he having been the only prisoner.

CASCADE RESERVE WILL STAND

An Official From Washington, D. C., Now Investigating the Causes of Forest Fires.

Prof. Fredrick V. Covill, curator of the National Museum at Washington, D. C. and in the service of the department of Botany arrived here from Portland last night and will leave at once for the Cascades on business of economic botany.

Mr. Covill was a member of the party which just made the ascent of Mt. St. Helens and he will join two other Eastern experts at Hazel Dell from which point they will go up to the summit on the military road. Ponies were purchased here by them.

The special mission of the party is to investigate the economic botany of this section of Oregon, and Prof. Covill is also collecting and classifying Oregon flora in general—Eugene Register.

Before going to Eugene Prof. Covill was in Marion county for two days gathering information as to the possibility of traversing with his experimental outfit, the summit of the Cascades from Mt. Jefferson to Mt. Hood. He intends starting on the summit of the Cascades east of Hazel Dell in Lane county and traveling right along the crest or summit of the range all the way north to the Columbia river, much of the distance supposed to have never been traversed by a white man. Prof. Covill will take two men with him and perhaps some pack animals. While in Marion county he went out to the Waldo Hills to consult with Judge Waldo as to trails and way of travel between Mt. Jefferson and Mt. Hood. He also consulted with Hon. John Hinto and Hon. T. W. Davenport, respectively Secretary of the State Board of Horticulture and Lieut. Land Agent, while in Salem. Prof. Covill learned that the opposition to the Cascade Reserve is almost entirely exhausted. The opponents of the Reserve compromised with the supporters of it by agreeing that the government should allow the Reserve to stand and should give $175,000 for its protection and care instead of $75,000 as heretofore. The object of Prof. Covill's present expedition is "to ascertain the most common causes of destructive forest fires, their extent, approximate damage, and if possible to suggest ways and means and plans for their prevention in the future."

A ROMAN'S VIEW.

Hans C. Walberg, the hop buyer and commission merchant, has issued a circular in which he says:

Our hop yards, as a whole are doing nicely and, with the exception of the appearance of lice in many of them, indicate a good healthy growth.

The main factor in producing a good hop crop, qualitatively and quantitatively, is the weather. This has been all through, since the roots showed life this spring, as suitable as if it were made to order. In consequence the growth of the plants have been progressing steadily, and their present appearance bids fair to yield a good, medium size crop, providing no unforeseen detriments occur before picking time. In many yards, especially on the East side of the Willamette, there is a small percentage of missing hills, or non productive roots, but they will hardly cut any figure as to minimize to any extent, the usual crop of Oregon.

As was to be expected the lice that were so troublesome last year, seem ready to visit our plantations also this season, although so far, in a very mild form, and the growers, educated from previous sad experience in that line, now being well and better prepared to fight the unwelcome foe, this pest will hardly gain any headway or have any show to bother us much, especially if this warm weather keeps on.

About 2800 bales of 1897 hops are still in the state, perhaps 800 of which can be classified as merchantable goods, whereas the remainder is hardly worth the baling-cloth. Prices are ranging from 2 to 4 cents according to grades with very few sales on hand. Our local market seems to be dead as a consequence of the discouraging reports and lack of demand from England and the eastern states.

A Bicycle Accident.

Misses May and Maud Miller, daughters of Mr. Moses Miller of this city now residing at Knox's Butte, went to Sodalville Saturday on their bicycles for an outing. Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock Miss Maud got on her bicycle to ride down the steep road towards the Evangelical church. She was going at such a rate that she lost her pedals and the bicycle ran wild.

At the turn at the corner she was thrown off striking upon a rock, near one of her temples, and knocking her insensible, in which condition she remained during the day, this morning showing partial consciousness. It was reported that her neck was broken and as well that there had been a concussion of the brain, but Dr. Jones, who attended her and who was in the city today, reported that these were not true, and that she would probably recover. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were sent for and are at her bedside.

The accident to Miss Miller occurred in about the same place as that to Prof. Morton several months ago, from the effects of which she never fully recovered.—Albany Democrat.

HOPS AND CROPS.

Letters From a Grower and the Views of a Buyer.

POLK COUNTY HOPS. July 29, 1898.

Some of the hopyards along the Luckiemute River look very well. Some of them will have a full crop this season, and furnish a better hop than last year. Some of the growers think that spraying hurts the hops, but I do not, as I spray every year, and have sprayed this year and my yard looks fine. My opinion is that the warm winter and the late frosts this spring is the cause of their not coming up. The hop lice have put in their appearance in most of the yards, but as the weather is so warm I do not think they will do much damage. Since spraying my vines they look clean and nice, but I think the growers have got to do something to put up a better quality or they must not pick such trash as some did last year or we will have to quit the business, as the Oregon hop will drop out of the market if the quality is not improved.

Threshing has commenced in Polk county and the crops are not as good as expected.

A QUESTION OF HONOR.

Dr. Guiss' Views On the Question of the Philippines.

WOODBURN, July 30.

EDUCED JOURNAL.—It was generally conceded that an intervention in behalf of humanity was demanded, and it only remained to be seen what nation possessed this quality in a degree sufficient to have it materialize.

Let it be said to the honor and credit of the United States that she possessed this quality, and had the courage of her convictions to enforce it.

It, therefore follows, that since the United States took the initiative she is bound by honor and general consent to consummate her humane undertaking, and to carry out her mission she must possess the Philippines, for without them all the blood and treasure would be without avail, and the United States would be declared incompetent for the undertaking.

To Cleanse the System. Effectually yet gently, when constive or bilious or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently overcome habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds, or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.
