Mystic Murder

Daughter of a New York Contractor Killed.

New York, Aug. 1 - Election in New York today, but the results are not yet known.

The mystery of the death of a young woman, who was found dead in a room in the Hotel St. John, is still unsolved. The woman was last seen alive early this morning, when she left the hotel in a taxi. She was last seen alive early this morning, when she left the hotel in a taxi.

The body was discovered by a concierge who, on entering the room, found the woman lying on the bed, apparently dead. The police were immediately notified, and a coroner's inquest was held.

The coroner's inquest was held, and the body was examined by Dr. C. L. Martin, the coroner. The cause of death was certified to be that of a heart disease.

The woman was identified as Miss Mabel Smith, a young woman who had been living in the hotel for some time. She was a native of New York, and had been living in the hotel for some time. She was a native of New York, and had been living there for some time.

The body was taken to the morgue, and an autopsy was performed.
