Del Norte, the guideless wonder, the horse that is to appear at our state fair, made a record at Independence yesterday that beats the world. He paced a mile in 2:41, making the first half mile in one minute flat. This feat was performed without horses or driver. Del Norte is a beautiful coal black, 15 hands and 3 inches high, 10 years old, and is a full brother to the great pacer Chehalis, with a record of 2:04!

Hon. J. N. Brown has withdrawn from the law firm of Bagley & Brown and has removed with his family to Salem. Mr. Brown makes this change on account of his health, which broke down here. During the year he was in business in Hillsboro he made many friends. This he will do where ever he goes for his professional training, deep reading and sterling honesty are elements that attract and hold friends as well as clients. But most of all will society miss Mrs. Brown, for her musical acquirement and critical art taste are invaluable to a community.—Hillsboro Independent.

A Surprise.
Calling at the tailoring rooms of C. H. Lane, on State street, the writer was surprised to find what a large stock of fall and winter fabrics that gentlemen has placed in stock. He employs a large corps of competent helpers, and works hard for the prosperity which he richly deserves.

HIS LAST SERMON.

The Pastorate of Rev. Geo. W. Grannis Ended Last Evening.
The Methodist Church on State street was crowded last evening with Salem people to listen to the final sermon delivered by Rev. Geo. W. Grannis.

By the rules of the Methodist church a minister can only serve five years in one place in ten years. Rev. Grannis having served five years as the pastor of the M. E. Church here will now be transferred to another field. The pastor opened his remarks with a brief outline of his five years work here and took leave of his congregation in touching terms. He chose as his theme for the evening discourse "Salem's advantages from our obligations to Willamette University." He said in general: "It is not for the ministers to say where the university should be located, but the people of Salem have it in their own power to decide the question. The community has not supported the school as it should. All the educational work should be done by Willamette and the parents of Salem should stand behind the school with their children, and efforts and money and help the pioneer institution in every way. It has not as good advantages as some other colleges but in the main its advantages compare favorably with other schools. When scholars go from Willamette to other schools they are graded as they were in Willamette and do not have to fall back a year in their work."

The interest of the people is centered in a low plane. The people think only of the commercial and financial advantages derived from Willamette's presence and do not take into consideration its advantages, morally, religiously, spiritually, socially or educationally. The people know that it would be a great calamity to the town if the university were removed from Salem, and she should not suffer from any lack of support from Salem and her people. We ought to bend our every effort and help her in her molding of the intellect of the younger generation. The university, will have to look to Salem for support and solution and the noontide greeting should be "What can we do for Willamette?" Every effort should be bent for her advancement and soon we would be a powerful faction in the school. We should lend our efforts to strengthening the faculty. Tacoma has pledged $3000 a year for 3 years to support the Tacoma university and Salem should at least pay Willamette's floating debt and give her $1500 a year to carry on the great work till the present crisis is past."

Dr. Parsons was introduced and also made a plea for the old school reviewing her past record and future prospects.
Mr. Hawley wished to make a few announcements and took the stand. He eulogized Rev. Grannis and spoke of his good wishes in Salem in a fervent manner. The university will open on Tuesday morning and Thursday the first chapel exercises will be held. These exercises are public and a special program will be presented. Prof. Francisco Seely, of Canton, O., the new director of the music conservatory, will be at the chapel exercises on Thursday.
The outlook for the year is good, and an increased attendance is expected.

OUR SOLDIER BOYS.

Governor Lord Reports on the Conditions at the Presidio.

The members of Battery B, were granted a 30 day furlough Saturday morning and left for their homes on the evening overland. The Salem contingent reached home at 8:25 and were given a royal welcome by the crowd congregated at the depot to meet them. The battery yell was given as the train pulled out and good byes were shouted from friend to friend. The boys look well in their new uniforms and appear to have enjoyed their outing immensely. One Salem boy alone did not return with his comrades; John W. Cochran who is invalided at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. He has been suffering with pneumonia and pleurisy, but we are pleased to state is rapidly nearing recovery and will be able to return to his home by the middle or last of the week.
The boys still receive their monthly allowance of $15, plus a daily stipend of 20c, which amount is expected to feed them while on their vacation.
Upon the expiration of their furlough the boys will report at Portland when they will either be discharged or ordered into service to do garrison duty. It is generally conceded however that they will be mustered out.

Governor Lord, has completed his investigation of the condition of the 340 recruits of the Second Oregon volunteers, and has telegraphed to the secretary of war that he has found everything satisfactory. The governor and Colonel Tuttle, adjutant-general of the National Guard, left for home Sunday evening.

Improvements.
Mr. John Spaniol, the Stayton miller, was in this city today. He says he is just putting in a new universal blitter and making many other improvements. He is putting in more cleaning capacity and another double roller.
When the above improvements are completed the Stayton mill, owned and operated by John Spaniol & Sons, will be one of the best in the valley, and they will endeavor to improve upon that now famous flour, the "Lilly White." Messrs. Spaniol & Sons will be in the market after this week and will buy all good wheat offered and serve their patrons to the best of their ability.

ANOTHER LONG JOURNEY.

The Oregon and the Iowa Will Be Running Mates.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The navy department is shifting some officers of the battleships Oregon and Iowa, preparatory to their departure from New York, on a long cruise to San Francisco, by way of the straits of Magellan, Collier Cassius, Scandia, Alexander and Abernethy will accompany the battleships on their voyage.

Assaulted Two Society People.
BUCKNER, Mo., Sept. 12.—Charles Hamilton, a prominent young man of Buckner, rode up behind Mary Charleston and John Martin, young society people of that town, as they were returning home on a country road at midnight last night, and without apparent reason shot and wounded both.

The first bullet struck Miss Charleston in the back, causing her to fall to the bottom of the buggy. A second bullet hit Martin in the shoulder and caused him to drop the reins. The horse took fright and galloped off. Hamilton sending a few stray bullets after it. The wounds received by Miss Charleston and Martin were dressed at Buckner, where they arrived and reported the affair early this morning. The condition of neither is considered serious.

During the day Hamilton was arrested, but soon released by his uncle, who is a constable. When the affair became known, a considerable feeling was aroused and a posse spent the day in an unsuccessful search for the would-be murderer. No motive for the assault is known. All concerned are about 18 years of age and prominent. Miss Charleston is the daughter of a wealthy farmer, and Martin is the son of Postmaster Lloyd Martin, of Buckner.

Cattle Recovered.
FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 12.—Secretary Loring, of the Texas Cattle Raisers Association, received word from Moberly, Mo., that Inspector Dilson, of the association, has recovered three carloads of cattle which had been stolen from the Dennis ranch near Chickasha, Indian territory. The cattle were recognized by the brand they bore.
