LICENSED
To Kill!

After Long Illness Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Good Health—How as Strong as Ever.

"After an illness of two years, during which time I underwent several surgical operations, I at last began to improve, but my improvement was so slow that I became discouraged. I was very much run down and I did not have any appetite.
I did not care to live. One day I met a friend who had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and who urged me to try it. I consented, and after I had taken a few doses I began to feel better and had a better appetite.
I gained from two to three pounds a week and grew stronger every day. I took two or three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and am as strong as I ever was in my life.
Hood's Sarsaparilla has brought me back to health." EMILY BRIDGEMAN, 16 Grand Avenue, South Portland, Oregon.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Program for the Week of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in Boston.

Salem and Oregon are represented at the national assemblage of the above order by Ex-Mayor and Mrs.
Claude Gatch and will be interested in the plans of work and entertainment for the week.

The session of the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows in Boston September 17 to 24 will bring together all the notable lights of a Massachusetts mark the elevation of a Massachusetts man, Alfred S. Pinkerton of Worcester.
The program for the week of the sovereign grand lodge in Music hall at 7:45. This is one of the most delightful occasions of the week.

Wednesday is set apart for the parade, the lodge sessions being adjourned at noon to allow members to participate. There will be five grand divisions: First, Patriarchs Militant; second, the encampment branch, wearing the old royal purple uniforms, as an escort to the officers of grand encampment; third, the subordinate lodges, being escorted to the grand lodge officers; fourth, officers and members of the sovereign grand lodge; fifth, carriages for the aged and infirm and the residents of the Odd Fellows' home in Worcester.

Saturday, the 17th, will be devoted to a review of old friendships and the making of new, and at 10 o'clock a boat will be taken for a sail to Salem Willows, where all will become the guests of the Salem Odd Fellows, and a state dinner will be served.

Sunday, Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale's church of the Disciples will hold special services, Dr. Hale preaching especially to the fraternity.
Other churches also give cordial invitations to visiting Odd Fellows.

Monday, at Young Men's Christian association hall, corner of Boylston and Berkeley streets, the annual session will open. At 9:30 a. m. will come the welcome to the state by Gov.
Wolcott, to the city by Mayor Quincy, on behalf of the grand lodge of Massachusetts by Grand Master Terrell, for the encampment branch by Grand Patriarch Fuller and Mrs. Mary E.
Nevins, of Salem, will speak for the Rebekahs. The response will be by

There will be some amendments to the constitution presented, but that looking to biennial sessions will be deferred, as will the 18 year admission limit a school for correspondence is up for adoption which will go the same way. The official certificate has been perfected, so that it is now proving the wisdom of its adoption and will not be disturbed. There are many matters that are of interest to the order, that will be the subjects of the consideration of the best and strongest minds among them being fraternal insurance and the restoration of the royal purple uniform to the encampments. During the week many of the Boston lodges keep open house and several have prepared elaborate presentations of the work, while others have entertainments and banquets in honor of special guests, in fact the week bids fair to be one of the brightest and best of the many meetings held.

The train may be six hours late in reaching Salem but the Salem public is never six minutes late in ordering

The State Fair.

An Extra Fine Floral Display Is Already Assured.

Some of the First Families of Oregon
Will Be On Hand.

Every day is now a busy day at the fair grounds, and many visitors are already seen on the premises.
The street cars do not yet run to the gates, except by request, but on Monday they will extend their trips to the entrance. The "big car" line has one of the "little cars," on a broad gauge truck, attending to the fair grounds branch at present, but the travel will soon demand more room.

Inside of the enclosure the ground has been cleaned up, all trash being removed or buried.
At the south end of the pavilion, in usual place, will be a floral display, which will be well worthy of attention of all lovers of flowers. Space has already been assigned to Mrs. M. V.
Taylor, of the Avenue Greenhouse; J.
V. Haas, of the Riverside Greenhouse; Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, of the Nob Hill Greenhouse, and W. G. Wallace, florist, late of Portland and the East, who now has a magnificent display of flowers and shrubbery at the Willamette hotel.

Machinery Hall, at the west of the pavilion, and which has recently been doubled in capacity, will be occupied, among others, by E. M.
Croisan, with wagons, bugles and farming implements; Studebaker Bros. the same; Mitchell, Lewis & Staver, the same, with the addition of a complete line of bicycles; and R. M. Wade & Co. with a good representation of their extensive line of hardware, farming implements and bicycles.
The Columbia implement company will have a complete dairy exhibit in operation, working up about one thousand pounds of milk per day. Two tile factories will be represented here, the Murphy factory and the Newberg factory. Burton Brothers, of the brick yard near the penitentiary, will have a line of their products in this building. W. F. Boothby, will display an irresistible stump-puller, and Mrs. Peterson will show a new pruner-dredger.

Among the entries for stock exhibits, the following are noticed: Mr. Johnson, of Mehama, 10 head of black Aberdeens; George Chandler, Baker City, 11 head of Short horns and Herefords; D. H. Luoney, Jefferson, 17 head of Jerseys; W. H. Say-salem, 15 head of Jerseys; Chas. Miller, Jefferson, 15 head of Jerseys; Joseph Early, Salem, 6 head of Jerseys; M. Porter, Corvallis, 12 head of Polled Angus; George Miller, Fairfield, 4 head of Angus and 20 head of Goats; The Asylum farm, 16 head Holsteins; Henry Downing Sublimity, exhibits 9 head of draft and thoroughbred horses; Amos Nichols, Plainville, 11 head. Imported horses: Fletcher, Salem, 4 head draft; and William Clag-gett, Salem, and N. Hartley Macleay, each 5 head of draft horses.

Of Swine, C. N. Smith, Jefferson, will have 17 pens; W. W. Cotton, Portland; 12 pens; and Mr. Commons, 17 pens; all Poland China.

No arrangement has yet been made with the Silette Indians.

Their manager Charley Depot, has been in Salem and offers to bring about ten men and four women of his people with full paraphernalia of ancient dress, weapons, implements, cooking utensils, etc., to give a faithful illustration of their former mode of life before the whites penetrated to this country.

He claims to faithfully reproduce their customs, sports, war dances, etc.
He and his people have already traveled quite extensively, giving exhibitions, and Chas. Gray, who has seen their outfit, says that they are well provided with dress and apparatus for giving a unique show. But they ask a larger sum for their appearance than Secretary Gabrielson feels justified in giving out of the society funds.

They make an alternative proposition however, by which, if they are admitted to the grounds and furnished with a suitable tent, they will give their exhibition as a private enterprise, charging admission to the tent.

Their head man, Charley Depot, seems to have a keen eye for business, and there is no doubt that some arrangements will be made with him.

Geo. D. Goodhue, who has charge of the poultry department, was seen this morning and expressed himself as being well satisfied with the prospect for a good show in the line. Many entries are being made daily by parties whose participation insures the presence of many fine birds.

Entries for premiums are this year confined to residents of Oregon. Fowl from outside of the state will be entered for exhibition only. Heretofore the premiums competition has been open to neighboring states, and some premiums have been carried off by outsiders by means of methods far from legitimate. Last year some fanciers from a neighboring state pooled their issues, and made up pens of fowls by selecting single birds from different owners and combining them temporarily into so-called "pens," a pen consisting of one male and three females.

Superintendent Goodhue has also received offers this year from outside parties, who wished to "complete" if they were "insured" as many premiums as they received last year, as a special inducement they were willing to give a lot of free advertising in their vicinity to Mr. Goodhue's private yards here.

To those who know Mr. Goodhue, it is unnecessary to specify where he advised those people to go. He has made the poultry department a success by a system of energetic pushing and fair dealing, refusing to mix his private affairs therein, even to the extent of putting his own fine fowls in competition. He says, however, that this is his last year as superintendent, a resolution which poultry lovers will greatly regret.

ABOUT RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

How Somebody is Jobbing the Navigation Interests of the Willamette.

W. B. Robinson writes to THE JOURNAL from Portland, under date September 16:
"At a meeting of the Port of Portland commission on the 8th of this month, a report written by A. L.
Pearse, river pilot, was read, recommending permanent works in the river, projects of his own, such as dams for diverting the water from sloughs, and to change the course of the Willamette River at the junction with the Columbia, all of which comes within the province of the United States government, and any recommendation for the permanent improvement of the Columbia and Willamette rivers should be made by the United States engineer officer, under whose charge this work belongs, and be paid for by the government.
He is the best judge of, and will doubtless recommend what is necessary.

Let us have no meddling from totally incompetent and irresponsible persons. Let the pilot and steamboat man attend to his own particular line, and leave river improvements to the United States engineer.
"The taxpayers of Portland have not forgotten the commissions experienced in the construction of the so-called permanent improvements on the rivers, and they would very much prefer to have them refrain from any further attempts in that line. It is to be hoped however that commission will devote its energies to making a success of that new hydraulic dredge, which cost $50,000, including $10,000 royalty paid to the Bowers Dredging Company, to say nothing of the changes, which have been, and will continue to be, made.

"This dredge has been four months at the mouth of the Willamette river trying to remove the bar there, work which a dredge of that size should have done in ten days. Two loaded vessels were detained nine days on account of this shoal, a very unsatisfactory showing, and one which gives very little encouragement to people interested in the shipping interests of the city."

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.

It Began Friday at Sundown and Ends at Sundown Saturday.

The Jewish New Year began at 6 o'clock Friday evening, and by the most orthodox of that faith it is celebrated two consecutive days.

Before the departure of the Israelites from Egypt their years began at the autumnal equinox. But after their dispersion they had recourse to the astronomical rules and cycles of the more enlightened heathens.

Soon after the Nicene council, the Jews, in imitation of the Christians abandoned the cycle of 84 years adopting that of Maton, by which the lunilar year of the present day is regulated. This improvement was first proposed by Rabbi Samuel, and was finally accomplished in the year 300 of Christian era, by Rabbi Hillel, who introduced the year which the Jews at present follow.

Till the Fifteenth century the Jews usually followed the era of Seleucides, or of centuries. Since that time they have generally employed a mundane era, and dated from the creation of the world.

The day was observed by the Hebrews at Salem, by abstention from business and family observance of the religious regulations of their faith.

Senator Hazlettine of Portland was in town Wednesday.

To Answer a Charge.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The secretary of the navy has ordered a court-martial, for the trial of Chaplain Mc-Intire, of the Oregon, who is accused of publicly denouncing his brother of fears, who engaged in the battle of July 3. The court will meet in Denver on the 20th inst., and will consist of seven members, headed by Captains McCann, retired, with Captain Lauchheimer as judge advocate-general.

Hillsboro—Mrs. James H. Swell died at her home two miles from this city yesterday. She was born in Washington county in the '50's a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Allen, early pioneers. She was married to James H. Swell, May 28 1871.

Beautiful Pastel Pictures

They are 13x19 inches in size, and are entitled as follows:

- Lilacs and Pansies.
- Pansies and Marguerites.
- Wild American Poppies.
- Lilacs and Iris.

These rare pictures, four in number, by the renowned pastel artist, R. E. Roy, of New York, have been chosen from the very choicest subjects in his studio and are now offered for the first time to the public.
The pictures are accurately reproduced in all the colors used in the originals, and are pronounced by competent critics, works of art.
Pastel pictures are the correct thing for the home, nothing surpassing them in beauty, richness of color and artistic merit.
