JOURNAL "X-RAYS."

Is Flag of Marion, the retrenchment candidate for Speaker?

What is the matter with that bright young man Kelly of Lion, for senator?

There's no place can roam Binger Hermann like the Salem Republican cockpit.

The Salem Emergency Corps ladies do not take easily to the too much red tape of the Red Cross.

What has Lawyer Hammer done that a Republican paper should try to ridicule on him? He is a stalwart of Statwarts.

A Portland paper that is championing Mr. Corbett could very easily let up on abuse of any other possible candidate.

Joint Senator L. L. Porter, of Clackamas and Marion counties conducts a very well edited Republican organ but don't discuss the senatorship.

Capt. H. L. Heath writes from Manila, August 4: The McMinville boys are all well today, and not one of them has had a serious illness.

An Exchange says: All the preachers are in favor of holding the Philippines. They see great possibilities for doing good in a country that knows nothing about the church school.

The military necessity of governing the Philippines and West Indies will be beneficial in revealing to the people of our country the necessity of taking the army entirely out of the control of politicians.

Toledo Leader, Union: J. H. Mitchell will develop more strength than is generally supposed. We don't think the people on Yaquina Bay would take it to heart if he should succeed in getting there.

The Republican organs are severe in ruling Chas. W. Fulton of Astoria, out of the Senatorial race. They were mighty glad to have him plead for unity and harmony at the state convention.

McManus & Smith who conduct the Pendleton Republican in the interest of the Mitchell wing and to make war on Hon. J. O. Simon, are bombing Hon. Chas. W. Fulton for United States senator and president of the senate.

The next United States senator from Oregon will not be H. W. Corbett, but one of the following: H. H. Hewitt, of Linn; W. L. Toozee, of Marion; M. C. George, of Multnomah, or Judge Lowell, of Eastern Oregon.—Rep. Ex.

An Albany paper objects to Salem claiming the discovery of an oil well. It says we ought to be satisfied to have a special session of legislature, and not want the whole earth and its contents. Just the same, we have an oil well. It is not a spouter but it would be if it were at Albany.

The Mitchellite organ at Woodburn has this, which indicates that there is a division of opinion among the anti-Simon money republicans:

Governor-elect Geer has nothing to do with the speaker of the house opening election returns and announcing that Mr. Geer is governor of Oregon. Even were he disposed to block such action, he could not unobtrusively stand in the way of Secretary Kincaid will have to fulfill the duty required by law. There are many ways to make a hitch in legislative proceedings, and this is one of them. There will be lots of fun at the extra session, and the taxpayers will have the fun of paying for the fun.

Judge Bean would make an ideal United States Senator. Why not turn down invalid Corbett and elect a young man, Judge Bean is a deep thinker and an honest and conscientious gentleman.—Eugene Guard.

The Guard does Mr. Corbett an injustice. He is an active business man conducting large business affairs. He commanded the highest respect in Washington while there last winter.

Hon. Binger Hermann was ban-queted by admiring friends, irrespective of political faith, in Roseburg last week. The event, no doubt, was intended as an "opening" for Binger's senatorial campaign and likely served its purpose, as it afforded an opportunity for the gentleman to highly compliment his former colleagues in congress, Senators Dolph and Mitchell. This is no fight of ours, but we would like to say that the election of Hermann to the senate would mean double for our rivers and harbors what any other representative would secure in appropriations.—Coquille Bulletin.

An exchange says that Mitchell will start in on the fight with $100,000 on hand. That ought to get a senatorship in Oregon. The statement though needs to be taken with a great deal of allowance.—Democrat. The Albany paper is mighty right. Mr.
Mitchell and his friends who are still in a personal way regret his unfortunate straddle on the money question. He built a high sharp-pointed free-coinage piling about his political preserves and he's banging on his own fence by his trousers seat.

A Portland paper prints a handsome picture of Hon. E. H. Flag, "ehampion of retrenchment in Marion county." The Portland Republican Oregonian says:

"The platform pledged the party to a reduction of county salaries from $2,500 to $12,500 a year. Some think the reduction promised is unreasonable. Representative Flag is one of those who believe people are tired of platform promises that are never carried out, and will devote his best endeavors to secure the promised $10,000 reduction in county officials' salaries.

Miss Marian Grace Perkins Returned Home in Time for Her Own Funeral.
The supposed victim of the Bridgeport Connecticut murder, Miss Marian-Grace Perkins, arrived at her home Saturday afternoon in the best of health, to the great joy of her family and the unbounded astonishment of the whole community.

Her father was not in town at the time of his daughter's arrival, as he went on his way back to Bridgeport, with the gruesome remains which he had identified as those of Grace, and for which funeral arrangements, including the digging of a grave, had already been completed.

Miss Perkins came from Providence, R. I., and was accompanied by her lover, Charles Bourne, and at first it was stated that the couple had been married. This was afterwards denied by young Bourne.

Just across the street from the Perkins house is a little cemetery, and this morning, in response to a request of the family of Miss Perkins, a grave had been dug by the sexton in the family lot. Half an hour after Miss Perkins arrived home, the local undertaker's wagon drove up to the house, and in it was a coffin which had been ordered by the family.

H. W. Corbett, the well-known banker of Portland, who was appointed by Governor Lord, after the death of the last session, but was refused admission to the senate, is undoubtedly in the lead at the pre-support of the 14 members from Mult-

been at work ever since he was re-

C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, who is a state senator, would not object to the higher honor, but his following is small.
Ex-Congressman Binger Hermann, commissioner of the general land office, it is understood has a number of followers, but his former position on the money question will undoubtedly keep him out of the senate. The present legislature was elected on a gold platform and the man who goes to the senate must be pronounced in favor of that policy.
Congressman Thomas H. Tongue of the First district would be satisfactory to furnish the following articles in case of a deadlock the mantle might fall on his shoulders.
Governor Lord, it is understood, is out of the race. The report here is that at the expiration of his term in January, he will take up his residence in Portland and become a member of the law firm of Dolph, Mallory & Simon.
State Senator Joseph Simon, it is said, has hopes of becoming a compromise candidate in the event that Corbett cannot be elected. Simon engineered the state campaign in June and it is known that he has a number of warm personal friends in the legislature who would like to see him go to the United States senate.
T. T. Geer, governor-elect, is a popular man, as was shown by the vote in June, and he probably has fewer enemies than any of the other candidates mentioned. Many believe the will be a successful candidate, owing chiefly to the fact that he has not taken part in the factional quarrels of the republican party during the two years past. Should Geer be elected senator, he would not qualify as governor, which would leave Governor Lord two years longer to serve, as the governor's term does not expire until his successor is elected and qualified.

THE SENATORSHIP.
A Sensible Review of the Situation and Candidates in Oregon.
(Vale Malheur Co., Silver Advocate).
The Governor's call for an extra session of the state legislature for September 25, has again started speculation on the question of who is to be United States senator. There are numerous candidates for the vacancy, but at this time is difficult for any candidate to correctly measure his strength.

H. W. Corbett, the well-known

THE SENATORSHIP.
A Sensible Review of the Situation and
Candidates in Oregon.
(Vale Malheur Co., Silver Advocate).
session of the state legislature for
numerous candidates for the vacancy,
but at this time is difficult for any

strength.
H. W. Corbett, the well-known
death of the last session, but was
sent time. He will no doubt have the support of the 14 members from Multnomah county, which is a good nucleus to build up from. Corbett has been at work ever since he was refused admission by the senate and it is known that he has pledged from a number of members from the interior counties.
