MEMORIAL SERVICES

To Be Held by Courts in Honor of the late J. J. Shaw.

Attorney Pogue Will Take an Appeal in the Witt Case.

When Judge Hornet adjourned court yesterday he announced that his department would meet again October 31, when the two departments would meet in conjunction and a memorial service would be held in honor of the late Judge J. J. Shaw. A committee of prominent attorneys will prepare a program for that occasion.

In the matter of Mr. Pogue's application to set aside judgment in the case of Witt, who was indicted by the late grand jury on two charges, and sentenced by Judge Burnett to three years in the penitentiary, the attorney was not allowed to show reasons why his client should have a new trial.

Mr. Pogue now claims that a great injustice is being done his client, inasmuch as the grand jury which brought the indictment was declared illegal by the court, and he will take an appeal of the case to the supreme court. The fact that the court refuses to allow the prosecuting attorney his legal fees for indictments brought by the same grand jury, on the ground of the illegality of that grand jury, is taken as the strongest reason why the work of the grand jury should be considered void in all the cases before it. The question naturally arising would be, can a grand jury be illegal in one case and still send a victim to the penitentiary in another?

History of That Grand Jury.

The late grand jury was drawn in the first instance according to the constitution. But afterwards one of the grand jury, Mr. Fitzgerald, claimed that owing to sickness he was not fit to sit upon the grand jury. That matter being reported to Judge Burnett, under whose supervision and control the grand jury is drawn, he thereupon directed the court clerk to draw another name out of the jury box to take Fitzgerald's place, which was done. Hence the illegality of the body, as Judge Burnett afterwards held. Inasmuch as twelve names had already been drawn from the box, the full quota of thirty-one names were not then in it, as required by the constitution.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

Filed by Governor Lord Without His Signature.

About 10 o'clock today the appropriation bill passed by the extra session was turned over from the governor's office to Secretary of State Kneidel. The document does not bear the approval of Oregon's chief executive, and consequently will become a law tonight at midnight. The clerks in the secretary of state's office will be ready Saturday morning to pay claims provided for in the same.

The law passed by the legislature providing for the payment of $1.50 per day to persons who attempted to enlist with the soldiers who went to Manila from Oregon, probably only includes those persons who were members of militia companies before they enlisted or volunteered for the United States service. It will not include persons who attempted to enlist in the two batteries nor persons who attempted to enlist with the Oregon recruits who went to San Francisco later than the first shipment. The law reads plainly and only gives pay to rejected maintainers or Oregon National Guardsmen. Adjutant General Tuttle will be required to furnish the secretary of state a list of all those rejected maintainers and their time, and they will then get paid. The law is a little one-sided in not giving the pay to all persons who volunteered in good faith whether members of militia companies or not.

The new law absolutely prohibits the killing of elk for ten years. It should have made it perpetual hereafter. There are only a few of the noble beasts running wild in the Oregon forests and they should be protected. They are like the buffalo. They disappear before the withering breath of civilization. This last summer some hunters in the isolated precincts of the head waters of the Nehalem found a small band of elk and killed nine of them. It may have been this terrible slaughter of the beautiful beasts that inspired the Astoria gentleman to pass the law making it unlawful to kill elk. The hunters in the remote regions of the Cascade and Coast mountains should take notice that the penalty is very severe the least fine being $100 and the least time of imprisonment three months or both fine and imprisonment. It is to be hoped that at the end of ten years some legislator will have the time indefinitely extended.

Late oriental News.

Late news from China has reached Vancouver, giving an account of the beheading of eight subordinate leaders of the Kwangsi rebellion, at Wu Chow. They were carried in baskets through the principal streets as a warning spectacle, amidst the laughing and jeers of men, women and children.

Ten thousand people witnessed the decapitation, and made it a gala day. Little children copied their parents, who joked the dying rebels a second before the ax fell. When all was over the children played among the headless, bleeding corpses and made sport with the black, disfigured heads.

Mandarins and headmen improvised a sort of Maypole, and the heads of the rebels were placed on top in tiers, the children dancing around them. The governor advised the mandarins to make the beheading as festive as possible, so as to inspire disgust for the rebels in the hearts of the people. A banquet was afterward spread.

The Japan Mail says a petition has been sent to the government by foreign consuls requesting that beheading be discontinued.

Oregon Hop Sales.

Independence—The entire hop crop is now in the bale, and the greater portion has been sold, only a few lots remaining unsold. Owing to the superior quality of the hops produced this year, the prevailing price has been 15 cents per pound. About 47 carloads have been shipped from here so far this year. The scarcity of cars has greatly retarded the movement of the crop. H. Hirschbirt shipped by special freight seven full carloads, the first of the week.

The Independence fruitdrier will begin drying apples Monday. The continued fine weather has enabled farmers to get their apples to the drier, and between 8000 and 10,000 bushels are now on hand.

Farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather by sowing their fall grain.

At Hillsboro a hop sale involving 97,000 pounds was made within the last day or so. The J. C. Buchanan estate, of Cornelius, sold 50,000 pounds; George Susbauer, Cornelius, 20,000, and Mulloy Bros., Haythorne, Womer & Schmeidler, of Laurel, a pool of 27,000 pounds. The price paid was 12 cents. There are yet several fine lots of unsold hops in the country, which are being held for better prices.

A pool of 200,000 pounds of dried prunes was sold at Albany Thursday to Lang & Co., of Portland, at 3 and 3 1/2 cents. The lot will make seven carloads.

CONQUEST COMPLETE.

All Insurgents Agree to Reinquish Their Last Foothold in Manila.
A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: The insurgent General, Pio Pico, has agreed to evacuate Pao Pao, the last suburb of Manila held by the Filipinos, October 25. This completes the American conquest of the city. The last rebel has left Cavite. The Americans now hold Cavite and Manila, the rest of the island of Luzon being in the hands of the insurrectionist faction.

How little power Aguinaldo possesses is shown by his refusal to grant passes to visit the interior, on the ground that the northern provinces are held by General Makabulos, who is in revolt against the Mala Los government.

Aguinaldo has ordered the release of the Spanish civilian prisoners taken at Iloilo.

Steamers under the American flag are forbidden to load by the native authorities unless they pay a tax of 3 per cent on their freight to the local government.

A large stock of tobacco was seized at Cagayan from the Compania General and from the factories. Aguinaldo refused to return the prize, as he requires funds.

Aguinaldo is preparing for a possible return of the islands to Spanish rule and will entertain no proposals from Spain. Every native is sworn to join his ranks in such an event. Of the Southern Islands, Mindanao would not combine against Spain.

There are two cases of smallpox this week, although the health of the troops show a slight improvement, there being few cases of typhoid fever and dysentery. There is still need for women nurses. Red Cross workers, after some slight hitches, are starting an ably managed auxiliary hospital for serious cases likewise a hospital for California troops. They contemplate opening still another home for the convalescents.

Drugs, food and supplies in the Red Cross Society's hands have been given to all soldiers without stint, as the necessities of the situation demand. There is great need now for money to aid in the extension of the work, and the fact cannot be too strongly impressed upon the people. The British warships Powerful and Rattler have been ordered to Hong Kong, it is said, on account of the number of cases of malarial fever aboard. There have been three deaths on the Powerful.

American Ships in Distress.

A late dispatch from Manila says: The United States cruiser Boston and the colliers Negro, which were on October 5 were ordered to proceed to Hong Kong in connection with the recent disturbances at and near Peking have arrived at Amoy in the province of Fo Chien, the former short of coal, and the latter with her cargo on fire.

Well authenticated reports have reached here of a terrible state of anarchy in the southern Philippines. The Spaniards there are cooped up in the principal towns. The Americans continue capturing the rebel vessels, as they arrive at Cavite. Two have been captured this week.

The capacity of its plant is 350 tons of beets every 24 hours, but Thursday 378 tons were handled, and there are now on hand 675,000 pounds of sugar. Yesterday Spokane telegraphed for three cars "B. S. O. E." (best sugar on earth). Portland ordered these cars, Walla Walla one, Pendleton one, Bacer City one, and three have been sold here. La Grande has been sending $3000 drafts about twice a month to San Francisco for sugar.
