LOST. A large dark brown St. Bernard dog, gray on haunches and tail. Return to A. F. Hofer, corner Chemeketa and 20th streets for reward.

George Francis Train, the famous sage of Madison Square, who has for thirty years declined the companionship of any one but children, says, "I am a child myself."

If a man will live rightly and take proper care of his health during youth and maturity he may live to a green old age, and still be able to say with absolute truth, "I am a child myself." Youth is not a matter of years. Happiness is not a question of experiences. Youth is happiness and health is youth. The healthy person, young or old, will be a happy person. It is a simple matter to get the body into a healthy condition and then to keep it there. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the greatest of health makers and health savers. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the appetite keen, the digestion and assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure, the muscles strong, the brain clear, the nerves steady and every vital organ in the body healthy and vigorous. It makes firm, healthy flesh, but does not make corpulent people more corpulent. It does not make flabby flesh like cod liver oil. It purifies the blood and drives out the poisons of malaria and rheumatism. It is the best remedy for blood and skin diseases. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. Grateful patients, who had been given up to die, have permitted their experiences, names, addresses and photographs to be reproduced in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The sufferer who wishes to investigate may write to any of these. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' is sold by all medicine dealers, and only unscrupulous dealers will try to induce a customer to take some worthless substitute for the sake of a few pennies added profit.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, for a copy of Dr. Pierce's 1008-page illustrated book, "Common Sense Medical Adviser," in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

LEGAL MATTERS.

Board of Agriculture Have Judgment Taken Against Them.

Judge Boise Grinds Out a Big Grist of Cases in Department Number 2.

Judge Burnett adjourned department No. 1 to Nov. 11th.

THE STATE FAIR CASE

Justice of the Peace H. A. Johnson rendered judgment against the State Board of Agriculture, in the case wherein M. V. Kays sued that body upon warrants issued in his favor for labor performed and goods furnished during the past year. The state board failed to appear in court, after its demurrer was overruled, evidently declining to plead further. Messrs. Brown, Myers and Wrightman, the new law firm win their first suit and get judgment for $205 on three warrants, and there is no reason why all warrants against the State Fair cannot be collected.

In the state fair board suit Atty. Gen. Idleman made a hard fight. It was the first time he had ever appeared in a Salem justice court. It had been supposed that he would not condescend to appear in any court but the supreme court, or a circuit court, and counsel for plaintiff noted that this was the first appearance of so high a law officer in a justice court. It seems it was a dead horse case out of which no private lawyer could extract a state fee.

A STRONG TEAM.

The Attorney General found the new law firm hot stuff. Hon. J. N Brown who has been in the legislature several times but is now out of politics, practiced ten years in Eastern Oregon and a year at Hillsboro. He is a well-posted counsellor and enjoys a reputation as a fighter in court for his client. Frank Wrightman, for ten years connected with the sheriff's office, has the most thorough legal knowledge in his field of any man in Marion county. This is the only lawfirm in town with a pure blonde—the red headed member being Jefferson Myers, who has a wide experience in legislation and public affairs. The client who gets this new team to pull for him will find he can plow a straight deep furrow.

ANOTHER NEW LAWYER WINS.

In the case of George F. Rodgers against the Northwestern Stove Foundry, no answer was made by the defendant and judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff for $126.31.

Edward Horgan, the young practicing attorney also won this his first suit in court. Young Horgan is a close legal student and a rustler.

Sugar War.

The sharp decline in the price of the western sugar refinery, to meet the cut of one-half cent per pound in the Arbuckles, who have entered the market as competitors with their eastern refined sugar, is regarded by the trade as the beginning of a merry war in which local consumers will be the gainers, jobbers will not suffer and the only losers will be the big refineries and a number of retail grocers, who are loaded up with sugar on a falling market.

The Arbuckles have sent their sugar to San Francisco for reasons best known to themselves. They are among the greatest producers of refined sugar in the east, and probably on this occasion have secured a special low rate of freight, which is to their advantage. Their local agent first offered sugar in this market at 5¼ cents, less ¼ cent rebate, delivered here in a few days, or at $4.72 per 100 pounds, free on board cars at New York. This was a reduction of one-half cent per pound. The Western Sugar Refining Company and the California Beet Sugar Company, which have been following the prices and working in harmony to that extent with the sugar, immediately met the cut and established the following prices: Cube (crushed and fine crushed) 6¢c; powdered, 6¼c; candy granulated, 5¾c; dry granulated, fine, 5¼c; confectioner, A, 5¼c; California A, 5¼c; Magnolia, 5¼c; Extra C, 5c; Golden C, 4¾c.

Does Your Grocer want you to have poor cake? No. He'll sell you Schilling's Best baking powder when enough of you say: "I want the best baking powder there is."

WALK ASHORE!

It all happened at one of those pleasant sea side resorts, where life is comedy from day to day and tragedy has no place. She just stepped on the raft which she thought was moored, and in pure idleness of mood fell to rocking it from side to side. But the raft was not moored. Her rocking had slowly dislodged it from the sand, on which it was grounded, and when she turned around, she was afloat and the shore a rod behind her. She cried for help and was heard by a lonely fisherman who sat at some distance on the beach mending his nets. How slowly he got up. How slowly he tramped across the sandy shore. And she was drifting, drifting, drifting! "Save me"! she cried, "save me"! as the old man came to the water's edge. The grizzled mariner raised his hand to the side of his mouth and cried hoarsely, "Walk ashore"!

That's all there was of it. She was still in shoal water. All she needed was the timely word of instruction and advice. But suppose it had not come? Suppose she had not heeded it? Was there no danger? The open sea, a frail raft, and a frailer woman!

The woman on the raft is a type of hundreds of thousands of her sex who are drifting into danger. Up to a definite day, they have been enjoying life in perfect security. Then, in a moment, a sense of impending danger comes. They are at the mercy of disease. Every day increases the danger. They are drifting, drifting, drifting. Then comes the cry for help. To thousands of appeals there has come the answer from Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.,

WALK ASHORE! WALK ASHORE!!

You are still in the shallow waters of disease. You can still get back without more than inconvenience to the land of health behind you. All you need is just the right word of advice and common sense instruction in time, and the grip of a helping hand. That is just what Dr. Pierce offers to every one suffering from disease; timely, health restoring, life saving advice, practical help. It requires some confidence to take advice when your own senses are against it. The woman on the raft could not see the bottom of the roily water, and the land looked so far away. So the woman in disease can't see how she can be cured, and recovery of health seems hopeless. And, perhaps, the very disease that has begun to threaten her is consumption, that dreadful disease regarded by millions as incurable. Her local doctors perhaps say, "we can make your suffering a little less, but there's no hope."

Does Dr. Pierce claim to cure consumption? That question isn't worth arguing. Look at the record. Take a case in point.

Here is a man (or woman) with a hacking cough, a hectic flush, night-sweats, great emaciation or wasting of flesh, spitting of blood, shortness of breath and all the other symptoms. After every remedy and every local physician has failed, he, as a last resort, takes "Golden Medical Discovery" and the cough vanishes, the cheek gets back its natural color, sleep becomes sound and refreshing, the spitting of blood stops, flesh and muscles become firm, weight increases, and life goes along in quiet and comfort to the full limit of the three score years and ten.

But may be it wasn't consumption after all? May be it wasn't. You know it was something that was attacking the very citadel of life, and it was something that was cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. And Dr. Pierce is curing such "somethings" right along with a record of over a quarter of a million cases, and not more than three per cent. of failures.

One fact, at least, is well established. That the "Golden Medical Discovery" does cure weak lungs, bleeding from lungs, obstinate, lingering coughs, laryngitis, bronchitis, throat disease, and kindred affections of the air passages, which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to consumption, can no longer be doubted in view of the many thousands of well established cures of such cases reported by the most trustworthy citizens. Many of these cases have been pronounced consumption—and incurable—by the best local physicians before the sufferers commenced the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Whether the doctors have erred in their judgment in these numerous cases or not is not for us to decide.

Ma a household is saddened because of failure to keep a safe and certain cure for croup such as One Minute Cough Cure, See that your it.ls ones are protected.
