

THE JOURNAL AND MR. BINGHAM. Let our readers weary of too much attention to Mr. Bingham...

THE ELECTIONS TUESDAY. In forty-two states elections will be held and what will be the result?

The election Tuesday will be on the issue of sustaining the war policy of the administration...

SALEM OF THE FUTURE. The people have no interest in city charter tinkering. No patch work on the present Salem city charter...

Under the heading, "The silver question in Washington," the Oregonian again endeavors to explain...

It will be just that way until the people make their own charter and adopt it at a popular vote...

Should the Salem of the future be conducted under a dark-lantern charter? Certainly not. The Salem of the future should be so well governed...

THE WHEELS OF HEALTH. There is no better exercise for a young woman in thoroughly good health than bicycling...

But it is doubtful if the people of Salem, can do these things. It is a fact, we are too engrossed in making a living...

It is the health of these delicate and important parts that "makes the wheels of general health go round."

BECHAM'S PILLS. FOR BILIOUS AND NERVOUS DISORDERS. Such as Wind and Pain in the Stomach, Giddiness, Faintness after meals...

change of our entire monetary system from a bimetallic to a monometallic basis, is to be accounted for by that simple statement, is it?

Why were not the gold coins all dropped from our coinage in 1873 instead of being reduced in size?

Now we do not wish to weary our readers with this matter but it is a public matter. Because $60,000 of just such fee bills as Bingham's were before the special session of the legislature...

Under the heading, "The silver question in Washington," the Oregonian again endeavors to explain, for the benefit of Washington voters...

That excuse, however, was never given on the floors of congress. No excuse was given. The matter never was discussed there.
